

KNOX PLEADS FOR NEW FOREIGN POLICY IN U.S.

Now Touches Life and Interest of Every Citizen, He Says

Pittsburgh, Feb. 13.—United States Senator P. C. Knox, who with Will Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, was a speaker at the banquet of the American Republic Club here last night, made a plea for a new foreign policy of the American government, because, he said, questions of foreign policy now touch the life and interests of every citizen. The banquet marked the beginning of Senator Knox's Presidential campaign, started by the members of the American Club.

"In March, 1912," Senator Knox said, "American diplomacy was a diplomacy of realism guided by high ideals in its practical care for national interests. Since March 4, 1913, American foreign policy has been turgid, opportunistic and vacillating; the diplomacy of this administration has been a diplomacy of transcendence and visionary idealism, reluctant to be guided by facts and lukewarm in its care for national interests.

"It is a grave matter that even the pressing home problems of reconstruction due directly to the war are being dealt with, while the energies of the administration are pursuing far off ideals. If there ever was an occasion when the American government should have had a highly paternalistic policy, that occasion was now, for facilitating our return to peace conditions and especially for the care of the demobilizing fighting men and the systematic provision of opportunities to drift back to return to civil employment. In all this side of the plain, unglamorous home work of reconstruction we have seen instead, the administration virtually burying its head in the sand in sudden return to the easy negligence of laissez faire. The practical administration of domestic affairs has been neglected while the practical administration of foreign affairs is hampered by vague idealism.

"The solution of our national problems needs the untrammeled national thought of the finely American south. I earnestly hope that the time is at hand when political action will be taken in the national problems will no longer follow lines of latitude which political thought have in fact obliterated.

"Chairman Hays devoted much of his address to the lives of Lincoln and Roosevelt; associating both in many events of the country's history.

WORSE THAN DEADLY POISON GAS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks young and old alike. In most cases the victim is warned of the approaching danger. Nature fights back. Headache, indigestion, insomnia, lame back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, pain in the loins and lower abdomen, difficulty in urinating, all are indications of trouble brewing in your kidneys.

When such symptoms appear you will almost certainly find quick relief in GOLD MEDAL BARKEN OIL Capsules. This famous old remedy has stood the test for two hundred years in helping mankind to fight off disease.

It is imported direct from the home laboratories in Holland, where it has helped to develop the Dutch people of the sturdiest and healthiest races in the world, and it may be had at almost every grocery store. Your money promptly refunded if it does not relieve you. Be sure to get the genuine GOLD MEDAL Brand. In sealed packages, three sizes.

"Leave It To Jane" A Musical Comedy Founded On Geo. Ade's "The College Widow"

"Leave It To Jane" is announced as the attraction at the Orpheum for an engagement of two days, beginning Friday, with a matinee Saturday. William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, who have been such successful musical comedy producers, will present "Leave It To Jane" here. The play ran for six months at the Longacre Theater in New York, and six months at the La Salle Theatre, in Chicago. The music is in Jerome Kern's happiest vein and the book and lyrics are by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse. "Leave It to Jane" is founded on George Ade's delightful comedy, "The College Widow."

Big Attraction Saturday With Pittcairn Meeting Gordon Ford's Team

Stanley Graf, baseball, football and basketball star, will hold his own at the Pittcairn Saturday night at Chestnut street, and hook up with Phil Gentile, the Independents will have a real battle. Another fast member of this team is Slim Cook and Captain Snyder, renowned strategist, will give Ford's men trouble. Manager Ford will have his tried and trusty line up as follows: INDEPENDENTS: PITCAIRN, Rote, f; Graf, f; McCord, f; Gentile, f; Haggerty, c; Cook, c; Gerdges, g; Brickley, g; G. Ford, g; Snyder, g. Referee, Clint White. As is customary, dancing will follow immediately after the game.

SAYS SOCIAL JUSTICE ONLY BAR TO WAR

Report of Catholic Bishop Declares Contented People Means Peace

Washington, Feb. 13.—Adoption of minimum wage schedules, maintenance in general of the wage levels obtained during the war and permanent establishment of the National War Labor Board and the United States Employment Service were advocated as essentials of a just reconstruction in a report made public today by four Catholic bishops, constituting the administrative committee of the National Catholic War Council.

While favoring, in the interests of health and morality, prohibition of child labor and reduction to the smallest practical limits of the employment of women in industry, the committee urged equal pay for women doing equal work with men. It declared also for insurance of workers against illness, old age, and unemployment until wages are high enough to tide over such periods, for abolition of monopolies, for continuance of heavy taxes on large incomes and excess profits, for cooperative merchandising in necessities to reduce the cost of living and for government-assisted colonization of unoccupied farm lands by demobilized soldiers and sailors.

Capital vs. Labor

As a measure outside its present reconstruction program but of value in solving the problems of capital and labor the committee urged gradual participation by labor in the management and eventually in the ownership of industry.

The report, entitled "Social Reconstruction; A General Review of the Problems and Survey of Remedies," was issued in the names of Bishops Peter J. Muldoon, of Rockford, Ill.; Joseph Schrems, of Toledo, O.; William T. Russell, of Charleston, S. C., and Auxiliary Bishop Patrick J. Hayes, of New York. As members of the War Council's administrative committee, they represent the Catholic hierarchy of America in general direction of work in this country and overseas.

Unrest a Menace

Declaring that "the deep unrest so emphatically and widely voiced throughout the world is a most serious menace," the bishops held up "social justice and a contented people" as the only safeguard of peace.

The authors of the report disclaimed any attempt to formulate a comprehensive scheme of reconstruction. Their recommendations, they stated, were confined to "reforms that seemed to be desirable and also obtainable within a reasonable time, and to those general principles which should serve as a guide for more distant developments."

Discussing the demobilization of the military forces, the report endorsed the suggestion of Secretary of the Interior Lang that discharged men should be given an opportunity to work at good wages in reclaiming unused lands, afterward to be assisted by government loans to establish themselves as farmers. It credited the Federal Employment Service with "a fair degree of development" and efficiency during the war, and urged that Congress continue and strengthen the organization as a means of helping to solve the ever-present problem of unemployment.

The bishops rated the National War Labor Board as "one of the most beneficial governmental organizations of the war." Its efforts, they asserted, had "prevented innumerable strikes and raised wages to decent levels in many industries."

WOMAN HELD FOR THEFT

Abbie Smith, colored, who was arrested last night on the charge of stealing $500 from a stock broker some weeks ago, was given a preliminary hearing in police court today. It is said she enticed the broker, a white man, into the alley at Walnut and Cowden streets, and tricked him of his roll.

Normal Talmage at the Colonial Theater

The Colonial Theater opens a three-day engagement of "The Heart of Wetona," a pietization of the biggest stage success of years, featuring Norma Talmage in the role of an Indian girl who loves not wisely but too well. This play ran for an entire season at the Belasco Theater, New York. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Anita Stewart will be seen in "Virtuous Wives." The theme of the story and screen production in which Miss Stewart returns to the ranks of stardom after an absence of several months, is of the modern problems of married life, the division of responsibilities, time and activities between husband and wife, the allegiance the wife nominally owes to her husband, and the extent of the trust he can place in her.

Havana Printers Accept New Offer and End Strike

Havana, Feb. 13.—The offer of a ten per cent increase in the wages of men earning less than $20 per week, and of five per cent for those earning more than that amount weekly, which was made by the employers at the suggestion of President Menocal, has been accepted by the members of the Linotypist and Typographical Unions, and the strike that has tied up newspaper and job printing plants for almost an entire week is over. Three daily papers have already begun publication.

The agreement reached also includes payment by the printing companies of double wages to the men who worked on the day of the funeral of Ex-President Roosevelt, refusal to pay which originated the strike.

ARRESTED FOR FLARING GUN

Arthur Johnson, colored, 230 Bailey street, Steelton, arrested last night and sent to jail on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons. It is said he drew a revolver from a number of soldiers in a Middletown car, and threatened to use it, following an argument over seats.

Irvin B. Rubin Is Home From Army Service

After seven months' service in the army Irvin B. Rubin was honorably discharged on Monday, and has returned to this city where he will again actively engage in his former optical business. With the exception of about two weeks, Mr. Rubin was stationed in the DeBartolomeo Hospital at Camp Stuart, Newport News, Va., in which hospital he was the examining optometrist of the eye clinic.

BUSINESSMEN WANT FREIGHT STATION OPEN

Tyrone's Commercial Leaders to Ask Pennsy to Continue Transfer Depot

Tyrone, Feb. 13.—Business interests of the town will make a strong protest to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at an early date, because of the closing of the freight transfer station here. It is declared that all freight will be delayed twenty-four hours because of this action.

The closing of the transfer was part of the company's plan of economy on the Tyrone division. A total of 328 employees on the division have thus far been relieved of their jobs. Twenty-six men were employed in the transfer.

Some definite action as a protest in the closing of the transfer will probably be made in a few days. Just what steps will be taken has thus far not been clarified.

Twenty New Members Are Added to Commerce Body

ZIONISTS PLAN TO TAKE OVER PALESTINE

A number of prominent speakers addressed the conference of the Zionists of eastern and central Pennsylvania, held last night in the Penn-Harris Hotel. R. Lewis Epstein, of New York, was one of the principal speakers, and emphasized the rapid growth of the movement, declaring that it is growing at the rate of 10,000 members a week, and now has 120,000 members enrolled. Joseph Claxton, president of the Zionists Society of Harrisburg, made an address, and Rabbi M. Abels, Altoona, declared that Palestine belonged to every Jew in the world, and that the race should be allowed to work out its destiny with a constitution of its own there. Other speakers were Rabbi Louis J. Hays, and delegates from Lancaster, South Bethlehem and other points.

Retail Merchants Hold Most Successful Banquet

The eighth annual banquet of the National Retail Dry Goods Association held last evening at the Hotel Pennsylvania, in New York City, was the greatest ever held in the history of the organization. Leading merchants and their representatives were present from every state in greater number than at any preceding convention. Harrisburg was assigned the first two tables directly in front of the toastmaster and the speakers' table. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McCubbin, Mrs. Herman Astrich, Miss Mildred Astrich, H. H. Bowman, David Kaufman, E. R. Sel-

CHARLEY'S AUNT
"Charley's Aunt," the comedy with music which has delighted two generations of fun-lovers, comes to the Orpheum Monday, "Charley's Aunt" is the funniest play ever produced in the history of the stage, and there is no attempting to describe it. Some say it is "hilarious," others that it is "rollicking," while there are those who express their opinions of the comedy by saying it is "cycloptic" but many will agree that it is quite the funniest of all fun plays.

Tom Linton and his "Jungle Girls" is the Majestic's feature attraction of the week. Linton is a clever comedian and never fails to put over a good line of comedy. This, together with the musical numbers, makes most pleasant entertainment. The remainder of the bill includes: "The Four Ortons," an acrobatic novelty; Brown and Jackson, presenting a bright song and patter set; Pat Garrett, in songs and comedy; and Lucille and Cockatoo, in a novelty offering.

The eighth episode of "The Lure of the Circus" is also being shown.

"Branding Broadway," which stars "Bill" Hart, is being shown at the Regent Theater to-day. Those who have already seen the new play pronounce it Mr. Hart's best. The manly sincerity he displays in delineation of his unique role is seen to very good advantage. "Bill" takes the role of "Bob West," a cowboy from the Golden State, in his neck of the woods prohibition has come into its own, and for "Bob" and his comrades the West is entirely too tame.

A thirst for adventure, the cowboy comes to New York. On his round of the city he finds a position which keeps him busy to the utmost, and a sweetheart. There are thrills and fights and gripping episodes aplenty, but "Bill" comes out on top.

"Lila Lee" comes out on top.

"Lila Lee," the newly-discovered child star, will appear in her first picture, "The Cruise of the Make Believe," Monday and Tuesday.

Madeline Travers, in a gripping romance filled to the brim with situations, is the attraction of the week. Her performance is a masterpiece of acting after circumstance, is the attraction of the week.

Theater to-day for the day only. Miss Travers will be remembered as the star of the famous "Lila Lee" case.

The title of this film is typical of the production. It is called "The Danger Zone," and in its tense moments and exciting climaxes it is said to have a single dull foot of reel in the entire production.
