Conference Opened Here Last Night to Continue Today

"We plan to bring our communities at home to as high a standard as the army camps. The Y. M. C. A.'s task is not so much to assist the returning service man; it is to assist the people at home to measure up to the splendid standards of the army. When the boys come home they are used to clean living, to good motion pictures, to the best entertainments and the highest kind of morale. Now it is up to our home communities to make things fit in with the life of the boys."

In these words J. A. Urice, secretary of the National Young Men's Christian Association, outlined the purpose of the Y. M. C. A. institute being held here. The institute was opened last night with dinner in the Board of Trade building. Mr. Urice spoke at the dinner. The institute will continue its sessions until Friday.

Leiby Would Have All "Cows Carry Lights"

Senator Scott Leiby, Perry, slipped one over on the Senate last evening when he presented an amendment, containing a ridiculous "joker" to a bill regulating the lighting of vehicles on public roads, and had it passed by the dignified upper house. The bill in question, sponsored by Senator Markle, Allegheny, provides that all farm vehicles shall carry lights and that the city authorities should specify that "all cows and bulls on the public highways shall carry lights."

Something Good To Look Forward To

The story of how Kaufman's prepared for the greatest sale of waists Harrisburg has had, will be printed in this paper tomorrow and will awaken the interest of every woman and miss who yearns for the beautiful and the extraordinary—

The story is too good to miss. Look for it, tomorrow.

This gives you plenty of time to look over your wardrobe and decide how many waists you will want from the assortments which will make up the sale.

Not an ordinary waist sale. No, indeed!

A very remarkable sale! One of those intensely exciting affairs that spring upon you suddenly. But rather than take you unawares we want to give you ample time to get ready to attend.

Read the story in tomorrow's paper—

CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Dandruff rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a small bottle of Dandruff at any drug store for a few cents and save your hair. After several applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair, and the scalp will never itch.

Two big things about Grape-Nuts are—wonderful flavor & sturdy nourishment. But you can get a better idea of Grape-Nuts by eating it than you can by reading about it. Sold by Grocers Everywhere
