Unique Plan For Services in Olivet Presbyterian

The different organizations of Olivet Presbyterian Church are taking their turn in selecting leaders and subjects for the prayer meetings from week to week; and the Sunday School is developing plans for its assignment on Wednesday, March 26.

"Working in the Church," has been selected as the topic; and at the meeting these questions will be answered and briefly discussed, followed by prayer for each, by the members of the Sunday School:

"How can the weekly prayer meeting be made more appealing and popular?"

"Does the spiritual life of a church and Sunday School suffer because of lack of interest in missions?"

"Should there be a decision day in the Sunday School?"

"Do members of the church and Sunday School assist the Aid Society as they should?"

"How vital is the work of the Christian Endeavor Society in the evangelizing efforts of the church and Sunday School; and why and how should the church and Sunday School render larger assistance?"

The meeting promises to be a very interesting one, and a very large attendance is anticipated.

50 to 1 AGAINST LEAGUE

Washington,—Adds ranging anywhere from 3 to 1 to 50 to 1 are being offered here that the League of Nations covenant as now drawn up by President Wilson will never be ratified by the United States Senate. Owing to the possibility of amendments many are holding back to adjust the odds when the document takes final form.

W. B. Hibbs of W. B. Hibbs & Co., bankers and stock brokers here, and a member of the New York Stock Exchange, says he has talked to men from all parts of the country and of all shades of political opinions concerning the league, and that the consensus is that the present convenant has no chance of ratification.

"Should the odds be 3 to 1 against ratification?" Mr. Hibbs was asked.

"Easily much more than that," was the reply.
