Civil Service Examination at Army Reserve Depot

New Cumberland, Pa., March 28.—The United States Civil Service Commission announces that an examination will be held at the army reserve depot at New Cumberland, on April 3, for first grade clerk. This is a special examination and only those now employed at this depot will be permitted to enter and will be given an opportunity to qualify and retain the positions now held by them. Necessary application forms and printed information have been furnished Charles A. List, chief clerk at the depot, and he will in turn furnish application papers to any who have not received them direct from the commission. The examination will be conducted by George S. McCrone, the commission's representative at Harrisburg. The examination will commence at 1 o'clock sharp and will be conducted at the depot.

High School Students Rehearsing "Uncle Rube"

Marysville, March 28.—The final rehearsal of the cast of characters of Marysville High school students, who will appear in the comedy, "Uncle Rube," the annual senior class play, is being held in the Gales theater this afternoon, with all characters in full costume. Miss Mae Logan, assistant principal of the High school, is in charge of the work.

Joseph Enninger, a senior, will play in the title role. Practically every member of the senior class and two girls from the junior class, will take part in the production.
