

HOOPER REPORT AS TO PACKERS IS MADE PUBLIC

Said Six Months Ago Industry Was a Growing Menace

Washington, Feb. 19.—A confidential report made to President Wilson by Herbert C. Hoover six months ago on the big meat packers was made public by the Food Administration at the direction of the president "to establish the real position of Mr. Hoover and the Food Administration on the control of the Chicago packing industries." In recent hearings before Congressional committees witnesses for the livestock men charged collusion between Mr. Hoover and the five leading packers.

In the report, in response to a request from the president for his views on the recommendations of the Federal Trade Commission, Mr. Hoover said he reaffirmed his opinion given nearly a year before that there is a growing and dangerous domination of the nation's foodstuffs, and approved some of the commission's proposals. He recommended restrictive regulation rather than stretching temporary war powers of the government and expressed the belief that the domination of the packers did not necessarily imply wrong doing on their part, but was the natural outgrowth of various factors which need correction.

Mr. Hoover accepted as economically sound the Federal Trade Commission's recommendation regarding Federal control of animal and refrigerator car service, and said stockyards should be "entirely dissociated from the control of the packers." He contended, however, that wrong practices between buyers and sellers would not be corrected by the Government controlling or owning yards.

His own instinct, Mr. Hoover said, was against Federal ownership of the packers branch houses and cold storage and warehouse facilities. Going into aspects of the packing industry not covered by the Trade Commission, he said:

"If proper abattoirs could be extended near the larger towns, possibly with municipal aid and the operations therein protected from legitimate competition, I believe they would not only succeed, but would greatly stimulate the local production of meat animals. One effect would be a great stabilization of prices by a wider based market than that now so largely dependent upon a small group of buyers."

SICK FOLKS REJOICE GREAT DAY COMETH

Mark Well the Time and Place, Monday, Feb. 24, at Geo. A. Gorgas' Drug Store, the Nu Vim Demonstrator Will Arrive

"Miss Nu Vim," as she is affectionately called by hundreds of former sufferers who have followed her advice to health, is coming to Harrisburg.

The place and time have been set. Monday, Feb. 24, at Geo. A. Gorgas' drug store, 16 N. Third street, she will begin her triumphs.

Yesterday's announcement in this paper—that at no distant date the people of Harrisburg would be given an opportunity to know, at first hand, the true value of Nu Vim, created much excitement among those who have sickness in their families.

Many have been insistent that the date be announced.

It has been decided to wait no longer—to hasten the time when those suffering from rheumatism, stomach, liver, kidney, bowel and blood disorders may repeat, in their own cases, the seeming miracles that have been reported from other cities where Nu Vim has been demonstrated.

The remarkable reputation achieved by Nu Vim Iron Weed Tonic almost overnight, is probably due to the fact that Nu Vim is purely vegetable—all medicinal.

Many people need an iron tonic but find no relief in mineral iron, which is too harsh and strong for their weakened condition. That's why the first spoonful of Nu Vim started these sufferers to gaining, when all else failed to help them.

Now Nu Vim—the medicine that has created such excitement in the West, as well as in Philadelphia, Camden, Wilmington and other eastern cities, is coming to Harrisburg.

Starting Monday, Feb. 24, Nu Vim will be demonstrated at Gorgas' drug store, 16 N. Third street.

MOTORCYCLE MEN AT PENN-HARRIS

Big Sales Conference of Factory Men and Central Penna. Dealers

(By A. F. DAVIES)

Upwards of a score of Central Pennsylvania Harley-Davidson dealers and two representatives of the Harley-Davidson factory, E. J. Mueller, and F. W. Steirhoff, met in one of the most enthusiastic sales conferences ever held in this city, Monday and yesterday in the Penn-Harris.

These sales conferences are a regular part of the Harley-Davidson service which is extended to all its dealers. They are in charge of the regular men from the factory, in the case of Harrisburg, E. J. Mueller, who is in charge is assistant Sales-manager of the Harley-Davidson Co. It affords the dealer the opportunity of getting the latest sales plans from the factory as well as enabling them to learn more about the splendid service that is extended from the factory in the way of part repairs and replacements.

Mr. Mueller, who is delivering lectures both days on every subject pertaining to the Harley-Davidson, is an enthusiastic Harley-Davidson man and knows the motorcycle from sparkplug to saddle. His explanations on the various parts, the big work the factory is doing for every Harley rider, the service department that is maintained, the work of the coming season, is very ably explained in such a way that no dealer but can grasp a part of that enthusiasm and make himself a promise that he is going to give better service to his customers and that he is going to sell more machines than ever.

One of the important points under discussion is the new Harley-Davidson sport model which is on display at the local salesrooms of Healy's Sporting Goods Store. This new model was explained thoroughly and as it has several new features not found on the regular model, proved an interesting topic to many dealers. It is predicted for this new model that it will create somewhat of a sensation when it is viewed by the public. Experiences that have been gained through the war has been embodied in this new model and from the point of performance it is said to be a winner.

It is predicted that the coming year will be the banner year in the motorcycle game and more machines will be in demand than can readily be manufactured. Early buying is one of the features, inasmuch as there are more orders now being placed for later deliveries than has ever been recorded in any February before.

French Farms Amaze Soldiers; Eager to Pull Home Out of Old Rut

Washington, Feb. 19.—The trend toward better agricultural education is nowhere reflected more clearly than in the work of the federal board for vocational education among the disabled soldiers, sailors and marines. The number of boys who have been raised on farms of the non-progressive type is considerable, and a large proportion of them now desire to receive specialized education in order that they may go back to the old home place, pull it out of the hap-hazard rut and put it on a paying basis.

The sights these boys have seen in France where the thrifty, French farmer has brought intensive agriculture to a science to where all raised on small acreage, have undoubtedly made a strong impression upon returned soldiers.

Son of Ex-Governor Stone Killed in France; Airplane at Fault

Philadelphia, Feb. 19.—Lieutenant John Stone, son of former Governor William A. Stone, of Pennsylvania, died on January 24 as the result of an airplane accident near Tours, France, according to information received by his father from Chaplain Frank M. Kerr, of the aviation service. Broken machinery in the plane is believed to have been responsible for the accident.

Lieutenant Stone was 29 years old. He had been in the air service since the beginning of the war and had won a promotion on his merits.

Community Buildings as Soldier Memorials

Washington, Feb. 19.—Soldiers memorials in the form of community buildings, dedicated to civic and social uses, and, wherever possible, built with bonds of the fifth Liberty Loan, are urged by the Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior, in a circular sent to every State.

A number of communities have already concluded that a building, in constant use as a reminder of the sacrifice made by the soldiers and sailors of the war, is more appropriate and enduring than the conventional grave-yard monument.

"There is a growing conviction," says Dr. Henry E. Jackson, author of the Bureau's circular, "that the conventional stone shaft, placed in a graveyard among the dead, is not a fitting memorial to those who died for freedom. The suggestion, made both in France and America, that these memorials take the form of community buildings, dedicated to civic and social uses, is obviously wise and ought to meet universal approval. On the walls of such a building should hang a bronze tablet containing the names of each community's martyrs to liberty."

28th Home March 15, Is Rumor at Brest

Philadelphia, Feb. 19.—The 28th Division, Pennsylvania's Keystone Division, expects to leave France about March 15 and arrive in the United States the end of the month. This is the gossip among members of the division and the army men at Brest, according to Captain George Harding, the artist, who has returned from France for a brief visit at his home on Montgomery avenue, Ardmore, before going to Washington. Captain Harding, with seven other artists, was assigned by the War Department to make a series of action sketches at the front.

"Of course, there may not be anything in it, this gossip among the army men," the captain continued, "but I heard it from many men and in many different places. The soldiers themselves certainly think they will be back in Pennsylvania by the end of next month."

"Because" -- ? -- "Otherwise"

There's a great deal of discussion these days how this "Live Store" has "forged ahead" and become the favored store throughout this section of the country, so we are going to "let you into the secret." "It's "because" we are "always reliable" and sell the right kind of merchandise — "Otherwise" you would not see such spirited buying at this "Live Store" — These things are convincing evidence that our greater values appeal to the thrifty buyers who are careful with their money and are anxious to invest it where it will bring the greatest returns.
