NO EXTENSION OF TIME FOR TAX RETURNS

Big Line of Men and Women Seek Advice at the Post Office

There will be no extension of time for the payment of income taxes; to-morrow will be positively the last day on which returns may be filed and payments made, officials in charge of income tax work in the Internal Revenue offices in the Post office of the building each office building, say.

Heavy penalties will be imposed on persons who neglect to file a return of their income for the year of 1918, the deputy collectors warn.

For simple neglect, a fine of $1,000 may be imposed with an additional amount of tax added. But in the case where wilful effort to evade the law is proved, heavier penalties will be inflicted, they say.

While the deputy collectors have been busy from early morning until late at night throughout the week, the lines of persons waiting their turn to file returns showed no signs of becoming thinner to-day. Two offices, with deputy collectors occupying all available space in each, are being utilized to serve the people. Long waits to file the return have been the custom throughout the entire day.

Persons of every hue and color, or practically every age and of many descriptions, were found in the lines of those waiting to return to Uncle Sam a portion of that which they earned during the year, as their contribution to aid in covering the war expenses.

The Kind of Peace League the Republicans Want

While the New York Sun (Ind.) says that "President Wilson's plan is dead," after thirty seven Republican Senators had signed a round robin declaring that the Constitution of the League of Nations in the form now proposed should not be accepted by the United States, the Baltimore Sun (Ind. Dem.) reminds us that the "leading Republican critics of the proposed constitution have not put themselves on record as opposed to any League of Nations, but merely to the particular plan now before the Peace Conference. And Senator Capper (Rep.), of Kansas, thinks that "the cuffing and buffeting President Wilson's League of Nations plan is getting is a good thing for the President and for the country," and in the end "the League of Nations is coming as certainly as daylight follows darkness," according to the Atlanta Constitu-

"The Digest" In High-Class Hotels

Managers and owners of high-class hotels throughout the country are making THE LITERARY DIGEST a necessary part of the equipment of their reading rooms. The average family of guests in a big hotel is drawn from every section of the country and in selecting the "Digest" as the favorite magazine shrewd judgment is exercised because THE LITER-ARY DIGEST, "all the magazines in one," is a real economy and being neither local nor sectional in its appeal, "fills the bill." Every hotel guest who reads it, no matter whence he came, is sure to find it suited to his needs. It gives the casual searcher for information just that crisp, newsy, condensed summary of national and world events of the moment that he needs. At the same time it gives the careful student of events just those authoritative view-points that he requires. As it is neither biased nor parochial it suits everybody and pleases everybody.
