Officials of the food administration had expected to reach an agreement before the first of the month on the continuance of the minimum prices for hogs, but after conferences with the War Trade Board and President Wilson, it was announced that no decision would be possible until the President could consider the whole matter of export embargoes. Gets Compensation For
Thumb Cut Off After Three Fingers Are Gone

By the loss of the thumb from his right hand, Moses Sweet, Harrisburg, R. D. 4, has been awarded workmen's compensation for the loss of the use of his hand at $6.57 a week for 175 weeks. Referee Chester W. Cummings based the award on the loss of the use of the hand because the victim of the accident had in 1906 lost three fingers from the same hand and the loss of the thumb in this second accident renders the hand useless. Sweet suffered the second accident while working for Swift Company, Seventh and North streets. Referee Cummings awarded John R. Goodwin, of Wormleysburg, an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, compensation at the rate of $10 a week for 215 weeks for the loss of the use of his left arm. Goodwin suffered a compound comminuted fracture of the left elbow joint while working as a trainman at Coatesville. Referee Cummings was compelled to deny compensation to T. W. Cronleigh, whose left leg was crushed while working at a coal wharf of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, at Enola, December 19, 1917. The claim petition in this case was not filed within one year from the date of injury, as is required by law.

Kreitz, of Reading, is chairman, was appointed to plan the campaign and give a name to the movement and report tomorrow.
The synod, at the request of the seminaries, fixed a goal of 600 students during the next five years, 120 a year. One hundred Reformed pulpits are vacant. Dr. Charles E. Girl Stole Autos to Support Her Baby

Philadelphia, March 6.—Her mother's love for her three-year-old boy was the cause of the downfall of Florence Duke, the twenty-two-year-old girl motor thief. When quizzed at detective headquarters yesterday, this slip of a woman, scarcely more than a girl in appearance, told dispassionately the tale of her life.
Of her marriage at the age of fifteen to a man whom she supposed to be a prosperous man of business; of the birth of a son three years ago when the mother was only nineteen; and of the fatal discovery that her husband was nothing more than a common thief, she spoke as calmly as though she were recounting the life of another.
Florence Duke was arrested last Saturday night following an investigation that had placed her under suspicion of the police Tuesday she was held in $3000 bail by Magistrate Pennock on a charge of automobile stealing.

NO-SEAT-NO-FARE STRIKE

Edwards' Olive Tablets
