

FIGURES GIVEN ON COAL VALUES

Expert Preparing Maps to Calculate Assessments in Northumberland County

Sunday, Pa., March 24.—Maps showing the coal deposits in Northumberland county designed for the purpose of calculating coal land assessments are being made by T. Ellsworth Davies, Scranton expert, for the county commissioners.

According to Mr. Davies Northumberland county has an area of 460 square miles, fifty square miles of 22-192 acres of which are within the coal measures. The coal deposits in the county are controlled by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, and the Girard Estate, with some minor owners.

Gettysburg Merchant Shot by Boys Slowly Improves

Gettysburg, Pa., March 24.—The condition of Abner Mills, the merchant who was shot three weeks ago by the two boys who sought to rob him as he was closing his store, is slowly improving. He was permitted by his physicians to sit up for a short while during the last two or three days. The bullet has not yet been located in his head, it being considered unwise to subject him to an X-ray examination in his weakened condition. He eats and sleeps well and is becoming more rational, but seems to be unable to remember names. With all his apparent improvement the doctors, however, will not say that he is yet out of danger.

MRS. CRAIG TELLS SOME GOOD NEWS

Giving evidence of a real cheerfulness, Mrs. B. Craig, 5412 Lancaster avenue, Philadelphia, tells of her experience with Tanlac. "I suffered from catarrh of the stomach and was weak and run down. There were discharges from my throat and nose, and I had distress from the gas that formed from fermentation. I started to take Tanlac after neighbors where I live told me about it. It has helped me. I am much better, and I hope this bottle does me much good as the others I've used."

The genuine Tanlac, which is being introduced at Gorgas' drug store, bears the name J. I. Gore Co. on outside carton.—Advertisement.

GERMAN SOLDIERS ACCUSE OFFICERS FOR ATROCITIES

Return From France and Belgium and Openly Tell the Truth

Paris, March 24.—(Special) Garrison Villard, of New York, editor of the Nation, has just returned to Paris from a week's observation of conditions in Germany and made a report to the American peace commissioners and the British prime minister, David Lloyd George, by which they are said to have been profoundly impressed.

Food Alone Won't Help. Food alone, Mr. Villard declared, would not save the situation, though many Germans thought so.

Officers Accused. "Many people are still ignorant of the atrocities of the German troops in France, Belgium and Rumania, but soldiers running from these countries are telling the truth and openly accusing their officers of wholesale thefts and deliberate cruelties."
