Buy in Haste and Repent at Leisure

A great many women shop during their luncheon hour. When time is thus limited is it not better to select one store, and decide to make your purchase there; than to seek to hastily inspect the displays of three or four stores?

Of course it's satisfaction to compare values-if you have time. But if time is lacking surely it's far better to thoroughly inspect the offerings of one good storemake your selections at leisure, and feel assured that your choice is correct. No one can cover several stores in an hour's time and make a discriminating selection.

Don't try to scatter your shopping efforts over too wide a field in too short a period of time. It makes for hurried decisions and "repentance at leisure."

308 MARKET STREET

A Sale of New Spring Hats

Hats of our own making and designing—and which were successful sellers, ranging in price at $5.98, $6.98 and $7.98.

Why Do We Offer Them at This Price?

Because we need the room for hats which come down from our workroom every morning — The unusual early demand for Spring Hats necessitated larger stocks than ever as early as February — Our Early Spring business has increased wonderfully, but we find ourselves so crowded for room that we must make this sacrifice to get it—Hence this sale.

It's a losing proposition for us—but we see no other way to clear our showcases—and while we can see every Hat put in this sale at the regular marked price. We must make a quick cleanup and we are sure this price will do it.

See Our Display of These Hats in Our Window

Sale starts Wednesday morning! On account of the low price these Hats will not be laid aside in paying deposit. Cash sales only.
