

WRESTLERS MAKE BIG HIT; ANOTHER BIG MATCH ON; TECH MEETS READING FOR TITLE

Tech Must Beat Reading To Win the Pennant

Win or lose, Reading high school will have plenty to gain at Chestnut street hall Friday night when they tackle Tech high school's fast moving squad.

Lansford was not satisfied with the facing they received last Friday night and wanted another contest, this time on their own floor.

While the season will end officially March 23 when Steelton plays here, it would not be surprising to see some post-season contests as was the case in football.

To date, Lebanon has drawn the largest crowd. But when Reading was held at Chestnut street hall last Saturday night, the immense throng that is already clamoring for tickets.

Institute on Friday Dr. George O. Strayer and Dr. W. Byron Forbush will be the two speakers at the fourth institute of this season held at the Technical high school Friday night and Saturday morning by the school teachers of Harrisburg.

Pupils of Miss Laura E. Garman's school will sing a number of selections prior to the institute. There will be forty-five boys and girls from the Sixth B grade of the Cameron building who will sing under Miss Garman's direction.

The entire session of school closed today out of respect to the memory of the state superintendent, N. C. Shaeffer.

Tatler Out The third issue of the Tech Tatler for this school year was distributed to the members of the school as a St. Patrick's issue.

A Regular Year Book The senior class will publish a year book to be distributed at commencement, instead of the publication being in the hands of the regular year book staff.

No other high school teams were represented in Harrisburg so well. The basketball team is expected to play a game at Lebanon by a single point.

Jack Britton Ring Wonder; Only Man Who Won Title After Losing It

Tulsa, Okla., March 19.—Jack Britton, welterweight champion, has been secured to replace Ted Lewis in a fifteen round match with Willie Laughlin, of South Bethlehem, Pa., to take place here March 21.

Britton is today the wonder of all persons who follow boxing. He is the only man in all history to "come" back. Dozens have tried it, but have failed. This had led the seemingly impossible.

Before the war days, Britton was undisputed champion and Joe Barrett, now staging fights at Steelton, had a match arranged between him and Johnny Gill, War breaker, Gill joined the service and went abroad, where he is now, Britton then fought Lewis and lost the decision and the championship in twenty rounds.

The action is directed against Fred L. Mitchell, president, and John O. Seves, secretary, who Murphy alleges refused his request that he and his attorney be permitted to examine the club's records.

WANT MORE WRESTLING

Two mighty athletes struggled on the mat at Chestnut street hall last night before a fine, critical audience who were so rejoiced to see wrestling resumed in Harrisburg, that they figured they had full return for their money.

This giant was more experienced than the Greek Madras, and showed his skill by winning both rounds, the first lasting 11 minutes and the latter only seven.

The referee made a good job of his duties and the match was a real treat.

Allison Hill League Opens Season May 5

The board of directors of the Allison Hill Baseball League last night adopted a fifty-four-game schedule for the coming season.
