men prominent in the farming world. That the successful work of the farm bureau will be carried on with farm energy during the coming year as it has been since the bureau was organized, was manifested by the program of the contemplated demonstration, held by H. Niesley, county farm agent. Not the least important of the coming activities will be the work of the home economics extension bureau, which will be directed by Miss Mary Ruth Fisher.

Mencher Walks to His Train with Pick-up Band

Johnstown, Feb. 8.—Major General Charles T. Mencher, after three crowded days of homecoming celebrations, last night marched from hotel to his train in a most un military procession. He refused to ride in an automobile. A pick-up band led the way and the general walked with a couple of privates, a major, a lieutenant and some old friends. A bunch of prominent citizens and about a hundred other men, women and children, General Mencher returned to Washington.
