Company B. Royal. Shirey and Ab-Bestechi. Meredith and Baxter: bot. In company formation drills. Company B was awarded first place over the other two companies. For the best individual work, mention was made as follows: Com-pany A.—First, Hawley Armstrong: second, D. Galbraith. Company B— First, Private Ludington; second, Robert Shirey, Company C.—First, Jennings: second, Kasson. Company A, the only one of the three companies to be drilled in the manual of arms, gave an exhibition of their proficiency in this branch of work. Mentioned among the first four were Tripp, Beckley, William Snyder and Hawley Armstrong. Honorable mention was given Mil-house and Rife. For the best military bearing of
