

ITALY GIVES NOTICE OF ITS RETIREMENT

[Continued from First Page.] cent reports have indicated that an amicable settlement of the conflicting Italian-Jugo-Slav claims was possible. Just what has caused the Italian delegation to announce its determination on the Fiume question at this time has not been developed.

This makes the beautiful complexion so much admired. No use to hide pimples with cold cream and lotions. They come from within and keep coming until such an influence as calcium is employed. in the Paris advices. It is known, however, that the question of territorial adjustments has been before the conferences of premiers which have been taking place during the past day or two. Frontier Issues Worry. An Associated Press dispatch received last night from Paris regarding a conference held yesterday between President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau and Lloyd George stated that there was every reason to believe that the frontier issues were among the foremost obstacles which the conference were seeking to remove from the path to a rapid conclusion of the peace treaty. Fiume before the war was the chief seaport of the Hungarian kingdom. It has several harbors and its position and facilities made it the seat of virtually the entire shipping trade of Hungary. It had an ante-bellum population of nearly 40,000.

German Peace Envoy Doesn't Believe Huns Will Lose Colonies. By Associated Press. Bern, March 21.—In an interview printed in the New Gazette of Zurich, Prof. Walther Schuecking, a member of the German peace delegation, declares he does not believe that President Wilson's program can be invoked to deprive Germany of all her colonies. "Mr. Wilson has promised a broad, generous settlement to peoples like the Germans," he said. "Civilization rests on the efforts of all the great nations. The question of indemnity appears to have been settled in principle, all that remains being to fix the amount. As to the League of Nations, Germany is sincerely desirous of collaborating in the organization and I hope the Paris covenant may be sensibly modified."

Huns Explain Reason For Break in Peace Parley. A semi-official German note explaining the reason for breaking off negotiations at Posen says it has been impossible to reach an agreement, especially regarding the presidency of the commission controlling the situation there. The Germans say they are considering the appointment of the president by Pope Benedict, while the Entente nations desire the permanent Inter-Allied armistice commission to name the presiding officer. The Supreme Council will consider the Posen situation to-day and will take up measures to be carried out against the Germans to bring about a cessation of hostilities in the province of Poland.

Child's Flesh Raw From Eczema. Resinol Stopped Itching and Healed the Sick Skin.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 15.—"My baby suffered terribly for three months from eczema. It appeared on his face, head and hands, and spread until his head was a mass of sores, and he looked as if he had been scalded. The itching was so intense it kept him from sleeping. I tried many remedies, but nothing did him any good. I heard of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and the fourth day after I began their use the itching stopped. Now my baby would not know he had ever had any skin trouble. Two jars of the Ointment cured him." (Signed) Mrs. Bessie Davis, 1912 South Thirteenth street. All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap.

Greeks Want Epirus to Guarantee Peace. By Associated Press. Saloniki, March 21.—Reports reaching here from Paris with regard to the probable fate of Northern Epirus led to a meeting of Northern and Southern Epirus, now living here, to hold a meeting at which a resolution was passed declaring that peace in the Balkans would not be secured unless Northern Epirus were united with Greece. The resolution asserted the confidence of the gathering in the justice of the Peace Conference in this connection.

DUNBAR'S SLAYER DIES IN IRONS. [Continued from First Page.] confinement in the old deathhouse, which is separated from the new structure for condemned men by a door which is always locked. The last thing that Ferraro shouted in the old deathhouse with his into unconsciousness after he had wrested the knife from his hands was: "I won't die in the electric chair!" And to make sure that the convict did not die the state he was locked in the old death house with his wrists manacled and three special guards continually watching him. Everything that could possibly have been used to hurt himself was taken from his cell, even buttons from his clothing. No visitors were allowed to go within yards of him. He was allowed to eat nothing but fluids because of the fear that he might try to choke himself on solid foods. Late yesterday afternoon Ferraro asked for the prison chaplain, the Rev. Father William Coshin, who went to the deathhouse and was with the convict during his last hours of his life. During the last two or three hours before his execution Ferraro prayed almost continually. Besides the usual official witnesses, Lieutenant Amos O. Squire, U. S. N., the prison surgeon, was in the death chamber. The assistant, Dr. Alexander Kossiff, Lieutenant Squire gave the signal to the electrician to turn on the electric current that killed Ferraro.

HOTEL MEN TO KEEP BARS OPEN. [Continued from First Page.] per cent. alcohol if we desired, but the question is, could we sell it? "Two and three-quarters per cent. beer has been tested and found non-intoxicating. Therefore as a 'near beer' it would be a product for legal sale."

Bars to Keep Open. Neil Bonner, moving spirit of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, further reveals the hand of the booze handlers. In his statement he says all the saloons in Philadelphia will remain open after July 1 and adds: "The progress of legal action by the liquor interests has not been permitted to sleep. While I cannot at present in detail, which are in the hands of counsel, I will state that the best legal talent of the country has been retained for the purpose of establishing the justice of our contentions, and we are advised by them that we can proceed with business and that means we intend to do so."

Thomas D. Beidleman Gets Back His Capitol Job. Thomas D. Beidleman, for years connected with industries at Lehigh and later assistant foreman of grounds of the State Board of Public Grounds and Buildings, was today appointed general foreman by direction of Governor Sproul, chairman of the Board. He at once entered upon supervision of the Capitol Park and the extension.

Mr. Beidleman, who is the father of the Lieutenant Governor, had charge of the grounds for several years until last spring when he was dismissed on orders from Governor Brecht. He had been in charge at the start of the State campaign, and at the time Superintendent George A. Shreiner said that no fault was to be found with the manner in which Mr. Beidleman had taken care of the State property, but that pressure had come from "higher up." Mr. Beidleman was noted for the care that he gave to the grounds and his fidelity to duty. John Loban, the old foreman who had charge of the greenhouses for years, will be retained as he will shortly reach the retiring age under State laws.
