GLASS THINKS COUNTRY ABLE TO FLOAT LOAN

Believes All War Bonds Will Sell Above Par Before Maturity

Washington, April 2 .- Confidence in the financial condition of the country and its ability to float the country and its ability to float the forthcoming Victory Liberty Loan is expressed by Secretary Glass in replying to the suggestion of Senator Calder, of New York, that a special session of Congress should be called to stop depreciation in the market price of Liberty Bonds.

Far from agreeing that the decline in outstanding bonds might Jopardize the popular campaign for flotation of the Victory issue this month, Mr. Glass declared that he was assured the treasury's efforts to been the result of artificial causes and he knew of no one who did not believe that all Liberty bonds would sell above par before maturity.

"There is to-day no insufficiency of credit for the needs of any useful enterprise nor insufficiency of gold to support our credit structure," Security Glass departed.

W. and Bolshevistic troubles in the industrial centers, "We might as well face the issue," Mayor Miles B: Kitts, of Erie, declared. "We are going to have trouble with them and a change in the election laws will do no good, especially not in Erie."

W. M. Bertolet, Reading, expressed a similar view and declared that his eity will have a Socialist mayor fand conucil if the law is changed. "Two political parties form the basis of national government, not three. We have three in Reading, and in other will be irrouble."

Mayor John Dugan, Connellsville; Solicitor Walter E. Greenwood, Coatesville and Mayor C. L. Alexander, Corry, all asked the committee not to favor any change in the present law. Some of the officials in speaking of the party feature, said they saw no reason why partisan issues should concern cities, but believed that local issues should be considered when councilmen were elected. "Let the parties go on with their contests over State and National issues, but keep them out of the cities where the people should be concerned about municipal affairs in selecting their representatives in council," Solicitor McHugh, Wilkes-Barre, said.

"You certainly can't expect any third class city official to come here and favor the Wilson bill," was the terse comment of one of the committee members after a few of the speakers had been heard. "Of course, they favor the nonpartisan election. Under the present law a man can spend a few thousand dollars to get the office in council and then as he was elected at large and is responsible to no party, can do as he pleases feeling that he has practically "bought" his position, and need pay attention to no one."

It is understood that the committee may not be called together to act on the bill for a day or two, although all third class cities intending to send delegates were represented except Altoona. Harrisburg was not represented at the hearing.

Just as the hearing closed City Clerk R. Ross Seaman arrived at the Capitol, as they came to learn what action the committee would take on the bill.

James A. Gardner, city solicitor, of New Castle, after stating that the majority of third class cities opposed any change in the election law, called the officials before the committee to report the attitude in he municipalities.
