

Folk Tales and Songs Part of Entertainment

Mrs. George Arbaugh, 3004 Kensington street, entertained the Sunday School Circle at a St. Patrick's party. The house was tastefully decorated in green with a touch of brown. The dining room, where a buffet supper was served, resembled the "Mile of Erin," with its numerous miniature trees and Irish cottages. Folk songs and stories formed part of the entertainment, and the unexpected arrival of one of the members from the army added to the evening's pleasure.

GIVE MRS. BICKEL A REAL SURPRISE

Club Members of the E. C. S. Celebrate Wedding Anniversary in Happy Manner

The E. C. S. Club of which Mrs. Henry Bickel is a member, gave her a pleasant surprise Tuesday evening at her home, 1387 Dorry street, on her wedding anniversary. Mr. Bickel was let into the secret so the plans might be fully perfected and the surprise a complete one. Those enjoying the hospitality of the home were Mrs. M. H. Baker, Mrs. Hugh Boyd, Mrs. J. Harry Bender, Mrs. Alice Harringer, Mrs. Charles Bush, Mrs. J. S. Arnold, Mrs. Edwin Cook, Mrs. Ralph Dowdell, Mrs. Maurice Emorick, Mrs. Carrie Fisher, Mrs. E. C. Keller, Mrs. Harry Meyer, Mrs. George Hoover, Mrs. Daniel Light, Mrs. George Pliekinser, club members, with Harry Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. M. Rudy Alteman as guests. Refreshments were served and the guests wished Mr. and Mrs. Bickel many years more of happy wedded life.

Honor Guests at Celebration of Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George King, of Summerdale, were honor guests at a surprise party given in celebration of their forty-first wedding anniversary. Congratulations and gifts were showered upon the couple and the evening passed pleasantly with music and games. Mr. King gave several selections upon an instrument received from London many years ago, after which supper was served to the following guests: Miss Ruth King, Mr. and Mrs. George Mulin, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. George King, Jr., Mrs. George Bowers, of Enola; Mrs. Eberly and daughter, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. S. J. Kroh, Charles King, of Scranton, George Robert King, Wilbur King, Robert Hartman, James Hartman, Jr., John Potter, Marion Brubaker and Mr. and Mrs. George King, Sr.

BLOOM TWINS CELEBRATING BIRTHDAY

MORRIS AND ETHEL BLOOM

Morris and Ethel Bloom, twin children of Mr. and Mrs. B. Bloom, 417 Herr street, are happily celebrating their seventh birthday to-day, receiving pretty gifts and lots of cards of greeting. Their parents gave Ethel a beautiful large doll and Morris an aeroplane in memory of the day. Both are bright in their school work in the Boas and Verbeke school buildings, first grades, and they have many War Savings Stamps to help Uncle Sam win.

Bishop and Mrs. Swengel Get Chest of Silver

Bishop U. F. Swengel, who has been called to the active ministry after a long retirement, was given with Mrs. Swengel, a delightful surprise party last evening by friends and neighbors, who gathered at their home, 75 North Eighteenth street, prior to their leaving for Mount Holly Springs, the new pastorate in the United Evangelical Church. Irwin E. Robinson, in behalf of the assembly, presented the Bishop and Mrs. Swengel with a chest of silver in token of their regard. The Bishop, who is a veteran of the Civil War, as well as of the United Evangelical church ministry, where he has served for fifty-two years as pastor, presiding elder and bishop, made a little speech in appreciation of the kindness of their friends. The party included: Bishop and Mrs. Swengel, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holsberg, Mr. and Mrs. Park McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Irving E. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Saltzman, Mr. and Mrs. John Sherk, Miss Romaine Sherk, Miss Margaret McCormick, Mrs. S. Buck, Miss Ada Swengel, Miss Ada Robinson, Miss Rea Robinson and Mrs. Lucy Carr.

Miss Lescuré's Birthday Is Happily Celebrated

Miss Alice Louise Lescuré, 803 N. Second street, was the honor guest yesterday at a birthday matinee party followed by a tea at the Penn-Harris, where the table decorations were silver baskets filled with jonquills, lilacs and pink roses. Mrs. John Barr McAllister and Mrs. William M. Hain chaperoned the girls. The guests who greeted Miss Lescuré, a student at Miss Fuller's School, Ossining, N. Y., were Miss Dorothy Cox, Miss Alice Virginia Cooper, Miss Mary Cooper, Miss Susanna Maguire, Miss Catherine Keen, Miss Winifred Meyers, Miss Florence Cocklin, Miss Frances Steiger of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Lydia Kunkel.

MINSTREL SHOW IN LARGE HALL

Club of Y. W. C. A. Arranging Clever Entertainment of Music and Tableaux

A minstrel show will be given by the R. F. O. M. Club of the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday evening, March 27, at 8.15 in the P. R. Y. M. C. A. Hall. Last year this club gave a successful play in the John Y. Boyd Hall of the Y. W. C. A., but were unable to accommodate all who wished to attend, so this year a larger hall has been secured. The show will be entirely original and will differ in many ways from the ordinary productions. Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mrs. James Lusk, Mrs. Clarence Griffie, and Miss Pearl Hoover, will take the part of end men, and Miss Florence Brown, Miss Mary Freed, Miss Mollie Kline, Miss Adelaide Lusk will be the soloists. In the tableaux to follow, Miss Amelia Jamison and Mrs. Anna Good-year will dance, and Miss Marie Hut-ton, Miss Grace Shutt, Miss Grace Owen, and Miss Mae Kerr will give clever pantomime stunts. The club expects to have the assistance of some local artists who will be announced later. The show is under the direction of Miss Lois Scott and Mrs. John W. German, Jr.

Grace Church Choir Guests of the Leader

Members of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church choir were the guests last evening at a St. Patrick's dinner given by the Y. W. C. A. at the Penn-Harris, 121 State street. The house was artistically decorated with spring flowers and a color scheme of green and white was cleverly carried out. A buffet supper was served to the guests. Miss Mary Butteroff, Miss Merle Smith, Miss Flora Kischenour, Miss Edna Kischenour, Miss Elizabeth Dubbs, Miss Olga Meloy, Miss Louise Baer, Miss Blanche Meloy, Mrs. Fred Lauke, Mrs. Robert Reeves, Mrs. S. Jewish Welfare Workers Make Gifts to Soldiers

Workers of the Jewish Welfare Board, of Carlisle, who have done so much for the soldiers at the United States Army General Hospital there, yesterday gave them 400 boxes of chocolates, nuts, cigarettes and handkerchiefs. The boxes were not alone for Jewish soldiers, but for all patients. Rabbi Louis J. Haas made an eloquent and impressive presentation speech. The committee, which worked unselfishly and patriotically in preparation of the event, comprised Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berg, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rosenau, and Miss Selma Berg. The local branch of the Welfare Board is co-operating with the Carlisle branch in planning for a series of the entertainments to be given soon, for the patients at that place.
