John Barleycorn, better known as Liquor Traffic, died quite suddenly in this country, January 16 nineteen hundred and nineteen. He had been suffering for many years, and although he put up a valiant fight, the complications, such as the Anti-Saloon League, Women's Christian Temperance Union, Christian Endeavor, churches, etc., etc., were rapidly sapping his strength. The final shock his strength. when the thirty-sixth State ied the Constitutional ratified Amendment for National Pro-

Amendment for Antonial Pro-hibition. His age is not definitely known. No near relatives sur-vive. If there are any, the ministers will kindly refrain from mentioning them. Burial will be made as soon as Legis-lature arrangements can be made. Due announcement will be made later. Papers in other states where John did much traveling will please copy. Gone and will scon be forgotten as this is a world of peace and re-construction.
