

Urges Early Buying of Next Winter's Coal

Washington, March 20. — Early buying of next winter's supply of coal was urged upon the public by the fuel administration in a statement issued last night. The administration asserted that coal was now more plentiful than it would be for some time to come, a view of anticipated heavy coal exportations and that the public would have no better opportunity to place orders than at present. The importance of stimulating production which in February was 48 per cent. less than full time production also was emphasized. Current consumption from stores of coal, it was said, is greatly in excess of production, which has fallen off due to lack of orders.

THEATRICAL MEN HERE

A number of noted theatrical men are registered at the Penn-Harris

Hotel to-day. They include G. S. Ames, Philadelphia; D. MacDonald, E. J. Rosenthal, Lewis E. McCarthy and Frederick H. Elliott, New York. It is believed the men are here in the interests of the hearing in regard to moving the offices of the State Board of Censors of Motion Pictures from Philadelphia to Harrisburg.

Other Cities Follow Lead of Harrisburg With New Penn-Harris as a Model

The Penn-Harris Hotel is attracting considerable favorable comment throughout the state at large. A number of other Pennsylvania cities are planning to build hostels on the co-operative plan which made possible the construction of the Penn-Harris. The Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of communications from a number of cities requesting information concerning the procedure followed. Bethlehem is one of the latest additions to the rapidly growing list of communities which propose to build hotels by public subscription. At a dinner of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce held in that city recently, the project was launched on plans evolved largely from information furnished by the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce.

SERIES DANCE POSTPONED Owing to the inability of the management to secure Odd Fellows hall, Briggs and Cowden street, for Monday evening, it has been necessary to postpone the Harrisburg series until a later date, announcement of which will be made when date is set.
