The Best Monday Millinery Sale

it has ever been our good fortune to announce!

By a mere streak of good fortune—we made large early purchases of New Spring Hats-at prices which compared with present-day prices seem most insignificant. That the styles we selected are just the very shapes in demand today is evidenced by the way we are selling them every day. When we advertise these Hats for a MONDAY SALE at a SPECIAL REDUCTION we are doing something which seems foolish on the face of things. We certainly could not buy these Hats at today's prices and sell them at our regular prices with a profit. We do, however, offer these price reductions in order to maintain the reputation which our Monday Sales have gained—and as long as we are in position to offer BETTER VALUES THAN OTHER STORES—we think it a paying proposition.

Extensive and complete as are our showing mentioned here may seem to you-it does not begin to give you any fair idea of the vastness of our stockthe completeness of our assortment of shapes and colors. We have merely picked at random a few good items for you to read—in order to get you to come in and attend our Monday Sales. You will be amazed when you behold this tremendous stock and to think that you can take your pick and choice of any shape
