NO TIME TO BE BLUE

THIS is no time for the blues. There may be some disturbing factors and some uncertainties in business and industry for the moment, but with it all we are not coming through the readjustment period in much better condition than we had any right to expect?

GETTING UNDER WAY

THE housing committee of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce is getting along with its program. The addition of Edward Bailey to the committee indicates a desire on the part of the members to get somewhere with the work at hand.

WIVES ARE HAVING TROUBLE CHOOSING SPRING HATS

A little later husbands will have trouble paying for them.

CAN'T HERD THE ARMY

JUDGING from soldier interviews published conspicuously by metropolitan newspapers of liquor looting, the American Army is made up of "bummies" whose one thought is to get out of their uniforms and into a bar-room.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

Announcement of the appointment of A. Mitchell Palmer, of Stroudsburg, Attorney General of the United States and Democratic national committeeman from Pennsylvania as a member of the Democratic national executive committee, as the inside council of the party machine is official styled, is taken by Democrats in the Keystone State to mean that he does not intend to resign as national committeeman.

Senator Edwin H. Vare yesterday presented a very short budget bill for the Quaker City. This measure, which is a comprehensive bill of over 400 words, is regarded as a detour from the charter revision bill. It is claimed to be patterned on the financial features of the Bullitt law. In any event, it is going to be a new factor in State politics.

What has become of the fellow who used to drive around town with a wagon and a barrel calling "shad-on"?

AN EIGHT-HOUR DAY

NOBODY will quarrel with an eight-hour day. It has been a successful operation in the printing trades for many years. The Telegraph's composing room and printing department were among the first eight-hour pioneers in Harrisburg, and there never has been any difficulty about getting out the work or keeping business going with the short working day rule.

What Ireland Seeks

[From the Kansas City Star] American opinion of these Irish irritations has hardly comprehended what happened in Ireland in the last general election. Nothing happened in Ulster. Its policy showed no change. It is as simple as that. It is as simple as that. It is as simple as that. It is as simple as that. It is as simple as that.

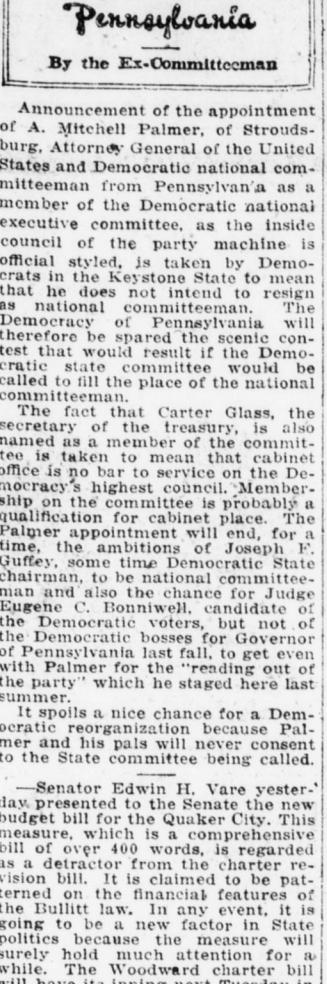

Airplane Stations

There is nothing fantastic or fanciful in the plea, made before the Legislative committee, for the establishment of airplane stations at convenient points and regular use of the airplane.

Advice to Workers

To Sheet Metal Workers No. 584: The reconstruction period, which we all have been looking for, has arrived. Now it is our duty and our one aim to see that we get justice and save all we can for the boys over there when they come back after having suffered for us.

OH, MAN!

A Doubtful Reform

[From the Philadelphia Press] There is much food for thought in the comments that are being made in regard to the selection of the Republican members of the committees of the next House.

The Governor on Good Roads

Pennsylvania is nearing the end of the "bad age" according to Governor Williams C. Sprout who has written an article on the plans for giving Pennsylvania a first class system of State Highways for "Community Service."

Songs and the Law

[From the Public Ledger] The quality of the proposed "State song" which the Legislature has turned down does not seem to have been high, but even apart from literary or musical considerations, there was wisdom in the lawmakers' decision.

Comparative Values

One Hoyt was fishing from the banks of a stream when there approached him an individual named Jones who remarked with a yawn: "Time ain't very valuable to you, brother, that's plain. Here I been a-watchin' you three hours, and you ain't had a bite."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

STAMMERING

To the Editor of the Telegraph: Having spent the best part of my life in the study of stammering and kindred maladies, I naturally read with a great deal of interest the recent news item regarding the attempted suicide of a boy seventeen years of age who stammered.

I stammered myself for nearly twenty years, and I know what it means. I want to register a protest against the common habit of making fun of the boy or girl who stammers.

Major W. G. Murdock, officer in charge of the staff, today notified the chief clerk of a local draft board in an unnamed district that the government could not give him the desk duty typewriter he used during the war, 21 pounds of flesh lost during service as chief clerk and a patch of good, black curly hair from the top of the head for the loss of 150 pounds of hair.
