Yale's Ball Team Made Up Mostly of War Veterans

Billy Lauder, in days gone by third baseman for Yale, is building up a swell team for Yale, a team which will be famous for its fighters. Nearly half of the team have faced German shells in France and three have been wounded.

These two qualities of experience have given the candidates for the team a tenacity of purpose which coaching staff feel will result in strenuous campaigns. The Harvard and Princeton battery fire will be few terrors for the players who have worked through the fiercest campaigns at the home plate.

The three players who are mentioned for first base; Bill Wright, prominent candidate for both the infield and the infield, and Ray

A meeting of the West End Twilight League was held at the office of Alderman Householder, Wednesday evening, when a permanent organization was formed for the season of 1919. The following officers were elected: President, Professor McMurry of the Technical High School faculty; vice-president, Mr. Lutz, sporting editor of the Evening News, and with the New York State League for several seasons' treasurer, William Wykoff, who has been closely identified with city athletics for a number of years.

Quail Shooting De Luxe In Oklahoma With Tom Marshall

Released from their crates the quails were ready for action, their every hunting move spelled "veteran." Ed Fisher speaks the dog language fluently, he issues no orders, but extended a few suggestions to Jim and Don, they immediately selected their territory, seldom encroaching on each other except when it was necessary to "back," which was an endorsement of the nose and locating judgment of their co-workers on hunting mice.

New York, March 31.—Sir Thomas Lipton, challenger for the America's cup, who recently accepted the condition of the New York Yacht Club for a race in 1920, arrived here to-day on the steamship Aquitania from Liverpool. He was accompanied only by his secretary and the object of his visit here was to meet old friends, many of whom he had not seen since his last visit to the United States in 1913.

NEED READING MATTER

The Third Assistant Postmaster General under date of March 27, 1919, advises there is still great need for magazines for soldiers and marines. The number now being mailed under the instructions, "Notice to Reader, When you finish reading a magazine bearing this notice, place a one-cent stamp on the field post card under the stamp on the magazine, and it will be placed in the hands of our soldiers, sailors or marines. No wrapping—No address," being inadequate to supply the demand. Reports received by his office indicate that the magazines are heartily appreciated and serve to promote the welfare and contentment of the recipients. Magazines should be of current or comparatively recent date and devoted to literature or other articles of general interest. Old magazines and those of local or restricted interest are of no value and are not desired.
