

FRESHMEN HAVE HARD TIME TO DINE IN PEACE

Officers of the class responded to various toasts and the banqueters enjoyed a delicious repast, served under the direction of Maitre D'Hotel Davidson.

Perhaps the most dramatic escape in the history of the college was that of a young man locked in his second-story room by upper classmen. Leaping to the ground, he managed to reach the house of a friend, where he donned woman's attire and walked to the waiting automobile. So successful was his disguise that Sophomores patrolling the street wondered who the attractive young lady was.

Those present included the following: Misses Meta Burbeck, Helen Daugherty, Marion Heffeman, Pauline Daugherty, Ella Dundore, Dorothy Engle, Mary Gingrich, Gertrude Gingrich, Maryland Glenn, Ruth Evans, Gladys Hower, Josephine Hershey, Ruth Heister, Anna Stern, Etile Hibbs, Verna Heas, Ethel Lehman, Pearl Light, Josephine Stine, Miriam Cassel, Lena Angel, Messrs. H. Bender, J. R. Bowman, H. Bender, J. D. Daugherty, J. Gingrich, Myer Herr, Ray Hershey, Oliver Heckman, Adam Miller, Russell O. Shadel, John Snider, Paul Tschudy, Prosper Wirt, Clifton Cole, Harry Fake, Calvin Feniel and John Cretzinger. Miss Ulrich and Professor Haring chaperoned the class.

BELGIUM'S KING VISITS PERSHING

were crowded with visitors from nearby towns, including many American troops from neighboring cantons. Nearly all the French and American officers of the staff were present and the American headquarters band furnished the music. Hundreds of school children lined the City Hall square, waving Belgian and French flags.

Royalty Reviews Troops The Belgian royalties, after the reception at the City Hall had been concluded, went to the Courban air-drome and reviewed the Eighty-first American division. They then returned to the chateau and took tea with General Pershing, his staff, the local, civil and military authorities and the chiefs of the allied missions.

British Air Forces to Have Assistance of Weather Man in Flight

London, March 21.—All the resources of the British air force's Weather Bureau will be at the disposal of the aviators competing in the trans-Atlantic flight, according to a statement made to the Mail today by Major Gondie, chief of the bureau.

A twenty-four-hour forecast for every competitor will be attempted, being based on reports from experts at St. Johns, Lisbon and the Azores. A British battleship will also be stationed between St. Johns and the Azores to co-operate with any British or American aviator making an official attempt to cross the ocean by airplane, he said.

SOCIETY TO MEET

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Market Square Presbyterian church, will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church parlor. A social hour will follow. Tea will be served, the executive committee acting as hostesses.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend a few cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fash, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed, and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually why not now?

BON-OPTO Sharpens Vision

TWO HIGHWAYMEN GET LONG TERMS

were from San Francisco, were given sentences of from two years and six months to four years in the Eastern penitentiary by President Judge George Kunkel to-day. They were called for sentence in courtroom No. 1 this morning shortly before the session closed.

According to Shuler and Challenger the men were taken in the former's machine to Clark's Ferry and there, with loaded revolvers pointed at Challenger, demanded and received $18. Judge Kunkel told the defendants they had committed one of the most serious offenses on the criminal records. It was said that the youths gave fictitious names to save their families from disgrace. The police have been unable to identify them through any records. After they had been sentenced they were handcuffed in the courtroom by Sheriff W. W. Caldwell and taken to jail.

Two other men, both colored, were given penitentiary sentences for attacking and robbing a peanut vender. They were George Patterson and John Williams, who were each given a sentence of from fifteen months to three years in the penitentiary by Judge Kunkel.

Placed For Daughter When Eva Colquhoun, convicted of aggravated assault and battery, was called for sentence in courtroom No. 2 before Judge A. W. Johnson, P. H. Walker, B. Cole interceded for her and asked the court to be lenient in imposing sentence. Eva, it was charged, slashed a man with a razor while the two were quarreling.

Judge Johnson talked kindly to Cole and told him that after carefully considering the case he had decided that he might not impose a penitentiary sentence. When it was said that the girl had served a previous jail sentence Judge Johnson ordered an investigation to determine if she were the same person and directed Assistant District Attorney Frank B. Wickersham to call her again this afternoon.

Judge Johnson, when Mr. Cole pleaded for his daughter and admitted he, too, had made mistakes when he was young, replied that this was true in many of the average families, and that in watching his children he found that they made little mistakes just the same as he had when he was a little boy. The judge said he would let the father who were present in the courtroom joined in the discussion, one of them asking how about the mother's faults.

$1,000 For Matrimony

"The mother is generally better than the father," Judge Johnson quietly replied. His response was received with some little laughter, but he told the attorneys that his remarks were given in seriousness.

Then one of the lawyers suggested why not send the father to jail and let the daughter go, when Judge Johnson recalled a play in which the father had always punished himself when his children did any wrong.

The judge said he would let the father go in this case because of his good record, but that he could not grant the parent's wish to have his daughter released on probation.

Asen Ivanoff, in defending himself in a larceny suit brought by Nik Dancheff, who accuses him of swindling him out of $1,000 by trickery, declared that he and Nik were good friends and that Nik was supposed to furnish this money because a wealthy woman had been found out west who would pay him.

A number of other prosecutions were disposed of in the two courtrooms as follows: Elmer P. George Carlie, serious charge, acquitted; George Washington, Thomas Brown, larceny from the person, bill ignored; Charles E. Weibley, serious charge, bill ignored; Arthur Wyo, larceny and false pretenses, acquitted; Edward Brown, larceny, acquitted; Clifton Martin, larceny, three months; Herbert Derry, larceny, four months; Joe Benens, receiving stolen goods, acquitted; Fenton Snowden, same charge, two months; Pete Raglan, larceny, six months.

ness and every one associated with the show cannot speak highly enough of its success, which, really, is beyond all expectations. We are drawing a record number of visitors from such distant places as Altoona and Chambersburg, and the out-of-town folk are even more enthusiastic than Harrisburg in declaring this demonstration the nearest perfect. Not one complaint has been made of any kind. To-day and tomorrow promise to bring the greatest crowd yet registered, and such is the enthusiasm for motor traffic that I believe the truck and tractor show, beginning at 10 a. m. Monday, will be equally successful.

Preparations are being made to take care of an invasion of the country market folk who have notified the manufacturers that they will be on hand in multitudes Saturday morning when they have finished feeding the capital city. Excursions from many nearby towns are also planned for to-morrow and the illustrious show will wind up in a monster party to-morrow night.

The truck and tractor exhibition should attract thousands, for the sales have jumped beyond all estimate since the war closed. The proprietors of the Overland plant continue their generosity of making no charge for rent and the intelligent visitor will see the big plant almost as attractive with motor engines planned for work as with the beauties which furnish pleasure and recreation.

Manufacturers began this morning to get their products to the vicinity and the streets will be crowded soon with all sorts of motor vehicle, including the nifty garden tractor which man, woman or child can use on the smallest plot, the demon which is going to turn every garden owner into a producer.

There is almost a snap of romance in this exhibit planned for three days next week, like magic, these dozens of types of tractors will, in a few years, turn out more food than was ever contemplated, for the tractor is here to stay. The first tractor introduced only a few years ago, but even now, according to George B. McFarland, head of the Harrisburg Automobile Company, the manufacturer of Cleveland and the Beman, there are nearly seven hundred motor trucks used in this city.

Two Men Are Badly Hurt; Truck Drops 20 Feet

Altoona, Pa., March 21.—Frank Hileman, 26, suffered a fractured skull, and Charles Clark, 30, severe body injuries when a truck driven by the former skidded off the road and toppled down a twenty-foot embankment yesterday.

Famous Sistine Choir Will Tour Country Under Guidance of Churchmen

New York, March 21.—The famous Sistine choir from Rome will make a concert tour of the United States under the auspices of high dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church this spring, it was announced today.

The choir, which is the oldest and most famous known to the Christian world, will come here in May. It is composed of thirty-two choral chaplains, and for many centuries these singers have had the exclusive privilege of singing at the services and ecclesiastical functions at which the Pope officiates in person. The Sistine choir was founded in the Fourth Century by St. Sylvester, whose pontificate extended from 311 to 335.

WEST SWEEP BY STORM

Denver, Colo., March 21.—The western section of the country is isolated to-day as the result of a snow and sleet storm that swept western Colorado and Wyoming last night. All wire communications west of Denver has ceased and transcontinental trains are reported to be behind schedule.

O'LEARY CASE WITH JURY

New York, March 21.—The case of Jeremiah A. O'Leary, the Bull Publishing Company and the American Truth Society, which has been in progress nearly eight weeks to consider evidence relating to their alleged seditious writings and publications, was given to the jury this noon.

Y. M. C. A. TO HEAR OF "PLEASURES OF SIN" "The pleasures of Sin" will be the subject of an address by the Rev. Dr. W. W. Orr before the men's mass meeting in Falmestock Hall, Sunday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. Harry J. Armstrong, evangelistic soloist, will lead the singing. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Central Y. M. C. A.
