VEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

Cumberland Valley News

AUDITORS FILE SURVEY REPORT

Cumberland County Officials Japanese Cherry Blossoms Complete Review of Financial Accounts For 1918

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 24.-After near-

NEW PHYSICIAN IN SERVICE Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 24.—The offices of the late R. W. Ramsey, which have been vacant since his death several years ago, were reopened this morning by a new practitioner. The new physician is Dr.
H. H. Dight, who comes from Philadelphia. Dr. Dight was only recently released from active service in the navy, with the medical branch of which he served during the war.

INFANT IN HOSPITAL

INFANT IN HOSPITAL
Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 24.—Raymond, one-year-old son of Roy Eavey, Ringgold, in this vicinity, was taken to the Robert Garrett Hospital for children, Baltimore, this week, to be treated for club feet, an affliction the child has had since birth. The hospital doctors say they can straighten out his pedal extremities alright.

ASKS FOR TRIAL
Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 24.—Attorneys for Russell W. Potter, of Waynesboro, on Saturday filed a motion asking a new trial for Potter who was convicted in oyer and terminer court here three weeks ago of voluntary manslaughter. Potter was charged with the murder of his 14-year-old wife, Mary Thelma Potter, on November 23, 1918. ASKS FOR TRIAL

SALES BRING RESULTS Shippensburg, Pa., Feb. 22.—The blic sales of this community are inging large results. At two sales rkeys brought as high as ten doing. Land on the Fogelsanger farm ought $20 per acre. Other things ought more at some sales than was ever known in this section

Drinker

SPRING COMES TO IRVING COLLEGE

and Southern Smilax Add Touch of Beauty to Dance

Dickinson College Athlete Now at Carlisle Hospital

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 24.—Wounded, gassed and for weeks in hospitals overseas. Lieutenant John H. Atkinson, Dickinsol College athlete and officer in the United States Army, wedded just before his regiment was ordered from Gettysburg to Miss Katherine Weber, a Carlisle girl, arrived at the General Hospital here for treatment and will remain in Carlisle for a considerable period. His wife has been living in Carlisle, her father being an official of the civil activities at the hospital. Lieutenant Atkinson left college and was trained at the Fort Niagara Camp, being attached to the Fourth Infantry, stationed at Gettysburg in 1917. He went overseas early in the spring of 1918 and saw much service. He was badly crippled by wounds, one arm stiffened and injured by gas.

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN Greencastle, Pa., Feb. 24. — Miss Elise Burket, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burket, of Center Square, and John Wick, of Marion, were married at Hagerstown Friday afternoon. The bride was a student in the Greencastle High school and the bridegroom an employed and the bridegroom and the school and the bridegroom and th student in the Greencastle High school, and the bridegroom an em-ploye of the Chambersburg, Waynes-boro and Greencastle trolley com-

$135,000 FOR HOME Greencastle, Pa., Feb. 24.— coming Orphans' Court confirm the account of the executor of estate of the late John H. Shook

Change From Coffee

to POSTUM

Neither the war nor pre-war conditions have as yet increased the price of POSTUM CEREAL

POSTUM-both forms-has always been economical. Besides, it contains no caffeine or any other

Postum is good for the health—the delight of young and old—an economical, nourishing, delicious beverage. Every day-

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

or Instant Postum.

harmful substance.

Those who are wise

these days are seeing not only betterhealth, but Economy in a

ABNER MILLS SHOT IN STORE

Gettysburg Grocer Seriously Wounded by Hold-Up Men on Saturday Night

Gettysburg, Pa., Feb. 24.—Abner S. Mills, who owns and conducts a grocery store, was shot in his store late Saturday night. Mr. Mills, with his wife who was in the store, had made all preparations for closing up Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 24.—After nearly two months of work, the county auditors have completed their survey of the Cumberland county accounts for 1918 and filed their report late Saturday. All accounts were in good shape and there were looked and a downpour of rainty of the Cumberland county and the sturday. All accounts were in good shape and there were no surcharges or any recommendations for changes. The expenses of the county during the year were: Assessors, $9,709.57; bridges and roads, $15.870.02; count expenses, $4,970.50; county officers, $20,469.13; lail were that copy maiden, spring, apparents, $4,970.50; county officers, $20,469.13; lail and penitentiaries, $22,530,50; lail and penitentiaries, $2, told her he had been with John Miller and that they had shot Abner

MEMORIAL FOR SOLDIER
Mechanicsburgh, Pa., Feb. 24.—
Impressive memorial services were held yesterday afternoon for William G. McCreary, killed in action, in France at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vermon McCreary, 15 East Portland street, conducted by the Rev. J. Ellis Bell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The family received word that he had been wounded in action, on October 1, 1918, but it has since developed, according to official word, that he was killed at that time. Private McCreary was a member of the Machine Gun Company, 112th Infantry, and enlisted in June, 1918.

OBJECT TO EXAMINATIONS Lewistown, Pa., Feb. 24.—School Director Charles Jacobs, and W John Deamer and Albert Krick, two BIG SHIPMENT OF WHISKY Greencastle, Pa., Feb. 24.— A fruck from Baltimore arrived in Greencastle the past week which contained thirty-five cases of whisky for a Greencastle alsoonkeeper. The goods was valued at $25 per case, twelve quarts to the case, 1,620 quarts or 405 gallons at a value of $3,375.

fiftieth paniversary of the founding of the Trinity Reformed church, will be held in the church to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, Special services will be held each evening this week with the exception of Saturday, and on Sunday the anniversary proper will be celebrated.

At to-morrow evening's services, the Para Mean No. 10 of the speaking following a business meeting at which the preliminary

It has originally been planned to hold these services in December, when the anniversary, really occurs, but it was postponed at that time due to the prevalence of influenza. Arrangements for the anniversary are in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Ralph E. Hartman.

JOHN Q. A. WESTHAFER
New Cumberland, Pa., Feb. 24.—
John Q. A. Westhafer, aged 51 years, died at his home in Third street, yesterday afternoon of pneumonia. He came home frorm work at the Bethlehem steel works at Steelton, on Wednesday very ill and death resulted yesterday.
Mr. Westhafer was born at Falmouth, Lancaster county, but has e Fellows Lodge at Goldsboro, and of the P. O. S. of A. camp at Strinetown. He was also a member of Baughman Memorial Methodist church here. He is survived by his wife and four children. Raymond, a clerk in the New Cumberland bank; Harry, Annie and Ella. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home by the Rev. C. T. Rue. Final services will be held on on Wednesday morning at the Strinetown church, where burial will be made.

Marnstrong, of Providence, R. I., and Grosse B. Winemiller, of Harrisburg.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON Ballfax, Pa., Feb. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Jury, of South Sectond sireet, announce the birth of a son, Russel Harvey Jury, on Tuesday, February 18, 1919. Mrs. Jury before the Merchant of Medical Physics of Matamoras.

WEST SHORE PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Long, of Moore's Mills, visited

"WIN ONE" CLASS MEETS
Washington Heights, Pa., Feb. 24.
—The "Win One" class of Calvary
United Brethren Sunday school meta the home of Mrs. R. M. Peffer, in Market street, on Tuesday evening. After the business session refreshments were served to Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. Samuel Bomgardner, Miss Goldie Naylor, Mss Ruth Sponsler, Miss Mary Rishel, Miss Mildred Rishel, Mr. and Mrs. U. Rishel, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rishel, Mr. B. F. Swabb will entertain the Mits Society of the Reformed church Rishel, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rishel, Errol Rishel, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Peffer.

MRS. RISHEL HOSTESS
Washington Heights, Pa., Feb. 24.
—Mrs. W. O. Rishel entertained on Monday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary, her father, the Rev. J. H. Young, her sister, Mrs. A.
B. Lantz, of Hillside; her brother, W. H. Young, of Philadelphia, and Richard Lease, of Harrisburg.

PARTNERSHIP DISSOLVED
Marysville, Pa., Feb. 24.—The firm of Cunningham & Bitting, merchants, South Main street, has been dissolved and commencing to-day the store will be conducted by the junior member of the firm, G. C. Bitting. The other member of the firm was R. H.
Cunningham.

KEYSTONE CHURCH OFFICERS
Marysville, Pa., Feb. 24.—Mrs.
John Keller has been elected president of the Women's Missionary Society of the Keystone United Evangelical church, of near this place.
The other officers are: Vice-president, Mrs. M. Bretz; secretary, Mrs. Jesse Crossley; corresponding sec retary, Mrs. H. M. Miller.

Suburban Notes

HUMMELSTOWN Mrs. Harry Lindley, of Middletown pent Saturday among friends in

Mrs. Harry Lindley, of Middletown spent Saturday among friends in town.

Miss Ethel Deimler, of Harrisburg, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bomgardner.

Miss Katharine Keller, of Middletown, spent Saturday in town the guest of her brothers.

Mrs. Matilda Shuey, of Linglestown, is spending several weeks at the home of her son, William Shuey.

Mrs. Charles Brehm and son, Russell, spent Saturday and Sunday at Philadelphia.

Miss Midred Harper and Miss Ida Delmler spent the week end at New York City.

Miss Katherine Nissley, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her aunt, Miss Mary Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linebaugh, of Wormelsdorf, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rudy.

Miss Katie Deimler spent several days at Carlisle, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Abner Demmy.

Howard Holsberg, of Philadelphia, spent several days with his mother.

Addressed by Army Men

Camp Hill, Pa., Feb. 24,—Paul Gilbert, just home from England, a member of the United States and involving ourselves in the Army, and Dr. Form service in the South and Dr. Form services in celebration of the firtieth phniversary of the founding of the Trinity Reformed church, will be held each evening at so o'clock. Special services will be held each evening this work of the Red Cross and the work of the Red Cross and the work of the Red Cross and the R

At to-morrow evening's services, the Rev. Alfred N. Sayres, pastor of the Harrisburg Second Reformed church, will be speakerr. He was a classmate of the pastor of the local church, the Rev. Ralph E. Hartman, both at Franklin and Marshall College and the Eastern Theological Seminary of the Reformed church at Lancaster.

On Wednesday evening, the Rev. Homer Skyles May, pastor of the Harrisburg Fourth Reformed church, will speak. On Tuesday, the Rev. H. A. Ketchledge, pastor of Harrisburg Fourth Reformed church, will speak. On Tuesday, the Rev. Ellis N. Kremer, of the Reformed Salem church, Harrisburg, and on Friday evening, the Rev. U. O. H. Kerchner, pastor of the Newport Reformed Church of the Incarnation.

It has originally been planned to Eleven From Central States.

Reported on Casualty List

when the anniversary really occurs, but it was postponed at that time due to the prevalence of influenza. Arrangements for the anniversary are in charge of the pastor, the Rev Ralph E. Hartman.

Entertain For Soldier Son Home on Furlough

Marysville, Pa., Feb. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Deckard entertained at their home in Front street, for their son, Corporal Harry M. Deckard, of the United States general hospital at Detroit, Mich., who is spending a furlough at his home here.

Among those in attendance were: Miss Marguerite Glass, Miss Anna Wagner, Miss Margaret Ellenberger, Miss Louise Corl, Miss Mary Corl, Miss Irene Ashenfelter, Miss Hazel Hain, Miss Frances Fortenbaush, Miss Pauline Glass, Miss Mary Deckard, of the United States and Mrs. D. D. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Deckard.

JOHN Q. A. WESTHAFER

HOPE SON IS ALIVE
Halifax, Pa., Feb. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. George M. Motter, of near town, now have hopes that their son, William E. Motter, twice reported killed in France, may be alive. They have received information that a soldier returning to this country had seen the young man coming back to the United States, and that he is now in a hospital minus one arm and leg and that he is mentally unbalanced.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES He came home from work at the Bethlehem steel works at Steelton, on Wednesday very ill and death resulted yesterday.

Mr. Westhafer was born at Mark Mesthafer was a member of the Odd Pellows Lodge at Goldsboro, and of the P. O. S of A. camp at Strine town. He was a Mesthafe was a Mesthafer was a Mesthafer with the Mesthafer was a Mestha

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Long, of Moore's Mills, visited their aunt, Mrs. I. P. Deardorff, at Washington

Hummelstown, Pa., Feb. 24.— Mrs. B. F. Swabb will entertain the Mite Society of the Reformed church to-morrow evening.

The W. B. Schleisner Stores

Women's and Misses' New Spring Frocks

Elegant in their simplicity

$35 to $175

Afternoon Frocks

a host of the new models-varied in mode and material-featured in georgette combination of georgette and satin, some are gold embroidered—$35.00 to $79.50.

Evening Gowns in all the alluring Moonglo satin, Paulette silk, charmeuse, crepe de chene, as well as black Moonglo silk gowns jet and bead embellished—$35 to $175.

Mourning Dresses in the famous Blackshire models, exclusive in design and dignified. The selection of these dresses is comprehensive.

A Number of Very Fetching Velour Dresses are offered in a special sale Tomorrow---$ 18.75

T HIS is one of those splendid opportunities that come every little while, but come as surprises. The little velour dresses are extremely smart, especially attractive and serviceable-and are certainly very excellent value at this price.

> The slender lines and long waist effect the new and conceded vogue -Shown in Navy, Taupe and Henna

Many More New Arrivals in Trimmed Hats and Gage Sailors Freshly Unpacked.

NOW OPEN

Penn-Harris Turkish Baths

Second Floor, Russ Building, Market Square

Open Day and Night

These baths have been thoroughly remodeled, new fixtures, equipment and every facility that will enable giving the highest grade service has been installed.

The Penn-Harris Baths will be under the direct supervision of Mr. John M. Mc-Hale, formerly of the Los Angeles Athletic Club and the Racquet Club, Philadelphia.

Special Day For

the Ladies

There is now no need to go out of the city for a real, firstclass Turkish bath - it is available and awaiting you here whenever you want it.

A special feature of the Penn-Harris Turkish Baths is the special attention given to Ladies. Mondays and Thursdays of each week from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. has been set aside as Ladies' Days, when thoroughly experienced and refined women attendants will be in charge.