

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

NEW POST OFFICE FOR NEWPORT

Congressman Focht Asks Appropriation of $100,000 For Site and Building

Newport, Pa., Feb. 12.—In a bill introduced into Congress by Congressman B. F. Focht, of Lewisburg, $100,000 is provided for the purchase of a site and the erection thereon of a building satisfactory for the Newport post office and other government offices.

Lewisberry Soldier in France Twenty Months

Lewisberry, Pa., Feb. 12.—Private Frank J. Ammerman, of Lewisberry, a member of the First Division in the United States Army of Occupation in Germany, wrote to the Rev. R. S. Stair, recently, telling the news through some hard fighting, previous to the signing of the armistice. Being in the artillery he had received a severe wound in the face by the kick of a horse some few months ago and had spent some time in a hospital, but was now fully recovered.

Mercersburg Odd Fellow Member Fifty-two Years

Mercersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—Fifty-two years ago last Tuesday Henry L. Waidlick, a well known retired carpenter, joined the order of Odd Fellows. He was with the first troops that sailed across the ocean and has been in France one year and eight months. Being in the Regular Army he spent some time in the last of the soldiers to return to the States.

The Detroit Vapor Water-Heater

Operates on Kerosene at a cost of less than 1 1/2 cents per hour.

This wonderful device can be attached to any water system, and will furnish you with boiling water constantly or at short notice. Each heater is equipped with 2 Cast-Iron Burners (same as used in the Vapor Stove) and 38 feet of Copper Coil.

Guaranteed for 5 Years Demonstration Daily HOOVER Furniture Company 1115-19 N. Second St. Between Calder & Reilly Sts.

HOW WEAK, NERVOUS WOMEN QUICKLY GAIN VIGOROUS HEALTH AND STRONG NERVES 7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

A Vigorous, Healthy Body, Sparkling Eyes and Health-Colored Cheeks Come in Two Weeks, Says Discoverer of Bio-terren.

If you are ambitious, crave success in life, want to have a healthy, vigorous body, clear skin and eyes that show no dullness, make up your mind to get one package of Bio-terren right away.

Cumberland Valley News

FAVOR RETURN OF UTILITIES OF UTILITIES

Chambersburg Chamber of Commerce Members Oppose Government Control

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—Chambersburg Chamber of Commerce went on record as being unanimously opposed to government ownership of public utilities and as favoring the return of telegraph and telephone wire lines to their owners as early as possible.

MADE BIG HAUL FROM MAIL BAG

Former Soldier Took Bonds, Money and Valuables at Railroad Station

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—After a long hearing before United States Commissioner Norman L. Lutz, district manager of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a discharged soldier, who gives Virginia as his home, was held under $1,200 bail for trial by Federal court on a charge of rifling the mails. The prosecution against Bradley was brought by William J. Fahy, a postoffice inspector.

BANK ROBBER'S HEAVY SENTENCE

Man Who Took $5,400 From Hallam Cashier Goes to the Eastern Penitentiary

Hallam, Pa., Feb. 12.—Edward Smith, of Red Lion, who on October 14 last, at the point of a revolver compelled Cashier W. C. Blessing, of the Farmers' State Bank here, to hand over $5,400, was sentenced Monday by Judge Warner in the county court, to a term of four to five years in the Eastern Penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500.

Tobacco Growers, Fearing Drop in Price, Sell Crop

Mount Wolf, Pa., Feb. 12.—Realizing that the tobacco quotations are going to come down, instead of up, as the season of the crop is now beginning to dispose of their 1918 crop. Several large sales were made during the past week, the growers realizing various prices.

WAR VETERANS HILL

Lewistown, Pa., Feb. 12.—The only two surviving members of the famous Logan Guards of the First Defenders of Civil War times are Joseph E. Fichtner, aged 86, and H. A. Walters, aged 82. Mr. Fichtner is able to be up again after a severe sick spell lasting two weeks and Mr. Walters is confined to his home at present very ill.

MRS. WRIGHT BURED

Newport, Pa., Feb. 12.—Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, who died on Sunday morning, aged 61 years, was buried this morning in the cemetery at the Red Hill church. Funeral services were in charge of the Rev. J. A. Staub.

Suburban Notes

MERCERSBURG J. H. Miller spent a day with friends at Newville. On Friday evening the students of Mercersburg Academy will present "The Man Who Stayed at Home" in the new gym auditorium.

YORK HAVEN

George W. Price and daughter, Anna, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with the former's son, Ira Warner, proprietor of the Penn hosiery.

MT. WOLF

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cross have returned from New Holland, where they spent the past six weeks with Mr. and Mrs. William Cross.

BOY DROWNED IN JUNIATA

Lewistown, Pa., Feb. 12.—Harry Harpster, a boy, was drowned in the Juniata river near Newburg last Sunday evening.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Mercersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—Miss Gertrude Feltz, while attempting to pick a pin from off the floor, tripped and her knee and shoulder were dislocated.

Program for Institute in Upper Allen Township

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—On Friday afternoon and evening, February 14, a subcol institute of Upper Allen township will be held in United Brethren Church at Shepherdsdown, about three miles south of this place.

Franklin County Convicts Taken to Penitentiary

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—Sheriff E. H. Horst, with four deputies, Lester H. Huber, John F. Kirby, Chief of Police Harry S. Heston and Gus Hoover, left for Philadelphia with three prisoners sentenced to penitentiary terms at last week's sessions of criminal court.

MRS. HARRIET SPECK DIES

Greencastle, Pa., Feb. 12.—Mrs. Harriet Speck, widow of Samuel Speck, died at her home in East Baltimore street on Monday night, aged 78 years.

STOLE FROM SHERIFF

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—George Burkett, of Chambersburg, is in the Franklin county jail here, charged with having stolen from Sheriff Enoch H. Horst a buggy pole, which had been placed in a stable at the rear of the jail.

GIRL SEVERELY BURNED

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—Helen McNew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark McNew, of Fayetteville, near here, was severely burned when matches she was playing with fell on her clothing on fire.

Junior Red Cross Enrolls Eight More Perry Schools

New Bloomfield, Pa., Feb. 12.—Eight additional Perry county public schools have enrolled every member in the Junior Red Cross, Miss M. Zula Swartz, of New Bloomfield, in charge of the drive, reports.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR WHY IT INCREASES

Hair growth is stimulated and its frequent removal is necessary when merely removed from the surface of the skin.

LIBRARY AT YORK HAVEN

York Haven, Feb. 12.—The request of the citizens of York Haven for one of the traveling public libraries has been complied with by the State Department and the library containing about 100 volumes, has arrived.

DRUG STORE, WHERE THE BOOKS CAN BE OBTAINED WITHOUT CHARGED FOR A PERIOD OF TWO WEEKS.

DAVID LONG DIES

Mercersburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—David Long, life-long citizen, died early yesterday morning. Mr. Long has been in poor health for a number of years.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Denton Brewer, of near Shippensburg; Miss Maude, at home; William Long, of California street, and Frank Long, at home. Mrs. Long is confined to the house on account of sickness.

Another New Assemblage of Spring Millinery Has Arrived

It will be of interest to the women and misses of this city to know that our millinery department this season is being conducted along entirely different lines from previous seasons.

Many New Pattern Hats Have Arrived $9.95 to $25.00

These chic models are featured in the fashionable tones of brown, mahogany and navy. They are most exquisitely designed of straw, georgette and ribbon, especially suitable for dress and street wear.

The New Gage Sailors $8.00 to $15.00

These are shown in the smartest shapes in pig's tail braid, pineapple, milan and rough braids, in plain colors and combinations.

How a Food Salesman Got the Surprise of His Life!

He was a well met fellow and stepped up to Mr. Davenport in that "sunny" business way of the man "on the road."

"So long as hens lay eggs, and we get them fresh, and the best milk in the land can be had, and the best grade of chocolate is available—old man, where do YOU eat?"

Architects of Appetites 325 Market St.