BOLSHEVISM IN CRITICAL STAGE SAY REFUGEES

Old Nihilism May Return or Leon Trotzky May Become Emperor

Warsaw, Feb. 10.-That Bolshevism is in its critical stage, either turning to imperialism, with perhaps Leon Trotzky, mnister of war and marine, as the nwe emperor, or slipping back to the idea of the old order, is the mipression given by er, is the mipression given by refugees of all nationalities to have arrived here from Rustine The correspondent has talked a number of these people as to at might happen in Russia if re is no outside interference. One them was a Bolshevist soldier of deserted.

of them was a Bolshevist soldier who deserted.

"Our chief characteristic," he said, "is that we are tired—tired of fooling, tired of killing, tired of fighting and tired of wandering from pillar to post. There is no doubt that Leon Trotzky is attempting to obtain order and to whip the troops into shape. He is known to be terribly ambitious and possily he is dreaming of ecoming czar, knowing that Bolshevism has failed."

Recent rumors that the Sovet government troops have evacuated Petrograd are unconfirmed. There was a general elief in Petrograd during January that the allies were about to occupy the city.

Governor to Open the Victory Ball

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.— Announcement that Governor William C. Sproul will be the guest of honor and the principal speaker at the Victory costume ball at the Academy of Music Thursday evening was made yesterday by Mrs. Henry Brinton Goxe, chairman of the ball committee.

The Governor will make a patriotic address in support of the Temple of Victory to be erected to the memory of the Philadelphians who took part in the war. While the speech ory of the Philadelphians who took part in the war. While the speech is being made the great allegorical scene will be unfolded.

Gradually the audience will behold a colossal statue of liberty, surrounded by a girdle of men and women apparently floating in the air. These figures will wear the costumes of the Allied soldiers and of European peasantry. After the Governor retires from the stage the 250 participants in the various tableaux will run into the ballroom floor beyond the proscenium arch and each will release a yellow or blue balloon, which will form a shower of the city's colors.
