Salvage work is still going on and now that housecleaning time is fast approaching, there will doubtless be plenty of rags, old newspapers, magazines and metal of all kinds for this committee of the Red Cross. The collector will call promptly for your articles if you will notify Red Cross headquarters, 4884, or drop a post card to the chairman, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, 105 Locust street. If you give the message by phone, be careful to speak your address distinctly. Many times the collector has gone to some house on the outskirts in response to a phone call, only to find that the number was incorrect.
