Hungarians Blame Tardiness of World Peace Conference For Turn of Empire Toward Bolshevism

HARRISBURG

LXXXVIII- NO. 72 18 PAGES Daily Except Sunday. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office at Harrisburg HARRISBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 26, 1919.

ONLY EVENING ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWSPAPER IN HARRISBURG

TELEGRAPH

to Manage Big Hotel County Poor Director since Janu

office. Surviving Mr. Miller are his wife,

School Children Go Back

ARE ORGANIZING

Santiago, Chile-The Chilean ministry, headed by mando Quezada: resigned to-day. The ministry was med November 25 last.

WILL PLACARD WALLS OF FRANCE

Paris-The national committee of the General Fed

Lo Indiage Dig Hotel J. Elmer Davidson, maitre d'hotel f the Penn-Harris Hotel, will leave for Macon, Ga., to-night to accept managerial position in the Hotel bermpsey, one of the largest hotels in the South. Mr. Davidson has been maitre 'hotel of the Penn-Harris since its pening in January. He is one of t Horace Leland Wiggins, mana-er of the local hotel, and it was prough the influence of the latter at he secured his new position. Te has had more than twenty-five tusiness. County Poor Director since Janu-ary, 1918, and a retired farmer, died this morning at 6.30 o'clock at his home in Hummelstown from Bright's disease. While he had not been in the best of health, Mr. Mil-ler attended to his official duties as Director of the Poor with regular-ity. He attended the session of the board on March 15, at which Dr. J. H. Lehr, of Lykens, the new mem-ber, took oath of office. As soon as the board at its regular meeting to-day learned of his death, the usiness. Mr. Miller was born in Cumber-

WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME

If you have a boy or husband in the Twenty-eighth or Seventy-ninth Divisions or other unit of the Army, in the Marine Corps or the Navy, if at home or "over there," we want you to join the Home Folks Victory Association to take part in the Welcome Home Reception and Parade that will be held in the near future. Benefit to defray expenses, Chestnut Street Auditorium, Mon-day, April 28. Fill in and mail this coupon.

Name

Street Sue K. Long, Secretary, 1113 North Front St. Harrisburg, Pa.

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Un-actiled weather, probably rain inte to-night and on Thuraday; warmer to-night, with lowest temperature about 48 degrees. For Eastern Pennsylvania; Cloudy and warmer to-night, probably followed by rain in erriy morning and on Thurs-day; moderate, south winds.

River The Susquehanna river and proh-ably all its branches will con-tinue to fall slowly to-night. Rain may cause some tribu-taries to rise Thursday. A stage of about 5.3 feet is indicated for Harrisburg Thursday morning.

George is believed temporarily to have lost his reason, started in the direction of his employment and wandered into the cemetery where he atcd. He had been suffering with Bright's disease for some time, had been off duty and had prepared to return to work last evening. BUSINESS BOARD New Council Will Be Part of |

CITY MERCHANTS

as the board at its regular meeting to day learned of his death, the members adjourned as a mark of respect.
Mr. Miller was born in Cumberland, perty and of for the county april 7, 1848. He was lasted there and during the Cwilling the county and for forty years was engaged in farming in South Hanover township. For many years he was a dealer in ruseled other stock and as a result raveled over the greater part of Dauphin, Cumberland, Perry and other nearby counties, making many friends in all these districts. Mr. Miller sold many mules to coal counts, making many friends in all these districts. Mr. Miller sold many mules to coal the result raveled over the greater part of the distributer of the result and harder part of the distributer. Mr. Miller sold many mules to coal the movement will be launched on the republican nominee for Direct. In November, 1917, he was the Republican leader in the township in which he resided there suntil was an active Republican leader in the township in which he resided by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was elected by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was a elected by a big majority. For many years he was hereided hereid the townshi

Surviving Mr. Miller are ins wite, two sons, the Rev. Clayton B. Mil-ler, now in North Carolina; Harvey J. Miller, Philadelphia; Mrs. Katie E. Smith and Mrs. Ellen Shope, Un-ion Deposit. Arrangements for the funeral were not complete this aft-Camp Hill, Pa., March 26.—When the to the skies, and they were

This aft-the fire broke out s. State Hill yea. Strike treday about half the school boys and girls of town deserted the play-grounds where they were enjoying morning recess and ran pell mell children the fire broke out s. State Hill yea-the dire broke out s. State Hill yea-the home of the country, there are home in high spirits, especially proud the the broke out the set set out the state of the country. The home near the dire broke out state the barn. They morning in wet clothes receiv-mothe many. The homeless fire victims thanked their young benefactors and praised Camp Hill, Pa., March 26 .-- When them to the skies, and they went After One Day's Strike

Because they could not have flag-ising exercises at the same time the Williamstown school children ad their program, boys and girls f the Lykens schools went on strike had their program, boys and girls of the Lykens schools went on strike yesterday and left the building, and paraded the streets in a patriotic demonstration. According to reports from the upper end borough the dif-foculties have been settled, and the pupils are in school again.

Second Call Entered Here For San Francisco, With Rates at $5.90 a Minute

shoia-Ozera advance details of Reds which rode into the town wore the uniforms of the Slavo-British legion. Their surprise of the ittle allied gar-rison there was evidently complete. Some of the French escaped by walk-ing for two days and two nights through the snow and turned up half frozen. Malcolm V. Arnold, a Y. M. C. A. The second call in the history of the local telephone exchange to be registered for San Francisco was placed by a guest at the Penn-Harris Hotel last night, the call be-tured.

ing taken by Miss Blanche V. Gar-verlek, operator at the Penn-Harris Garverick made every effort to get the call through, but it was impos Cry of "Fire" Causes he call through, but it was imr sible to reach a point further west than Denver. It was explained that because of severe storms west of that city the service would not be Incidentally, a curious reporter looked up the rates to San Fran-cisco and found that the Bell Tele-Denne to react the store to re-loward tit

By Associated Press. Berlin, March 25.— Seventy chil-dren are dead and twenty injured seriously as the result of a stampede during a juvenile entertainment at Cleiwitz, Silesia. The children rushed uring a juvenile entertainment at leiwitz, Silesia. The children rushed oward the exits when someone aised the cry of "fre." Most of the asualties occurred in the rush down he stairways. phone Company's charges are $17.75 for a three-minute conversation and $5.90 for each additional minute. If the call is for a particular person, the chief operator said, charges will be $22.15 for a three-minute con-versation and $7.35 for each additional minute

Influenza Hits England; Doctors Feel Great Strain

By Associated Press London, March 26 .- The return of he epidemic of influenza finds Eng-and so short of doctors and nurses.

that, according to reports from var

ous parts of the country, there are Wh not enough even to give casual at-tention to patients. The strain on the medical men who are trying to cope with the content of the strangers about to enter the a mobile owned by her son, Samu medical men who are trying to cope with the emergency is so severe that there is danger of many of them breaking down.

study

TO STUDY BIRDS The Harrisburg Natural History Society members will leave Market Square on the 1 o'clock White Hill car Saturday afternoon, going to Eberly's Mill where they expect to study water birds.

while he and his wife were visiting friends, she called Jerome I. Het-rick, who chased the men for sev-eral blocks before they eluded him and escaped.

By Associated Press.

FIND PATROLMAN A SUICIDE FIND PArticipation of the second seco Chicage, March 26.—An inquest was to be held to-day on the body of James O'Connor, former New York City patrolman, found in a small ho-tel with an empty bottle, which had contained poison, beside him. Pa-pers found among his effects showed he had enlisted in the army. He was on his way to the United States gen-eral hospital, at Denver, Col., for "further observation."

Stampede in Silesia

y bottle, which had beside him. Pa-chis effects showed the army. He was United States gen-Denver, Col., for ion." UTO THIEF rah Hetrick, $00 street, saw two to enter the auto-her son, Samuel P. CHASES AUTO THIEF

やややや

FAR FROM PEACE, SAYS VISCOUNT MILNER London-In the House of Lords last night Viscount

lillier said that in his opinion the country was still far from an established peace. Therefore, he declared, the army and navy estimates could not be reduced.

DICKMAN DISCIPLINES COBLENZ GAZETTE Coblenz-The morning and evening editions of the Coblenz Gazette were yesterday suspended for three days by General Dickman for criticising the allies in connection with an article on developments in Hungary

SENATE ATTENDS CATLIN FUNERAL

Wilkes Barre Nearly the entire membership of the neral of Senator Sterling R. Catlin, who was laid to rest in Hollenbach cemetery. Services were held at the home and cemetery by Chaplain Thomas W. Davis, of the Sente and Chaplain James W. Farr, of Wilkes-Barre, who France. Floral tributes were me Legislature.

.