"JACK, THE HUGGER"
Lewisport, Pa., March 12.—"Jack, the Hugger," is again parading the alleys of this place and has been causing much excitement among the women folks. Several weeks ago a woman reported that while she was passing up Wayne street, at the corner of an alley just back of Market street a man jumped out and attempted to hug her. She beat a hasty retreat. The man was later seen in that section and then for some time he was not about. Now he is reported as operating in another part of town, having caught hold of a woman and hugged and kissed her in Third street near the Sacred Heart Church and also one in South Dorcas street.
