337 ALTOONA DISCHARGES partments in the South Altoona and Juniata, not including clerical forces, according to motive power officials. Whether there will be further reductions depends entirely upon industrial conditions, the volume of traffic and the necessity for further economies. No additional orders have been issued and officials hope that there will be no further occasion for thinning out the employes.

Italiaans Delaying Frontier Solution Until King Speaks

Paris, Feb. 15.—The proposed arbitration of the Italian Jugo Slav I frontier question is for the moment in abeyance. The Italian premier, Vittorio Orlando, has seen President Wilson and informed him that, after consulting with his colleagues of the delegation, they had agreed that it would be impossible to take a decision on the arbitration proposal which the Jugo Slavs presented to the peace conference asking President Wilson to be arbiter, without first consulting the king and the cabinet, and, if necessary, the parliament.

Auditor General Snyder Says Trend is Against Rural Professional Men

Auditor General Charles A. Snyder not only intends to ask the legislature to enact a new minimum salary law, but to indicate some places where he believes the State places where he believes the State of Pennsylvania's educational system has not advanced with the needs of the time. Mr. Snyder said that he would arrange during the coming week with legislators to discuss the new minimum salary and that he thought the time had come when the school system of the State should make better provision for sons of men of moderate means.

"Now I do not want to engage in anything sensational, but I do think that in spite of all that we have heard our educational system in Pennsylvania needs a change. To my mind the common school system now does not give the son of a poor man a chance to become a professional man. Educators have been showing a trend toward theories, many of which are not workable. In my opinion there should be a higher standard of grammar schools and a boy leaving them should be fitted to become an intelligent and skilled artisan or metelligent and skilled artisan or me-

"Now, just let me say this: If the present system is not changed in ten years there won't be any rural physicians in Pennsylvania. People of moderate means can not afford to send their sons to schools for ten years to fit them to practice and those who do make the outlay of money and time will turn to the cities. This is another thing we must consider."

Rabbi Haas Favors League of Nations

Rabbi Louis J. Haas, at Ohev Sholom Temple, last evening spoke on the "Value of the League of Nations." Rabbi Haas declared that Nations." Rabbi Haas declared that the league would bring about a world organization for peace and democracy that would have been impossible five years ago. He pointed out the difference between the present trend of public opinion and the forces which formerly worked for autocracy.

A realization of the league, said the Rabbi, would spell the end of persecution and oppression of the Jews. Rabbi Haas announced that Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, would speak in the synagogue next Friday evening.

Make Your Will

You should make a will, and when you make it, be careful in the selection of an executor. You have no assurance that an individual executor named by you will live to carry out your plans. By far the most efficient and economical method is to appoint a Trust Company and know that your affairs will be in experienced hands and that your executor will see it through.

This is an important matter to you and one on which we would like to advise you.
