INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

MONDAY EVENING.

FOR CIVIC CLUB

Penbrook Community Club Will Hold Entertainment to Secure Funds

Walters, Miss Shartzer, Mrs. Wetteroth.

Part II—(a) "The Nightingale,"
Gaul; (b) "Little Dutch Lullaby," Stair, Lyric Club; contraito solo,
"Come Over the Sea," Elliott, Miss Jennie Shartzer; violin solo, "March from Tannhauser," Wagner, Mr.
Brunner; tenor solo, selected, John
Gibson; "Bridal Chorus," Cowen,
Lyric Club, directed by Mrs. O. E.
Good, Helen Runkel accompaniest.
Committee on musicale, Mrs. G.
Vallerchamp, chairman; Mrs. Lawrence A. Hetrick, Mrs. Edward Kirby
Lawson and Mrs. Josepr G. Miller.

First Public Meeting
The Penbrook Community Civic
Club held their first public meeting or Thursday night in the newlydecorated and furnished rooms of the borough hall.

The club is very proud of having decorated and furnished rooms of the borough hall.

The club is very proud of having an unusual record of 275 charter members, about 200 being in attendance at this meeting.

The business of electing two directors for the year was acted upon, Mrs. Joseph G. Miller, of Penbrook, and Miss Caroline Rauch, of Progress, being the successful candidates.

Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones gave an instructive talk on civil work, after which refreshments were served.

It is the purpose of the club to take up especially outdoor educational musical work and to interest the young girls and boys of the two boroughs, Penbrook and Progress.

A piano committee was appointed for the purposhe of raising funds for a new piano, Mrs. Lawrence A. Hetrick, chairman, assisted by Mrs. O. E. Good, Mrs. M. Tarner and Mrs. F. L. Wolf.

Salvage committee, Mrs. A. L.

Y. L. Wolf.
Salvage committee, Mrs. 'A. L.
Chope, chai man, assisted by Mrs.
Cdward Stauffer, Mrs. W. Potteiger,
Ars. Frank Weldman, Mrs. George
Imholtz, Mrs. E. K. Smith and Mrs.

Imholiz, Mrs. E. K. Smith and Mrs. Frank Zeiders
Officers elected for the year: Miss Tilda M. Zarker, president; Mrs. Lawrence A. Hetrick, first vice-president; Mrs. George F. Lumb, second vice-president; Miss Myrna Speas, secretary; Mrs. E. Kirby Lawson, treasurer: Mrs. Joseph G. Miller and Miss Caroline Rauch, directors.

RED CROSS NURSES Mrs. Stanley G. Backenstoss organ-ized class for Red Cross nursing will meet every Wednesday at the Civic club. This is a large class which is receiv-ing excellent instruction.

Wedding Flowers Party Flowers

The Berryhill OCUST ST. AT SECOND

TONIGHT

New Victor Records FOR March

C. M. SIGLER 30 N. SECOND ST.

Permanently Located

12 N. Market Square (Over Bogar's Sto

Almost opposite the central stopping point of all trolley cars on city and suburban lines.

FUNERAL FLOWERS Beautiful Spray, $3.00 Keeney's Flower Shops 14 N. 3D ST. 157 N. FRONT ST.

IS MUCH ENJOYED

Mrs. Boyd M. Ogelsby Entertains in Celebration of Her Husband's Natal Day

PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

A number of friends of Miss Elizabeth Frank spent a pleasant afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock on Saturday' at her home, 1938 Bellevue Road. The occasion was in honor of her fifteenth birthday and after they had participated in various games, refreshments were served to the Misses Dorothy Smyser, Dorothy Frazer, Frances Kurtz, Elizabeth Homire, Elizabeth Musselman, Thelma Thompson, Virginia Bush, Mildred Flowers, Ruth Daniels, Janet Whalt and Elizabeth Franks.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross drive is still on. The North Harrisburg Kindergarten, with a membership of thirty-five, reports 100 per cent. The Melrose and Vernon buildings have done especially well, and it is thought that this week will see reports from the great majority of the buildings that have been trying to raise the money in various ways. The Juniors have not failed yet.

RED CROSS SALVAGE

RED CROSS SALVAGE

Housecleaning days are approaching, and housekeepers should, therefore, remember the salvage committee of the Red Cross. Rags, papers, old magazines, tin foil, metal and rubber are needed. Phone 4884 or drop a post card to the chairman, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, 105 Locust street, Harrisburg, Pa. Old, battered or discarded bits of jewelry will, be most acceptable.

ATTEND CARLISLE DANCE

ATTEND CARLISLE DANCE
The big dance held in Carlisle last week was well attended by guests from this city. Among those present were: Mrs. Frank Payne and Mrs. Walter H. Gaither, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raphael S. Hays; Mrs. Philip T. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Irons, Miss Alice Waller and Paul Gable, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Moore and Mr. and Mrs. J. Austin Brandt.

SAUERKRAUT SUPPER
Members of St. Andrew's Guild will

SAUERKRAUT SUPPER

The Women's Guild of the Mount Calvary Episcopal Church, of Camp Hill, will give a sauerkraut supper in the fire house to-morrow evening between 5 and 7.30 o'clock. Tickets are on sale at a nominal price, but an extra charge will be made for ice cream and cake.

POLYCLINIC AUXILIARY

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Polychnic Hospital will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, March 4, at 3 o'clock, in the Nurses' Home, 1524 North Second street. A full attendance is requested.

ing the week-end as the guest of Miss Katharine E. Kilmedinst, 1849 Market street.

Mrs. George C. Potts, 1513 North Second street, is convalescing at her home after a severe illness.

Mrs. Jennie Nixon, of Butler, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert E. Forsythe, 2020 North Third street, is spending the week in New York city, attending the style shows.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conway went home to Buffalo this morning after a brief stay among relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Kathleen Walters, of Ithaca, N. Y., is stopping for a few days with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Holmes, of North Third street.

Major and Mrs. William B. Gray are home after a fortnight's stay in New York. Major Gray, who was on leave of absence returned to-day to Augustine Beach, Del

Mr. and Mrs. David Jackson and small daughters, the Misses Estelle and Laura Jackson, of St. Louis, are guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Long, of Green street. Edward Bailey, president of the Harrisburg National Bank, has requested from Andover where he spent several days with his son, George Bailey, who is a student at Andover College.

An unnouncement under this headin ust be accompanied by name to assur must be accompanied by name to assure

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Casey, of 620 Curtin street, announce the birth of a son, William Joseph Casey, Thursday, February 27, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stewart, 110 Evergreen street, announce the birth of a son, Joseph Morrow Stewart, on Saturday, March 1, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kline, of 1422 Green street, announce the birth of a daughter, Pauline Kline,
Saturday, February 22, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pelifer, of Main street, Camp Hill, announce the birth of a daughter, Dorothy
May Peiffer, Monday February 17,
1919. Mrs. Peiffer was Miss a
Putt before her marriage

BENEFIT MUSICAL |BIRTHDAY FEAST | TELL BETROTHAL |INDUSTRIAL HOME AT DINNER PARTY REPORTS OF YEAR

Miss Katharine Aldinger Is to Secretary and Treasurer Pre-Marry Thomas Reed Shuey in the Near Future

The Penbrook Community Civic Club will hold a musicale to-more row evening, March 4, in the Church of God, in Canby street, Penbrook, of God, in Canby street, Penbrook, at 8 o'clock, which the public is cortally invited to attend, A silver collection will be taken to help defray some of the expenses of the club.

A silver collection will be taken to help defray some of the expenses of the club.

The program is as follows:

Special Program For the Silk Mill on Tuesday

There's an interesting program pre-pared for a meeting of the Silk Mill club, at noon to-morrow morning, with Mrs. James B. Carruthers in charge Mrs. David J. Reese, of the Story Tellers league, will give a story, Miss Amy Burd will sing and Miss Coralie Mar-tin will play violin numbers.

PARENT-TEACERHS TO MEET The Camp Hill Parent-Teacher Association will hold a reorganization meeting in the High school building this evening at 8 o'clock. All members of the league are asked to be present without fail and others interested in the movement also. The president, R. L. Myers, will preside and new officers will be elected.

WILL WORK IN FRANCE

WILL WORK IN FRANCE
Lieutenant Thomas Baldwin, formerly of Harrisburg, and well known in the steel service, who has been doing radio wireless work for the Government in France has returned home a few days ago, but will soon go back to France with Mrs. Baldwin, who is a niece of Mrs. Henry M.
Stine. Lieutenant Baldwin is a technical expert and his work in France has been of an important character.

Members of St. Andrew's Guild will hold a sauerkraut supper in the Parish House, Nineteenth and Market street, from 5 to 9 o'clock tomorrow evening. In charge of the supper will be Mrs. Joseph Hoar, Mrs. John Homire, Mrs. William Halfpenny, Miss Johnson, the Misses Hicks and Mrs. C. T. Williams.

TO HOLD RUMMAGE SALE A rummage sale will be given by one of the Sunday School Classes of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, on Wednesday evening, in the storeroom at the corner of Fulton and Broad streets. It is hoped that the sale will be well patronized by the church members as well as by others.

David Snoke and daughter, Catherine Snoke, 309 Hamilton street, spent the week-end with relatives at Orrstown, Pa.

Miss Marian B. Wilson, of Cynwyd, has returned home after spending the week-end as the average of the West Moorhead Street, near Division, to his new home in Front in ra., nas returned home after spending the week-end as the guest of Miss Katharine B. Klinedinst, 1849 Market street.

Mrs. George C. Potts, 1513 North Second street, is convalescing at her home after a severe illness.

Mrs. Jennie Nixon, of Butler is sent Records of Year's Work Before Meeting

"Miss Rheinert and her assistant are doing excellent work in the schoolroom, having an enrollment of fity-two children, thirty-six boys schoolroom, having an enrollment of fifty-two children, thirty-six boys and sixteen girls; with an average attendance of eighty-two per cent. "We cared for an average of seventy-eight children a month, the largest number was 100 children, in March, 1918, and the smallest number with largest number was 100 children, in January, 1919. There were admitted thirty-four boarding children and two county children. The Associated Aid Societies placed eighteen children in private homes, which are regularly inspected by them. Thirty-three boarding children were returned to their parents, one county children were returned to their parents, one county children were returned to their parents, one county child was returned, four Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Home children were placed by the Associated Aid Societies and one Ho

Honor Trenton Guest Who Is Visiting Sister

Mrs. Anna Barkey, 2722 Jefferson street, entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Clough, of Trenton, N. J. The guests enjoyed cards, games and music, with Mrs. Grace Anderson, Mrs. Anna Pond and Miss Emma Roads as the pianists.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Rhoads, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Glace Buser, Mr. and Mrs. Sitepp, Mrs. Mae Pond, Mrs. Lillie Stepp, Mrs. Mae Pond, Mrs. Lillus Glers, Mrs. Anna Pond, Miss Clara Bender, Mrs. Second street, have returned Lundenberger, of Enola, Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Keiffer, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sistender to the Harrisburg hospital for an appendicitis operation.

GLOVES CLEANED FREE H. C. Mattern, of 404 North Second treet, proprietor of the Colosing of the Gosting of the Gosting of the Colosing of Consello, Mr. Klucker, Elva Seider Thelma Rhoads and Grace Anderson.

Cameron, of this city, has painted six historical paintings of the Red Cross work abroad. They are now on their way to this country and will be placed in the National Red Cross headquarters at Washington. Mr. Burnside, though residing in Paris, retains his American citizen-

Mrs. Benjamin Long and small son of Landisville, spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Mardle Nicholas, at 216 Herr street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Stubbs, of Steelton, are home after a southern wedding trip.

Mrs. Howard W. Goodman, of Camp, Hill, has been called to Bethel, Pa., by the serious illnes of Mrs. H. W. Goodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gregory went home to Jersey city, to-day after a week's stay among old friends in the West End.

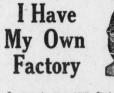

MILITARY BALL

The transportation department of the Aviation General Supply Depot, Middletown, will give a large military ball next Friday evening in Winterdale Hall. The Sourbier-Myers orchestra will play for the dancing.

OCCUPY NEW HOMES

Public Service Commissioner, John S. Rilling, has removed with his family from the residence which he formerly occupied in North Front street, near Division, to his new home to Jersey city, to-day after a week's stay in Frovidence, R. I. Harold B. Martz, a student of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, spent the weekend at his home, 2314 Miss Alice Decever, 1503 North Secting Street, and is now occupied by Robert W. Miss Alice Decever, 1503 North Secting Street, and is now occupied by Robert W.

36 96 96 96 I Have

I operate my own factory, which is equipped to do all kinds of lens grinding promptly and accurately. This affords me facilities for giving you the very best service in optome-

R. D. PRATT Eyesight Specialist

26 N. Third St. Over Schleisner's Store

616 616 616 616

Huntsdale District Nurse Secures Fine Speakers

Huntsdale, March 3.—Through the efforts of the local district nurse, Mrs. A. H. Bentley, the residents of Huntsdale and vicinity enjoyed a greatly appreciated treat in the shape of a public meeting with gifted speakers. The event was held in the public school building and the general theme of discussion was "Conservation of Health."

W. P. S. Otto was in the chair and after the Rev. J. J. Glenn, pastor of Dickinson Presbyterian Church, led in prayer, Dr. S. S. Cowell was introduced and gave an interesting practical talk on the topic of the evening. Dr. W. C. Miller, of the State Department of Health, gave an illustrated lecture. In word pictures and lantern slides Dr. Miller told of the various causes and preventives of leading pestilent discrete

RAZOR WIELDER HEARD

Benjamin Brown, the soldier arrested yesterray on the charge of attempting to kill Annie Franklin, 903 Sarah street, by slashing her with a knife, was given a hearing in police court to-day.

Franklin Reese, who claims to live in Altoona, was held on suspicion of having taken the watches of a cook and waiter at the Court Daily lunch, where he was employed until Saturday, It is claimed that ofter be left the restaurant Saturday, the watches disappeared. City Detective Shuler arrested him as he was crossing the Markét street bridge on the way to his home in Altoona. He was walking to save money, he said. The wattches were not found in his possession when he was arrested.

Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted, 105 North Front street, is spending some time in New York with her son, Lieutenant Marlin E. Olmsted, Jr., who a is stationed at Camp Dix.

Mrs. Carl B. Ely, of Washington, has returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, 119 State street.

MEETNING TIME CHANGED

H. C. Mattern, of 404 North Second street, proprietor of the Valet wishes to announce that he will clean for any lady a short pair of white gloves free, provided she has never had any Cameron Burnside, of Paris, great-grandson of the late General Simon is made simply to get you acquainten

> DINNER Stouffer's Restaurant

Creamed Tomato Soup led Pork Chop Tomato Soup Baked Country Sausage Roast Lamb Roast Beef Mashed or Lyonnalse Potatoes ewed Tomatoes or Stewed Corr Waldorf Salad Ice Cream, Pie or Pudding Coffee, Tea or Cocoa

Soumanis Housewares Now On

See Page Three Basement Floor

TO HOLD DANCE AND CARD PARTY

Many to Attend Big Event For Benefit of Institutions For the Care of Children

the Care of Children

The Chestnut Street Auditorium will be the scene, to-night, of one of the most brilliant social events of the season when employes of Bowman & Company, the Harrisburg Operatic Society and the local council, Knights of Columbus, will unite in presenting a benefit card party and dance. The proceeds will be given to the Children's Industrial Home, the Day Nursery and the Sylvan Heights Orphanage.

More than 3,000 tickets for the big event have already been sold, Miss Helen Snodgrass, treasurer, reported this morning. Tickets were selling rapidly this afternoon and it is probable from all indications that when the doors open to-night there will be 3,500 tickets sold.

The program will be opened at 8 o'clock with brief addresses of welcome by J. W. Bowman and C. R. Bowman, At 8.30 the dance will open. Updegrove's and the Banjo-Saxo orchestras will play. A separate hall will be reserved for those who desire to play cards.

An attractive feature of the occasion will be the beautiful decorations. The decorators from the Bowman store are busy to-day transforming the big auditorium into a fairyland, sparkling with innumerable lights and tastefully decorated with national colors.

Among the employes of Bowman's fairyland, sparkling with innumerable lights and tastefully decorated with national colors.

Among the employes of Bowman's who have been prominent in the plans for the dance, are:

C. R. Bowman, Miss Alice M. Musgrove, Miss Helen Snodgrass, Miss Emily Lockard, Miss Anna McCoy, Miss Alberta Kinzer, Mrs. R. A. Litch, C. W. Brown, Mrs. Phoebe Knowles, Miss Margaret Degan, J. C. Arbegast and Miss Anne Krause.

Mercer B. Tate, Jr., Wins Honors in Lehigh Contest

Mercer B. Tate, Jr., of this city, won second prize in the junior oratorical contest at Lehigh University Satardayff His subject was "Socialism in the Management of the Railroads." First prize was won by Norman C. Dittes and third place by Howard G. Summers.

MACCABEES TO MEET A special meeting of the Harris burg Review, No. 257, of the Macca bees is to be held to-night at th home of Mrs. C. W. Miller, 32 Hamilton street. All Maccabees ar requested to be present.

TO GIVE LADIES' NIGHT

Ladies' night of the Shrine wil If You Want a Real Spread For Bread Try

S. S. Pomeroy The Market Square Grocer SELLS IT

ORDER COAL NOW

The necessity for refrainng from the use of anthracite no longer bears upon the consumers who were obliged to turn to other fuel as war substitutes.

Coal can be purchased and used as freely as before America entered the war. The mild Winter has contributed to the accumulation of a supply that is equal to all demands.

Order the coal you need now while the supply is plentiful and prompt deliveries can be made.

H. M. KELLEY & CO. 1 N. 3rd St. 10th and State Sts.

Chestnut Street Auditorium. Upde-grove's orchestra will furnish the music. Supper will be served at 9.30 o'clock.

MISS KILMER'S BIRTHDAY Hummelstown, Pa., March 3,-A irthday party was held at the home

Shull, Mrs. Kroeberger, Miss Mrs. Ebersole, Miss Esther Brinser, Miss Marjorie issley, the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur R. King, Miss Esta Klimer, Miss Pearl Kilmer, of town; Miss Lillie Wise, of Williamstown, and Miss Marie Sourbeer, of Lancaster.

WOUNDED MAN HOME of Miss Ruth Kilmer, West Main street, Saturday evening, in honor of her birthday. Music and vocal selections were the feature of the evening, after which luncheon was served. Those present were: Miss Marion Walters, Miss Catharine WOUNDED MAN HOME Marietta, Pa., March 3.—Sergeant John McLain has been honorably, discharged from the service at Forteres Monroe and arrived home. He evening, after which luncheon was wounded in the leg in France was wounded in th

Best Service.

Announcing the Opening of The Labelle Shop 212 LOCUST STREET

With Stunning Spring Millinery

Attractive advance models of moderately-priced Hats are now ready for your inspection

SENATE CAFE Has restored their famous

75c LUNCHEON From 11.30 to 2 P. M. Daily

Another Big Optical Offer FOR TEN DAYS ONLY

FRED H. MENGER, Prop.

Doing business on a cash basis, we are at times put in petion to secure lots of frames, lenses and nose pieces from reason why we are now able to offer for ten days only

First quality spherical lenses for either far or near, fitted in gold-filled, guaranteed 10-year mounting, with the most modern finger piece, shell rims, case, including examination, for

No drops used in examination

RUBIN & RUBIN

Eyesight Specialists 320 MARKET ST.

The Kellberg Studio

OPEN WED. AND SAT. EVENING

Will Discontinue Business in Harrisburg, April 1st, 1919

All persons wishing to have portraits made, will please make appointments before March 22nd, 1919. As no sittings will be made after this date.

302 Market St., Harrisburg, Pa.

YOUR CHOICE, 15 KINDS

ELECTRIC CLEANERS ALL TYPES WASHING MACHINES

EASY PAYMENTS NEIDIG BROS.

21 S. SECOND ST.

The Women Are Talking--- about the "Boys' Wash Suits" and "Kaynee" Blouses that Doutrichs are selling during their clearance sale - They say they never heard of them being sold so cheap—and that they are very much less than to make them themselves—One customer bought an "even dozen"; another ten suits-You had better see this wonderful selec-

All $1.00 and $1.25 Kaynee Blouses are 79c

Go Into This Matter Carefully---

We are sure it would not take you long to decide that you are paying "to much" for Blue Chambray and Black Sateen Shirts at $1.50, when you can buy the exact same quality and make at Doutrichs Clearance Sale for

Price them elsewhere, then go to Doutrichs to buy them, you'll