BOLSHIS' MENACE

New Schedules to Fix Prices at Stations; Quail May Be a Songbird

Vienna, Feb. 18.—The menace of Bolshevism has created a critical sitation in Hungary whose general utilook is considered infinitely worse han in German-Austria. Under he present government the condition of the country is described as chaotic and a serious Bolshevik outbreak is xpected. With its army disbanded he government is unable to offer evisitation in the foundation of the country is described as chaotic and a serious Bolshevik outbreak is xpected. nd a serious Bolshevik outbreak is xpected. With its army disbanded he government is unable to offer esistance even if it had the courage nd energy to do so.

Public moneys, it is asserted, are eing "squandered" at an "appalling rate" and leading financiers extress fear of bankruptcy of the state. The whole situation of the country is reported to be "inconceivably worse than at any time during the our years of war."

Elections Impossible

Elections Impossible
The government is preparing to old general elections but under the present conditions this appears to be physical impossibility. There are to list of voters, and the franchise as been extended from 1,500,000 or 7,000,000 including women who to ave geen granted suffrage. With part of the country occupied by memies, elections in these districts will be impossible, it is declared. Fear of Bolshevism Grows
The fear of Bolshevism Grows
The fear of Bolshevism is growing ally and everywhere the people are riging that the Allies intervene. They express the fear that the conditions now existing in Russia will repeated in Hungary. Hunarian prisoners of war have returnd from Russia imbued with Bothevik ideas and are spreading the rropaganda. It is the general opinon of the people that the Karolyi abinet made a mistake in disbanding the army leaving the country at he mercy of the invaders.

While the greatest dissatisfaction in political circles and among the eople generally, and ministerial risis are daily occurrences, no pollical party seems to assume the reins f government.
