

STOOD AT EDGES OF GRAVES AND SHOT TO DEATH

Report of Estonians on Bolshevik Atrocities Unfolds Terrible Tale

By Associated Press
Copenhagen, Feb. 27.—The official report of the Estonian authorities on the atrocities committed by the Bolsheviks in Estonia, especially at Wenesberg and Dorpat, unfolds a terrible tale.

The graves of persons murdered at Wenesberg were opened February 17 in the presence of the town governor. They were found to contain eighty-two bodies. The skulls of the dead had been battered in and the bodies bayoneted. An eye witness of the executions said that the people were placed at the edges of the graves and shot. The bodies were then thrown into the graves and the wounded were killed with the butts of rifles. In the vicinity of the graves were bits of torn clothes, fragments of skulls and hair, while the grass was covered with congealed blood.

At Dorpat the people killed were dropped into the river through holes cut in the ice. Bodies that were recovered later were evidence of brutal treatment by the Bolsheviks. In one cellar a large number of bodies were found in a pile. These people had been robbed of their clothes and values and killed with hatchets and bombs.

According to the report the fury of the Bolsheviks also raged against the peasantry, many of whom were murdered or maimed. The report says that thirty women at Marva were drowned, the Bolsheviks tying stones around their necks and throwing them into the river.

GERMAN ARMISTICE COMMISSION STOPS MEETING SUDDENLY

Truce Delegates Quit Spa For Berlin; Ludendorff and Hindenburg to Be in German Capital Soon; Reason For Reported Suspension Not Given

By Associated Press
Geneva, Feb. 27.—This evening's Swiss newspapers print a Berlin dispatch stating that owing to the sudden suspension of armistice negotiations the German commission left Spa this morning for Berlin. The reason for the reported suspension is not given. General Ludendorff is expected to arrive in Berlin to-morrow, and Field Marshal Von Hindenburg will go there shortly.

Negotiations between allied and German financial and economic and military missions have been in progress at Spa for some time but there has been no intimation from allied sources that anything in the nature of a crisis had developed there. In the absence of definite information it would seem probable that meetings if they have been broken, as reported, have been suspended only temporarily. On February 14, Marshal Foch presented to the German armistice commission at Treves the provisions for extending to the armistice between the allies and Germany. These provisions he received from the Supreme Council of the Peace Conference. They were accepted by the Germans, after being referred to the national assembly at Weimar, and were signed by the German delegates on the evening of February 16.

SOVIET RIDING FOR FEAR SAYS LABOR LEADER

Lenine and Trotzky Know the Game Is Up, Avers Briton

London, Feb. 27.—Premier Lenine, War Minister Trotzky and other high officials of the Soviet government know that the game is up, but do not know how to get out of it or what to do, is the chief expressed by H. V. Keeling, English trade unionist, in an interview in the Westminster Gazette. He recently arrived in England from Russia, where he spent five years in close contact with the Russia working classes.

Mr. Keeling, who frankly admits that he was at first attracted by Bolshevik ideas, says that Bolshevism in its present phase is nothing less than a "starvation conspiracy." He believes that when Lenine and Trotzky show the slightest sign of weakening they will be done for. As a result, he said, they simply go ahead "working their machines round and round and grinding out anybody they think is dangerous."

HOW TO TOTAL INCOME TAX YOU MUST PAY UNCLE SAM

Important Details of New Act Explained For Benefit of Taxpayers; Returns Must Be Filed by March 15 to Escape Drastic Penalty

Within the next three weeks, or by March 15, every unmarried man or woman earning $1,000 or more in the calendar year 1918 and every married person whose income amounted to $2,000 or more must make a detailed report of his income to the Federal revenue collector of his district. On or before March 15 the first installment of the income tax must be paid, one-fourth of the total amount due or all of it if the taxpayer chooses.

This means that millions of Americans must get to work at once to prepare their returns, and for the guidance of taxpayer, the Internal Revenue Bureau has issued explicit instructions covering the preparation and filing of returns. This is the A B C of the new law.

First get a tax return form from the revenue collector's office or from a bank. There are many kinds of these forms. If a person's income was below $5,000 he should ask for the form especially intended for the smaller incomes. It might be advisable to get one of three of these forms, since one may be spoiled in the preparation. The form is a six-page printed sheet, with detailed instructions for reporting various items of income. Taxpayers should be sure to fill in every blank space.

To illustrate the calculation of tax: A single man with a net income last year of $2,000 will be taxed $400. Income of $3,000, tax $540; income of $4,000, tax $780; income of $5,000, tax $1,020.

A married man without children and with an income of $2,500 last year will pay $375; income of $3,000, tax $525; income of $4,000, tax $780; income of $5,000, tax $1,020.

The regular or normal tax is 12 per cent on incomes of more than $5,000 in case of unmarried persons and more than $6,000 in the case of married persons without children. In other words, a tax is double the income of $4,000 more than the specific exemption. In addition, so-called surtaxes superimposed on the regular or normal taxes are assessed on net incomes of more than $5,000, the additional rate being 1 per cent for the first $1,000 above that sum, 2 per cent for the next $2,000, 3 per cent for the next $2,000 and 4 per cent for the remainder of the second installment of one-fourth of the $2,000. But the 12 per cent rate and the surtaxes may be ignored by persons with incomes of less than $5,000.

After the tax is figured a person must count at least on paying one-fourth of the sum by March 15. The second installment of one-fourth of the tax is due on or before September 15; and the last installment, December 15. Penalties are provided for failure to file on time or to pay the tax promptly, and late payments before March 15. Payment in full by March 15 also will be welcomed, on the ground that the government needs the money.
