"Your Vegetable Ipon Tonic cured me of kidney trouble." So says Miss Katherine Gunkel, of 1822 East Cambria street, Philadelphia. According to her statement, this is how it honnead.

"Your Vegetable Iron Tonie cured me of kidney trouble. Af-ter taking five bottles of Nu Vim all the pains left my back and head, and I found I did not have to get up in the night. I can now sleep all night and eat any-thing and feel well and fine in every way. I gladly recommend-ed Nu Vim to all my relations, and they are also finding good re-sults from the tonic."

is how it happened:

Unravelling a situation that one has knotted up one's self is a diffi-cult affair. In this case, I should think you would have to proceed rather warely. Begin by inviting the young man to some group affair where wou will not necessarily see him alone.

DIFFICULT CHOICE Mr. Plowden, the well-known London magistrate, was once questioning the wife of a notorious burgiar. "You are wife of this man?" he asked. "Yes." You knew he was a burgiar when you married him?" "Yes." "How came you to contract a marriage with such a man?" "Well," the woman explained. "I was getting old, and I had to chose between him and a lawyer." Three ways to reduce your
