Much Gasoline Sent to Allies Last Year

Washington, March 26. — "We floated to victory on a wave of oil," said a British admiral in the first enthusiastic moments following the armistice.

Just how much truth there is in this burrah statement has just been disclosed by Van H. Manning, director of the Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior, in the yearly statement on the production of gasoline in this country.

In 1916, before the United States entered the war, according to the statement the production of gasoline was a little short of fifty million barrels. In 1917, when war activity was accelerated by the entry of the United States into the war, the production of gasoline had increased to nearly sixty-eight million barrels, an increase of more than fifty thousand barrels a day.

It was thought by many that this must be the peak of American patriotic effort, but in 1918, when the war had assumed even greater proportions, the production of gasoline was over eighty-five million barrels, an increase for the year of more than seventeen million barrels. The daily increase for this year over the record-breaking year of 1917 was about forty-seven thousand barrels for each of the 365 days, or almost as much more as the increase of the previous year.

How this country sent an ever-increasing flood of this gasoline to the allies and to friendly countries is seen in the export figures. In 1916 there were 8,473,102 barrels of gasoline sent abroad. In 1917 this amount had increased to 9,687,877 barrels, an increase of about 4,000 barrels a day. In 1918 these exports had reached a total of 13,312,508 barrels, an increase of nearly 10,000 barrels a day over the year 1917.

It is the opinion of Mr. Manning that no single industry in this country of so important a nature ever made such a showing in a single year, and he doubts if the future will ever show a record of achievement.

Jersey Senate Passes Hudson Tunnel Bill

Trenton, N. J., March 26.—The Senate yesterday passed a bill by Senator Mackay, of Bergen county, providing ways and means for the construction of the New York-Jersey City tunnel under the Hudson. The bill, which is in line with Governor Edge's plan for the building of the tunnel, authorizes the entering into negotiations and contracts by New Jersey with New York for the tunnel and permits the New Jersey commission to arrange with New York for the collection of tolls for the proposed tunnel.

Old Herbal Remedy Used For 40 Years in Relieving Diabetes

The most satisfactory results have been obtained in combating Diabetes by observing certain dietary rules and the judicious use of Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy, an herbal preparation used with marked success for more than forty years.

Following is a letter from a grateful user:

"This letter is the best proof that I am still alive. Your medicine is a miracle to me. My weight was reduced from 157 to 114 pounds when I left the hospital. I left there August in despair. Hundreds of people that knew me said I would never live to return to my studio. After leaving the hospital, I saw your 'ad.' in the paper. I began its use and at once commenced to improve, and now everybody is saying to me that I look better than ever before. I am back working again, to the astonishment of all. I feel splendid and people say I am looking better every day. I must tell you that every word I have written is true, and I can prove it by hundreds that know of my condition. Jules Friquet, 511 West First street, Los Angeles, Cal."

Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy is made from herbs and other beneficial ingredients and has been on the market 40 years, a true indication of its value. Get a bottle today.

Catarrh Is Not Incurable

BUT YOU CAN'T RELY ON SPRAYS AND INHALERS.

There is no use permitting yourself to be deceived. Perhaps, like thousands of others afflicted with Catarrh, you are about ready to believe that the disease is incurable, and that you are doomed to spend the remainder of your days hawking and spitting, with no relief in sight from inflamed and stopped-up air passages that make the days miserable and the nights sleepless.

Of course this all depends upon whether or not you are willing to continue the old-time, make-shift methods of treatment that you and many other sufferers have used for years with no substantial results. If you are still content to depend upon the use of sprays, douches, inhalers, jellies and other like remedies by themselves, that are applied to the surface and cannot reach below it, then make up your mind now that your Catarrh will remain a life companion and will follow you to the grave.

You must realize that the disease itself, and not its symptoms, is what you have to cure. Of course you know that when you are cured of any disease its symptoms will disappear. Catarrh manifests itself by inflammation of the delicate membranes of the nose and air passages, which choke up and make breathing very difficult. To get rid of these distressing effects you must remove their cause.

The blood is laden with the Catarrh germs, which direct their attack against the tender and delicate membranes of the nose and throat. These germs cannot be reached by sprays or douches, which, of course, have no effect whatever upon the blood.

S. S. S. is a purely vegetable blood remedy, made from roots and herbs direct from the forest, which combat promptly any disease germs or impurities in the blood. This great remedy has been used for more than fifty years, with most satisfactory results. It has been successfully used by those afflicted with even the severest cases of Catarrh, because it drives out from the blood the Catarrh germs, and eliminates every foreign substance from the blood. S. S. S. is sold by druggists everywhere.

For the benefit of those afflicted with Catarrh or other blood diseases, we maintain a medical department in charge of a specialist skilled in these diseases. If you will write us fully, he will give you case careful study, and write you just what your own individual case requires. No charge is made for this service. SCHOOL GIRL TELLS OTHERS

How They Can Find Relief from Periodic Sufferings.

Nashua, N. H.—"I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I had such pains that I would often faint, and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and tried so many remedies that I was of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspaper and decided to try it, and that is how I found relief from pain and feel much better than I used to. When I hear of any girl suffering as I did I tell them how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me."—Della Martin, 29 Bowers St., Nashua, N. H.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, therefore is a perfectly safe remedy to give your daughter, who suffers from such painful periods as did Miss Martin.

The reason so many girls write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice, is because from their forty years' experience they have a store of knowledge which is invariably helpful.

Too Many Kinds of Potatoes Grown Now

The State Department of Agriculture has issued a warning that there are too many varieties of potatoes grown in Pennsylvania. The lack of uniformity is declared the chief obstacle to the business of the State in the vegetable because it prevents large lots being made up of any one standard variety. The Department estimates that farmers of the State were holding 7,305,000 bushels of 29.5 per cent. of the 1918 crop on March 1, which is 3,000,000 less than on March 1, 1918. The wheat holdings on March 1 were 14.5 per cent. or 3,758,000 bushels, or 2,000,000 less than on the same day last year.

The wheat and rye crops are reported in better shape than known in years.

According to the department the record for 1918 crops and livestock was Lancaster, wheat, corn, tobacco and horses; York, hay, mules, and swine; Berks, rye and oats; Bradford, buckwheat; Centre, barley; Chester, milk cows; Crawford, other cattle; Lehigh, potatoes, and Washington, sheep.
