

Middletown

Will Give Patriotic Program in Schools

The Literary Society of the grammar school will give a patriotic program on Friday afternoon as follows: Song by society; "Marsellaise"; reading of minutes, secretary; violin solo, Elias Pavlansky, accompanist, Ella Wherley; recitation, Naomi Yost; chorus, class of girls; selection, Jesse Harley, accompanied by Nath. Ulmer; debate, "Resolved, That Lincoln Did More For His Country Than Washington," affirmative, Walter Best, Marion Smith, negative, Charles Hanna, Helen Gotschall; instrumental solo, Ella Wherley; vocal solo, Goldie Rhenner; instrumental duet, Lorain Gale, Helen Seiders; monolog, Christine Jackson; ten questions on Lincoln and Washington; report of treasurer, Elizabeth Beck; reading, Gazette, Joe Jacobs; closing song.

Resignation of Miss Rena Park was accepted to take effect February 24. Miss Park has accepted the position of superintendent of the Industrial Home, Harrisburg. Mrs. Annie Bamler, New York City, formerly of town, was elected as her successor.

A slight fire occurred at the American stores, in the Young block, South Union street, yesterday morning. A new fire had been built in the furnace in the cellar, which became overheated. Emil Rehrer, 15-year-old son of George Rehrer, was arrested at noon yesterday by detective Karl Groff, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, charged with stealing some copper wire.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stoner, of Susquehanna street, announced the birth of a son, Tuesday, February 18, 1919.

ORRSTOWN BANK TO OPEN

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—The state bank recently organized at Orrstown will open for business on May 17, according to the plans of the directors. The bank has purchased from the United Telephone Company a store property, which it will immediately commence to remodel as a permanent home for the bank.

BEER GETTING SCARCE

Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 19.—Beer sellers here are scouring the country for supply enough of the amber fluid to last until the first day of July, they say. The supply from the Cold Spring Brewery, Sunbury is exhausted, as well as 1,000 barrels recently bought from a Lock Haven firm. Most beer used in Sunbury now is being shipped from Pottsville.

During his career with the Geiser Manufacturing Company he made a tour of Europe in the interest of the company. He took a prominent part in the work of the American Threshermen's Association and was for years its vice-president. He was an incorporator of the People's National Bank and of the Chambersburg Greenacres and Waynesboro Electric Street Railway, on the directors of which he served for years. He was president of the local Board of Trade and took an active interest in the upbuilding of the city. He was a leader in the Republican political party of the county and was once a candidate for the State Senate. He was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. One daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Johnston, survives; also these stepchildren: Waldo Phillips, Misses Phyllis and Dorothy Phillips, children of the late Melville and Mrs. Gertrude Phillips, Philadelphia.

JEROME DETRICH DIES

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Jerome Detrich, formerly director of the poor of Franklin county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Seth Lamaster, at Markes, Franklin county. His death was indirectly due to influenza, an attack of which he suffered three months ago and which left him in a weakened condition. He was aged eighty-five years. One son, W. H. Detrich, is resident engineer of the United States Steel Corporation at Shanghai, China, and another, J. H. Detrich, is a minister in Minneapolis, Minn.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Accused of having attempted to assault 17-year-old Lottie Rosenberry in her room in the Montgomery Hotel at this place, Scott Berbour, a deformed negro, who came to this place from Harrisburg, Va., and who has been employed as a bell-hop at the hotel, was held for trial by court under $500 bail by Magistrate Van T. Haulman after a hearing.

OLD CONGREGATION DISSOLVED

Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 19.—At a special meeting of the Mercersburg classis in Chambersburg, the Reformed congregation of Mont Alto, at the request of the few remaining members was dissolved, and the property interests of the classis were placed in the hands of W. J. Zacharias. The church was built in 1830, and the congregation was once strong, but owing to business changes in the community the membership was reduced to eighteen and hence dissolution.

JOHN F. KENDIG

Newville, Pa., Feb. 19.—John F. Kendig died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alice Chrestensen, near Newville, on Monday morning, aged eighty-one years. Mr. Kendig was a member of the Big Spring Presbyterian Church, Newville, and is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. John Fagan, of Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. Chrestensen, of Newville, and one son, John H. Kendig, of Newville.

MRS. ANNIE STOFFER

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Following four weeks' illness of a complication of diseases, Mrs. Annie Stoffer, died at her home near Hunter's Run, on Sunday night. She was fifty-four years old, and a member of the Centerville Lutheran Church. Surviving are the following children: John, of Carlisle; Harp, in the United States service, in France; Mary and Zora at home.

WALTER SHAFER TO LECTURE

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Walter Shaffer, the Dauphin aviator, who thrilled readers of the Harrisburg Telegraph with his letters from France, telling of his experience as an aviator of the French flying corps, and afterwards of the German prisons, will give his famous lecture, "Over the Heads of the Hun," in the First United Brethren Church auditorium on Tuesday evening, February 25.

FIRST BUDS WELL SET

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Professor H. A. Surface, of Mechanicsburg, former state zoologist, makes the statement that upon examination, the fruit trees are well set with buds, which at the present time are in good condition. Large crops of fruit of all kinds are predicted for this season. As last year was the off year for apples, it is apparent that the crop will be a large one, in fact it will probably be a bumper one.

INFLUENZA CAUSES BLINDNESS

Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 19.—Dorsey, sixteen-year-old son of R. D. Sefton, will leave Monday for Overbrook, Philadelphia, to enter the state institution for the blind. His eyesight was so affected by an attack of influenza that the specialist called in the case advised relinquishment of his studies in the high school and a course of training in the Braille system for the blind.

HOTEL LICENSE GRANTED

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—The liquor license of Daniel Beer, proprietor of the hotel at Fort Loudon, this county, has been granted by Judge W. Rush Gillan. It had been held up because of the fact that a remonstrance was filed against it.

C. V NEWS

D. M. GOOD DIES AT WAYNESBORO

Wealthiest and Most Prominent Resident Held Many Positions of Trust

Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 19.—David Martin Good, Waynesboro's wealthiest and foremost resident, died at his residence in West Main street yesterday morning, following a general decline, which began five years ago. He was in his seventieth year. A native of Leitersburg, Washington county, Md., Mr. Good came to Waynesboro in 1873 and entered the drygoods store of Price & Hoeflich. He later acquired an interest in the business and some years later became partner with George Good, Besore & Unger in the same establishment. He retired from merchandising twenty years ago to accept management of the collecting department of the Geiser Manufacturing Company. He rose to a place on the directorate and in a few years became president of the company, which he held till the transfer of the concern to the Farmers' National Bank and Trust Company, six years ago. He then retired from active life.

FARMER DROPS DEAD

Danville, Pa., Feb. 19.—Charles Gorton, aged 88, a retired farmer, dropped dead while saving wood, his home near Jerseytown. Doctors said it was due to heart failure. He had long been prominent in Grange work.

RAILROAD SAFE CRACKED

Danville, Pa., Feb. 19.—Burglars who cracked the safe at the local Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company offices, using nitro-glycerine, are believed to have gotten away with several hundred dollars, although the amount was not given out by the railroad administration. It is believed to have been the work of professionals driving in an automobile.

VALANTINE SOCIAL

Columbia, Pa., Feb. 19.—Miss Ada M. Ferry and Mrs. D. L. Glatfelter were patronesses at a valentine social given by the Woman's Club, Mrs. George H. Tillo and Mrs. W. C. Sampson sang, Mrs. F. H. Heckel gave a reading from Dickens, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. George H. Wike, Miss Ada M. Hock and Miss Margaret Shilow. Hearts and tea were served.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Millersburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Private John Hogentogler, of Camp Meade, Md., and Miss Lucretia Hogentogler, who is at the Carlisle Hospital, came home Tuesday to attend the twenty-seventh wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hogentogler, at their home at Pfouts Valley, Tuesday evening.

OCCUPATION "FARMER"

Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 19.—That her occupation is "farmer," is given by Miss Anna L. Erdman, of Herndon, who was granted a license to wed Henry Bucher, a neighbor boy of 19. The girl is sixteen and wore long dresses for the first time yesterday when she came to the Northumberland county courthouse to get her marriage license.

AUXILIARY ELECTS OFFICERS

New Cumberland, Pa., Feb. 19.—On Monday evening the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Citizens Hose Company held its first meeting and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. G. B. Osler; vice-president, Mrs. Harry Hummel; secretary, Mrs. H. Noel; treasurer, Mrs. Coldren.

JUNIOR CLASS PARTY

New Cumberland, Pa., Feb. 19.—A Washington birthday party entertainment will be held in the High school room on Friday afternoon. The junior class will have charge of the program which will be an interesting character.

PROGRAM POSTPONED

Marysville, Pa., Feb. 19.—The program arranged by the Marysville High school for rendition on Friday evening of this week, has been postponed until Friday evening, February 28.

WILL INITIATE CLASS

Marysville, Pa., Feb. 19.—Marysville camp, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will initiate a class of twenty candidates at its meeting in White's Hall on Thursday evening.

WEST SHORE NEWS

Personal and Social Items of Towns on West Shore

Edward Howry, Mr. and Mrs. John Howry, Cornelius Howry, Miss Mary Howry, Miss Pauline Snively, of Lancaster, motored to Shiremans town on Sunday where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rowley and family. Jacob Crumblich and son, Orville Crumblich, of Steelton, spent Sunday with Mrs. Harry M. Zearing at Shiremans town. Miss Laura Feister, of Lemoyne, spent Sunday with the Misses Mary and Hazel Deckman, at Shiremans town. Ambrose Zearing, of Shiremans town, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Roy Stone, at Camp Hill. Miss Beatrice Bucher, of New Kingston, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George F. Jacobs, at Shiremans town. Abram Shank, of Frogtown, spent a day recently with his sister, Mrs. Harry M. Zearing, at Shiremans town. Miss Charlotte Snyder, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Snyder and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Clouser at Shiremans town. Charles Day, of Harrisburg, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smyser at Shiremans town. Frank McElroy, of Carlisle, is visiting friends at New Cumberland. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bates, of New Cumberland, are visiting their son Earl at Boston, Mass. They will also visit New York before their return. Earl Filby, who was discharged from the Army Reserve Depot this week, returned to his home at Mar-

Spanish Influenza can be prevented easier than it can be cured.

At the first sign of a shiver or sneeze, take WILKES' CASCARA QUININE. Standard cold remedy for 20 years—in tablet form—safe, sure, no opiates—breaks up a cold in 24 hours—relieves grip in 3 days. Money back if it fails. The genuine box has a Red Seal with Mr. Hill's picture. At All Drug Stores.

LIVERPOOL NEEDS HOUSES

Liverpool, Pa., Feb. 19.—Housing conditions in Liverpool is becoming a serious problem. With the advent of the Liverpool spinning mill, which employs 75 operators and the prospect of many more and their families coming to town, Liverpool will be compelled to build more houses in order to take care of the newcomers. At the present time there are many more people looking for houses in town than there are houses for rent.

BIBLE CLASS BANQUET

Columbia, Pa., Feb. 19.—The H. S. Graybill Bible class of Cookman Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, will have their fifth annual banquet on Friday evening, February 21. A musical program will precede the banquet.

PRAYER SERVICE

Dauphin, Pa., Feb. 19.—The prayer meeting service of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, will be held this evening at the home of Freeman C. Gerberich.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS AND SORE THROAT

There is no remedy equal to the old reliable JUNIPER TAR. The safest, best and cheapest family medicine. 60 Doses, 30 Cents. At All Drugists.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS AND SORE THROAT. There is no remedy equal to the old reliable JUNIPER TAR. The safest, best and cheapest family medicine. 60 Doses, 30 Cents. At All Drugists.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS AND SORE THROAT. There is no remedy equal to the old reliable JUNIPER TAR. The safest, best and cheapest family medicine. 60 Doses, 30 Cents. At All Drugists.

Advertisement for 'Father John's Medicine' featuring an image of a man and a child, with text describing its benefits for coughs and colds.

Advertisement for Bio-feren, a health supplement, with text: 'HOW WEAK, NERVOUS WOMEN QUICKLY GAIN VIGOROUS HEALTH AND STRONG NERVES. 7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS.' Includes a testimonial and list of ingredients.

Advertisement for J. B. Montgomery Long Flame Furnace Coal, featuring an image of a furnace and text: 'LONG FLAME FURNACE COAL. Our customers say—"Never had coal to last so long before. Going to fill my bins with it next Summer."'

Large advertisement for Fatima Cigarettes featuring a large illustration of a man's face and a woman's hands holding a cigarette. Text includes: '... and at the Waldorf-Astoria. A fact: The Waldorf in New York is but one of the many hotels all over the country, where Fatima is the largest-selling cigarette.' Lists various hotels where Fatima is sold.

Bottom section of the Fatima advertisement with the brand name 'FATIMA' in large letters and the slogan 'A Sensible Cigarette'. Includes a note about low prices and a list of hotels.