MARIETTA WILL ERECT COMMUNITY HOUSE IN MEMORY OF SOLDIERS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Hiestand Offer to Buy "The Pines" and Present It in Honor of Their Son, Lieutenant Ben Hiestand, Killed in Florida Aviation Camp

Marietta, Pa., Feb. 14.—Pursuant to a call of the general committee elected to provide a suitable memorial for the Marietta heroes of the three wars, a large audience assembled Wednesday night in Acad's theater. After the Civil War veterans, Spanish-American war veterans and the boys just back from France took their seats on the stage under the cheery from the audience, the Star Spangled Banner was sung. Henry S. Hiestand, chairman, called the meeting to order and delivered the opening address. Mrs. James Duffy, whose husband is overseas was called upon and she heartily favored a community house. Dr. E. Linwood Corman made quite an address and was of the same opinion. He spoke of the advantages of a community house, over a monument. Henry S. Rich, Miss Maude Halderman, Mrs. H. Burd Cassel, Mrs. Frank Hiestand, Mrs. M. E. McCloskey, and Mrs. E. E. Paulus, all favored the project. The Rev. J. H. Miller, the first Marietta to return from the battle field, said the soldiers would pledge their support to any movement. Lieutenant Francis McCloskey, who returned that evening from France, made a few remarks. Daniel Hellman, a veteran of the Civil War, made a rousing address, and stated neither he nor their comrades would dictate as to what was to be erected. Adam Wis-

Soldier Who Lost Leg in Battle Returns Home

Greencastle, Pa., Feb. 14.—The first wounded soldier of this community has arrived home and is displaying the spirit of which heroes are made. Private Harry Faible, who was brought over in a transport which recently landed in New York and which he took he returned to his home. He lost a leg in Flanders in October, 1918, when he was hit by a piece of shell. Contrary to reports which have been in circulation here and which told of him lying wounded and neglected on the battlefield for several days, he says that he was given attention within five minutes after he was wounded. The wound became infected, however, and amputation was found necessary. Private Faible speaks enthusiastically of the devoted care and unremitting attention which he received from the time he was wounded until he was discharged from the hospital and sent home.

York County Farmers Selling Fat Cattle

Hallam, Feb. 14.—Farmers engaged in the cattle fattening industry during the winter months, are now disposing of their stock. During the past week a number of sales were made at a snug profit. John Gable, former postmaster of Hallam, disposed of his herd of forty cattle to a York dealer. Feeding them for a period of 130 days, the herd gained upward of 10,000 pounds in weight, or an average gain of about 240 pounds to the head. Mr. Gable's cattle averaged 1,200 pounds each and was one of the nicest herds ever to be delivered by a local farmer. Albert Emig and Edward Strickler, also successful farmers, have disposed of their herds of thirty and twenty-four heads respectively. The purchasers were Lancaster dealers.

REPORTED KILLED: Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 14.—Word received early this year that Leroy Sherman had lost a leg and Raymond Short was killed in the war were refuted to-day when both wrote home that they are alive and well. They are graduates of the Central Pennsylvania Odd Fellows Orphanage, near here.
