

TANKS GUARD
LARGE GERMAN
MUNITION PLANT

Take Action Until Owner of Material Is Decided Upon

Coblenz, Feb. 27.—A German ammunition assembling plant covering 20 acres, within a few miles of the Luxembourg border in the American occupied zone, has been placed under guard by United States troops pending final decision by the allied boards as to whether certain war materials in the plant belongs to the German government or to private interests.

Three hours have been added to the time in which light wine and beer can be sold in the area of the American Army of Occupation by an order issued by Major General Dickman. The hours are added by the extension of the selling hours in the evening from seven o'clock to ten o'clock. Up to this time the hours have been from eleven o'clock in the morning till two o'clock in the afternoon and from five to seven o'clock in the evening. The mid-day hours remain unchanged. The modified order applies to civilians as well as to soldiers.
In another order the sale or gift of champagne is prohibited. General Dickman holding that champagne is not light wine. This order applies to the Americans as well as to the German civilians. Sherry, port and maderia wines also were declared not to be light wines.

The modification of the order regarding the hours in which light wines and beer can be sold has caused much rejoicing among the Germans who until the Americans came, spent their evenings in the cafes all of which had orchestras even during the war. In Coblenz and Treves the orchestras were discharged when drinking in the evening was permitted only from five to seven o'clock. When the regulations were modified orchestras appeared in all the principal cafes the first night the order became effective.

Miners Will Celebrate Eight-Hour Anniversary
Shamokin, Pa., Feb. 27.—The anthracite miners are making extensive preparations for a display of their strength of unionism throughout the coal regions on April 1—the real "Labor Day" of the miners. April 1 marks the anniversary of the adoption of the eight-hour workday in the bituminous coal fields during the administration of John Mitchell, and will be observed as a general holiday.
A campaign has been launched by union executives for a 100 per cent. membership of miners and mine laborers before that time.

REPUBLICANS TO PICK SPEAKER AT CAUCUS TONIGHT
All Three Candidates Predict Their Selection; Pennsylvania For Gillett
Washington, Feb. 27.—With the Republican conference for selection of a party candidate for Speaker of the next House set for to-night, workers for the three-announced candidates have started final efforts to obtain for their favorite the votes of the holdover and new Republican representatives. As the Republicans expect to organize the next House, nomination by tonight's caucus probably will be equivalent to election.

Campaign managers for the three candidates—Frederick H. Gillett, of Massachusetts; James R. Mann, of Illinois, and Philip Campbell, of Kansas—today predicted the election of their respective favorites.
Twenty-four of the twenty-eight Republican members of the Pennsylvania delegation conferred yesterday on the Speakership contest. After the meeting it was said that eighteen members expressed a preference for Representative Gillett, five declared for Representative Mann, and one was noncommittal. The four absentees were said to favor Mr. Gillett.

Annual Bowman's Silk Sale
We expected a big response to yesterday's announcement, because the Annual Bowman's Silk Sale has for years been a yearly event that attracted crowds of women from Harrisburg and surrounding cities. We were not disappointed. In fact the instant response exceeded our most sanguine expectations. Even Tuesday afternoon before the window decorators had completed the window displays, groups of people gathered to admire the beautiful materials, and all day Wednesday expressions of admiration were frequent from the many who stopped to admire the beautiful display.
In fact, no finer display of silks have been shown in Harrisburg, therefore the praise of the beauty of the silken fabrics was attributed as an endorsement of our efforts to secure the best obtainable in silks.
The reductions are as remarkable as it is possible to secure anywhere in any city under present conditions, and we invite comparison with the Silk Sale prices of any of the larger metropolitan cities.
Spring is near and Easter will soon be here. Note some of the many offerings you may secure during this three-day event:
