SHORE NEWS International Control of the Control of EWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

f the services.

Private Hartman fell mortally rounded, in action October 14, of ist year at Nantiilois. France. He ied the same day at Bethincourt te lies in the American cemetery that place which is by the Meuse. His captain writes that "Private lien Stewart Hartman was wounded by a shell fragment at Nantiilois, ctober 14, 1918. He was helping to arry a wounded han to a first aid ation when a shell burst and tounded Allen, a bugler, and the ian who was wounded before. Private Hartman was a cool hand under the and I might say that he had seen hit on the bridge of the nose of a same of the damate in the famous 28th Divide was gassed and after being to canteen at any time.

Soldier Surprises Folks by Coming Into Ho Mechanicsburg. Pa., March of the almost one year's absence when he walked in the house on a shell burst and counded Allen, a bugler, and the ian who was wounded before. Private Hartman was a cool hand under the and in the house of the famous 28th Divide was gassed and after being to canteen at any time.

Mechanicsburg. Pa., March of the almost one year's absence when he walked in the house on a service when he walked in the house on the private of the famous 28th Divide was gassed and after being to canteen at any time. nurt that he was left at Beth-

Private Hartman went out with rivate Hartman went out with first unit of drafted men, thirty-in number, April 30, 1918. He wed in Camp Lee, Petersburg, May 1. He was placed in head-ters company, 314th Field Artii-and celebrated his 25th birth-May 17, by receiving his over-equipment.

vate Hartman was a member o Second Reformed church, Phoenix Lodge No. 59, and the Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, State Capitol Lodge No. 70, and Dauphin Encampment No. 10, I. O. O. F. While at camp he was elected a member of Salem Lodge No. 196, F. and A. M., but his regiments prompt. and A. M., but his regiments prompt portunity to receive his Masonic de

MONDAY EVENING,

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 10.—After almost one year's absence, doing duty for the United States on the battlefields of France, Howard S. Bittinger surprised his home folks when he walked in the house on Friday evening. Trained at Camp Hancock, he went overseas as a member of the famous 28th Division, 112th Infantry. While in action he was gassed and after being taken to the hospital was blind from the effects for twelve days. His sight gradually returned but his eyes were bandaged for three months. He returned to America with a casualty company and was mustered out of the service at Camp Dix, N. J. Private Bittinger is a son of Jacob S. Bittinger, South Market street.

Play For Benefit of the Christian Endeavor Society

and the Uniformed of Pythias. State of Pythias.

CALLED FOR JURY DUTY CALLED FOR JURY DUTY
Chambersburg, Pa., March 10, — Franklin county citizens have been summoned for jury duty with the United States court at Scranton. Two of them S. Z. Hewbecker, of Williamsnection with the mill will be closed.

MRUZ GOES TO LONDON

Mexico City, March 10.—Establishment of closer diplomatic relations with England by Mexico is seen in the appointment of Rafael Ruiz as second secretary of the Mexican legation at London.

MINIMALINAL MARKINIA MAR

Makes a mouthful Something you can say about over common corn flakes

A Crisp Substantial Food

year, the local Methodist Episcopal Church, the Rev. J. Ellis Bell, pastor, has realized the most successful year in the history of the church. From a financial standpoint, the church has gone "over the top," $961 in excess of last year.

The amount raised by the church expenses, or for the local church was $1,810; for missionary and benevolent purposes, $1,649. In addition to this, the Sunday school, besides contributing to the above missionary fund, gave something over $100 for current expenses; the Epworth League, $50 and the Ladies' Aid Society, $30, making in all a total of $3,639.

a total of $3,639.

HANDSOME RED CROSS QUILT
Waynesboro, Pa., March 10. — A large quilt the work of the Junior Red Cross and women of the Church of the Brethren, is on display in the window of one of the local stores, and is attracting considerable attention. In the center of the quilt is a large red cross with a white background; radiating from the center are fifty-two patches, each one eight inches square; in each patch are twenty names, each letter in each name embroidered in red—all hand work; around the entire quilt is a
blue border four inches wide;
each name represents ten cents—the
amount given by the man or woman whose name appears in red thread.

WAYNE ACADEMY SOLD
Waynesboro, Pa., March 10.— The recent sale of what used to be known as the Wayne Academy in South Waynesboro, before that section was taken into the borough by the last extension of the boundary lines, was ratified by the board. The purchaser was Harry R. Smith nad the price paid was $1,700.

MARRIED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS
Chambersburg, Pa., March 10. —
Seventy guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Miller at their home near here in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. A dinner was served and after dinner a program of music, toasts and recitations was rendered. Many valuable silver gifts were received by the host and hostess.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR HOME Chambersburg, Pa., March 10. —
Maurice Ritchey, who was attached to the French army as an athlettic director, has arrived at his home here after a year's service in France. His duties were to instruct the Frenchmen in the Athletic games as they are played in America. The Frenchmen, Ritchey says, caught on to everything except baseball.

FAREWELL SURPRISE

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gollam entertained a number of friends at dinner on Sunday in honor of their and also the return from France of their son, Leroy Gollam and his first wedding anniversary. The guests were as follows: Mrs. Anna Carpenter, Airss Alle Carpenter, Mrs. Edwin White, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mrs. Cavanaugh and son, Joseph:

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Enola, Pa., March 10.—Mr. and Mrs. william L. Troup, of Altoona the following suests at their home at a birthday dinner in honor of their daughter, Florence's tenth birthday. Mrs. Ira Brinser, of Highspire; Miss Bowman, Carpenter, Airs Allie Carpenter, Mrs. Edwin White, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mrs. Cavanaugh and son, Joseph:

RAHLROAD VICTIM RUBLED Winte, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mrs. Cavanaugh and son, Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. William Gollam and daughters, Marion and Ruth, all of Lebanon; Mrs. Mae Sholley and Gaughters, Dorothy and Margaret; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmuck and chijdren, Sydney, Pauline and Madeline, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gollam, all of Annville, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gollam and daughter, Margaret Lucile, of Lebanon, Prof. and Mrs. S. O. Grimm and sons, Henry and Robert, spent Sunday at Middletown where they were the guests of M. H. Bachman and family.

Edward Deimler.

Yeager Shoemaker, of Bloomsburg, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shoemaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holsberg, of Harrisburg, spent yesterday in town. Miss Lillie Deimler, R. N., of Altoona, is spending some time with her parents.

William Rigor, of Chester, spent yesterday at the home of Mr. John H. Greenawalt.

Sergeant Boyer, of Annville, called.

In costume took part in this exercise. "America" was also represented by ladies in costume, which was very effective. A choir, composed of young girls, members of the Guild, sang. They wore appropriate costumes. An address was given by Miss Florence Urich on "Missionary Work." A solo was rendered by Miss Holen Lechthaler and the church choir gave several anthems.

H. Greenawalt.

Sergeant Boyer, of Annville, called on friends here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Fox spent the weekend at Lancaster, the guest of their daughter, Mrs. Victor Dipherel March 18. The committee in charge Mrs. Charles H. Miller, Mrs. Mrs. Charles H. Miller, Mrs. Charles H. Miller, Mrs. Samuel W. Kreider and Mrs. Howard P. Warner are arranging a very interesting program.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

CONCERT AT MARSH RUN New Cumberland, Pa., March 10.— The band will go to the army re-serve depot this evening where they will give a concert.

BOX SOCIAL AT COVE Marysville, Pa., March 10.—A box social will be held by the Cove Union Church on Friday evening at the church. Mrs. J. A. Plank, of Cove, is in charge of the arrange-

196 NEW MEMBERS
Marysville, Pa., March 10.—The membership of the Bethany United Evangelical Church was increased to 198 during the past year, the Rev. C. D. Pewterbaugh, pastor, announced before leaving for the sessions of the conference at Baltimore. An addition is being planned for the building in order to relieve overcrowded conditions.

Be Given For Reception

FAREWELL SURPRISE

Waynesbero, Pa., March 10.—Mrs.
C. W. Brookens, wife of Bookkeeper C.
W. Brookens, wife of Bookkeeper C.
W. Brookens, wife of Bookkeeper C.
W. Brookens, wife of Bookkeeper C.
W. Brookens, was given a surprise party by a half-hundred of her friends as a farewell, Mr. Brookens, has been assigned to the Harrisburg office of the company and will shortly move to the capitol city.

APPEAL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS
Chambersburg, Pa., March 10.—The Rev. J. W. Yohe, secretary and pastor for the interdenominational board which has charge of Protestant work at the White Pine tuberculosis sanatorium at Mont Alto, near here, has sessued an appeal to the public for contributions to sustain the work at the same attorium.

FORMER LEGISLATOR ILL.
Chambersburg, Pa., March 10. John Witherspoon, a prominent Franklin county resident and a former member of the State Legislature, is critically ill at his home at New Franklin, near here, with pneumonia.

Be Given For Reception is a being planned for the building in order to relieve overcowded conditions.

To raise funds for the receptions on the processor will be held in the case home, a benefit was announced to day by H. W. Long, chairman of the general committee on arrangements, the Home Folks Victory Association of the World War. A meeting will be held in the form for the case in the Folks Victory Association of the World War. A meeting will be general committee on arrangements, the Home Folks Victory Association of the World War. A meeting will be general committee on arrangements, the Home Folks Victory Association of the World War. A meeting will be dead to the public for form the reception is a chicken and waffle dinner to be given in the armory when this plan vill be gone into detail.

Lieutenant Ira N. Kellberg, who was wounded in action and has required to Harrisburg, stated yester day that there will be many faces in the "Old Eighth" Regiment when it comes home, and there will be many faces missing.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take LANATIVE

C. A. B. Clouser, of Marysville, is in attendance at the annual sessions of the conference of the United Evangelical Churck, at Baltimore. W. L. Rider has returned to his home at Marysville after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rider, of New Buffalo.

Miss Emma Roberts, of Marysville, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Gilbert Hosler, at Chester.

Miss Helen Shade, of Duncannon, visited with Mrs. Ralph N. Hench at Marysville.

Mrs. J. Shumaker, of New Buffalo, is the guest of relatives at Maysville.

Mrs. J. Shumaker, of New Buffalo, is the guest of relatives at Maysville.

Miss Mary Smith has returned to her home at Marysville after spending a day with relatives at Newport.

28-30-32 North Third Street

The Tailormade Suit For Women

THE Charm of simplicity marks the fashionable suit—and nothing so emphasizes it as does the tailormade.

And yet, when one looks for the unusual in the tailormade the natural inclination is to go to the seat of authority, for thus are all the true lines obtained.

A diversity of opinions has resulted in the Blouse Suit, the straightline, semi-fitting effect and the Strictly Tailored Suit; but has in no wise offset the desire and demand for the simple and graceful silhouettes of the tailormade vouge.

The Schleisner Tailormade fulfills the mission of attire for the fashionable woman, at the same time meeting the standard set for garments of service and intrinsic worth.

Wool Serge Suits Wool Tricotine Suits Poiret Twill Suits Silk Duvetyn Suits

$35 to $125

Many New Arrivals In Fashionable Interpretations in Blouses, Negligees, Silk Underwear and Silk Hosiery Are Very Attractively Priced

TALENTED CREATIONS IN MILLINERY for Spring Wear

Invitingly Displayed for Immediate Selection