

MARKET SQUARE TO OBSERVE 125TH ANNIVERSARY; LUTHERAN COMMISSIONER COMING PLAN FOR BIG RALLY HERE APRIL FIRST

Famous Christian Endeavor Workers and Officials to Be Present at Monster Meeting

Preparations are being made for a great Christian Endeavor demonstration which will be "pulled off" in this city, Tuesday, April 1. A committee on arrangements is already hustling on the preliminary work.

One of the greatest attractions on the program will be an address by the Rev. Daniel A. Poling, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. Dr. Poling spent several months in the trenches across the water and will give some touching and interesting facts and description of France, and other points.

C. E. Notes

State Secretary H. B. Macroy, of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union, has resigned after faithfully serving the Endeavor societies of the Keystone State during the past six years. The resignation will become effective April 1. Mr. Macroy has accepted a call to the ministry of a church in Akron, Ohio.

The City Union executive committee will hold an important business session in the Sunday school room of the Market Square Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening at 7.45 o'clock.

"Our Relation to God, II. Trusting." The 911-16, will be the topic for discussion by the various Endeavor societies on Sunday evening.

At Westminster Presbyterian Society on Sunday evening Mrs. Martha Wright will have charge of the service.

William E. Rickert and Clarence Brickley will conduct the Keystone League meeting at Park Street United Evangelical Church to-morrow evening.

Pine Street Presbyterian Endeavorers are again stirring with new interest and enthusiasm.

Mrs. Stough will lead the Endeavor meeting at the Harris Street United Evangelical League on Sunday evening.

The First Church of God Endeavorers of New Cumberland will have a rousing meeting to-morrow evening. Mrs. McClure will have charge of the service.

Centenary United Brethren Endeavorers of Steelton, promise an interesting service for Sunday evening. James F. Menizer will make the program worth while for members and friends who will attend.

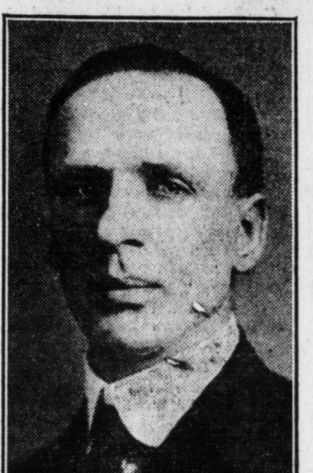

Frank S. Montgomery, the new president of the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Union, has begun his work for the new year with much enthusiasm and it is determined that the year 1919 should be a record-breaker. Mr. Montgomery served as president of the Dauphin County C. E. Union for a number of years with great success. He is also a prominent member of the Market Square Presbyterian society.

WANTED—200 C. E. societies of Harrisburg and vicinity to appoint a booster committee of delegation to the 125th anniversary meeting, April 1. Address F. S. Montgomery, Third and Chestnut streets, Harrisburg.

Salvation Army Will Hold Special Services

The Salvation Army, 456 Broad Street, Captain and Mrs. Nelson in charge, will hold Sunday School at 3 p. m. Service will be held every night next week except Saturday, at 8. A special feature of Sunday evening service will be the dedication of two infants.

Monday evening special farewell services for Captain and Mrs. McCabe, of Carlisle, who are entering the work of the Salvation Army and have been appointed to Alexandria, Va. Captain McCabe formerly resided on South Ninth street, this city. Adjutant and Mrs. James Mars, of Carlisle; Capt. Mae Slosser and Lieut. Sam Huff, of Lancaster, will also be present.

LUTHERANS TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Appeals For Funds to Be Presented in 10,000 Pulpits Tomorrow

Tomorrow from 10,000 Lutheran pulpits in the U. S. will be presented the appeal of the National Lutheran Council for funds for overseas reconstruction work.

The budget originally was set at $500,000. The state-chairmen have raised it to a million and propose to exceed that sum by a good margin. The campaign is being conducted by the National Lutheran Council, the reconstruction service agency of all Lutherans, except the Synodical Conference.

The purpose for which the funds are to be used are: Helping the Lutherans of France, Finland, the Balkans, and providing for religious service in industrial centers in the United States.

Police all over state are keeping sharp lookout for two colored men who murdered a woman in Shabon before her two children, able to plant corn and potatoes because of farm winter weather.

Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, State street, near Third, will preach two especially important sermons this Sunday morning and evening.

Dr. Bagnell will preach on the topic, "The Word of God Likened unto Rain," and in the evening at 7.30 o'clock, on the topic, "The Double-Minded Man." The evening's topic will be of great interest to all and will be especially enjoyed by the men who had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Bagnell's talks at the Grace Church Business Men's luncheon, which have been held at the Penn Harris hotel for the past three Fridays.

The Grace church chorus choir under the leadership of Prof. John W. Phillips, will render some especially pleasing selections, which will add greatly to both the morning and evening services.

The Epworth League will hold a meeting in the lecture room of the church at 8.30 o'clock, at which hearing Dr. Bagnell's talks at the "Pacific" will be discussed.

MISSIONARY TO SPEAK SUNDAY

The Rev. Mr. Bucher to Be Speaker at Second Reformed Church

The speaker at the Sunday service of the second Reformed Church, corner of Broad and Green streets, will be the Rev. J. Frank Bucher, of the Hunan district in China. Rev. Mr. Bucher, who is a native of this vicinity, his home being at Milton, and who graduated from the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church at Lancaster, is now one of the leaders of the missionary work of his denomination in China, being at the head of Eastview schools located at Shenchow. These schools, though located on the frontier of Christian missions in China, have been doing a great piece of work in Christian education, and, thanks to the splendid leadership of Mr. Bucher and his associates, have won the respect of the Chinese to the extent that it is quite impossible to accommodate the needs of the natives who desire the benefits of its schooling.

Although a comparatively young man, Mr. Bucher is a missionary and educator of rich experience, as are all those who have been engaged in missionary work in China during the recent troublous times of revolution and civil war.

Rev. Mr. Bucher is the guest of the Women's Missionary Society of the Second Reformed Church, and the pastor, Rev. Alfred Nevin Sayre, has honored him the freedom of the day's services. He will speak at the service of worship at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. also at the Sunday school exercises at 1.45 p. m. This is Mr. Bucher's year of furlough, at the expiration of which he will return to his work at Shenchow.
