HARRISBURG TO BE INCLUDED IN BIG TRUNK POWER LINE

Industrial Conditions Throughout Eastern United States Would Be Tremendously Benefited by Great Project Endorsed by Secretary Lane

Harrisburg is to-day favorably receiving the plan of Franklin D. Lane, secretary of the interior. for the construction of an enormous trunk line electric power system in the North Atlantic Industrial District, including all that district between Boston and Washington, as a part of this country's reconstruction program.

The strategy of the contraction of the contraction

The House of epresentatives to-day passed by 196 to 0 the proposed constitutional amendment drawn by third class city officials to permit division of counties, cities and school districts into seven classes and boroughs into five. The resolution must pass the session of 1921 before being submitted to the people. In event that a constitutional revision commission is established this subject will be considered by that body. The session of the House to-day was the largest this year, lasting three hours, the greater part of which was devoted to a third reading calendar, the largest known in years at this period of a session. In addition to clearing this calendar the House disposed of a large list.
