The Young Men's Bible Class, of Grace Methodist Church, taught by John R. Rote, held its annual meeting last evening at the Y. M. C. A. An eleborate 8 o'clock dinner was followed by reports of the year from class officers. The election preceded a discussion of plans for increasing the membership and for greater efficiency in class work.

At 8 o'clock there was a bowling match, captained by E. B. Mitchell and John D. Hardy, and the members of the scape were declared the winners, although the score was close. Six members of this class have joint the colors, and several are still in France.

The following officers were elected the following officers were elected.

A dinner and reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher, of 1711 State street, in honor of Corporal James B. Anthony, of Fredricktown, Mo Corporal Anthony is staying a short time in this vicinity ricktown, Mo Corporal Anthony is staying a short time in this vicinity visiting relatives and friends before proceeding to his home.
Corporal Anthony was a member of Regiment No. 6, Company No. 76, United States Marine Corps. He took an active part in the fighting at Soissons Chateau Thierry, Belleau Woods and other engagements. Anthony was wounded twice, once during the fighting at Chateau Thierry, and while engaged at Belleau Woods, he was gassed.

In spite of these drawbacks he has lived to come back proudly bearing the famous Croix de Guerre upon his breast. Just what deed or action he performed to win this decoration Corporal Anthony, with modesty, forbears to tell.

It is suggestive however to know that of the company to which Corporal Anthony belonged only twelve of the original 250 have come through and returned. Among those attending to do honor to Corporal Anthony and show Missouri that Pennsylvania knows how to honor the heroes of sister states, were Miss Eisle Hill, Miss Agnes Welsh, Miss Eisle Hill, Miss Agnes Welsh, Miss Margaret Robinson, Misses Joephine Crull, Margaret Hill, Ruth Huntsberger, James Sanderson, Mrs. O. My practical experience had convinced me that the one great dominating factor which determined the success or failure of a woman's apparel shop was "alterations." For that's where the fit is settled. And the shop which can not satisfactorily fit won't succeed. A good tailor is a rare bird. He's almost as scarce as a good chef. But I got one. And that's one reason for the success of this venture.
