352,834 Yanks Home
Up to March 3, departures of soldiers from France numbered 419,555, of whom 354,824 had landed in the United States up to yesterday.
Hospital records from the expeditionary forces, General March said, showed 81,231 patients on February 20, a reduction from 112,217 when the armistice was signed.
A reduction in the number of demobilized camps from thirty-three to twenty-three was announced today, the purpose being to enable the War Department to release thousands of men who, under the original plan, would have been held at the ten national camps as demobilization personnel.

THE WEATHER

River

The Susquehanna river and all its branches will probably fall slowly or remain nearly stationary to-night. All streams of the system are likely to rise, beginning Sunday, as a result of a general rain. A stage of about 5.6 feet is indicated for Harrisburg Sunday morning.

To Abandon 13 Camps
Thirteen of the original thirty-three camps designated as demobilization centers will be abandoned.
Three new camps, Fort Bliss, Oglethorpe and D. A. Russell, have been added, bringing the total to twenty-three.

The statement was made in connection with the information that General Pershing had been authorized to resume enlistments for the Regular Army. Men now overseas who desire to enlist in the regular establishment, General March said, will be accepted and assigned to regular organizations in the Army of Occupation, releasing other men to be discharged.

The 79th Division

The battle casualties figures now announced include in the totals wounded, which were not included in the tables of major casualties recently made public by the War Department. In the list of divisional totals the 29th (New Jersey, Delaware, Virginia, Maryland, District of Columbia), stands nineteenth with 5,972; the 80th (Virginia, West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania), is twenty-first with 5,123; and the 79th (Pennsylvania, Eastern Maryland, District of Columbia), is twenty-firist with 5,123; and the 79th (Pennsylvania, Eastern Maryland, District of Columbia), is twenty-firist with 3,223.

The construction of the building will be hurried so that artificial tee can be stored here in abundance when warm weather sets in. Included among other arrangements made by the company to prevent an ice famine during the coming summer are contracts with Reading. Chambersburg and Hagerstown ice plants to turn out their products as fast as possible for local consumption. The United Ice and Coal Company will buy and store the ice thus manufactured in huge quantities.
