

TELLS OF STATES PART IN WINNING THE WORLD WAR

College Club Hears Dr. Raiguel Give Vivid Description of Work Well Done

'Looked to me as though the old state of Pennsylvania was lickin' the Germans lone-hand'

With this half-wit remark, Dr. George Earle Raiguel, traveling companion of Burton Holmes, gave a rattling, brisk talk at the Civic Club this afternoon to members of the College Club, who had many of the Civic Club members as guests, so that the attractive auditorium was filled.

The compliment to Pennsylvania caused the audience and Dr. Raiguel went on to tell how in his minute canvass he found Pennsylvanians everywhere, teaching the Hun how to hustle and hitting the Hun in the run. He encountered officers and just plain Yanks everywhere—General Biddle, General Atterbury and Captain Jack Potter, and he said that even Colonel (George) of the State Police, was omnipresent in developing the military police.

Dr. Raiguel differed drastically with the bookworm who talk of wasted money as a reason for not investing in the next bond issue. 'We spent money lavishly,' he agreed, 'but we did not waste it. Millions were saved in salvage; Belgian and French women darned our soldiers' socks and their natural thrift was paid well to save us great sums.'

The speaker told accurately and vividly what America had done and how she did it. 'It is queer how America can do great things, like building the Panama canal, habituating France, away from home, but under the same roof, one depot containing $250,000,000 worth of supplies, everything from rocking chairs to safety razors, 'because of the covies, and rocking chairs are not made abroad.' The French engines made the Yanks grin. 'Watch them,' he dubbed them 'Yanks' incidentally, 'but never more be applied solely to New Englanders. The word was adopted by all nations as the name of the American. He pointed out that this war means as an obliteration of civil feud in America by showing how he heard a regiment of North and South Carolina men whooping at the top of their voices 'Marching Through Georgia.'

And for speed, he had some good ones. A building 100x80 was put up in twenty-eight hours, and that colonel in charge informed that 'That lumber was growing on French trees only fifty-four hours ago.'

He intimated that with the Liberty motor installed, and quoted British officers as authority, that Germany was not being wiped out in its lifetime. 'You were not wanted,' he quoted the English as saying to Americans, 'until you had the standard motor. The German had at first, but liberty hove in view it was the perfect thing. And, while it took us a day to assemble twenty machines, you Yanks beat us with a record of 100 per day.'

MACEDONIA GIVES FIRE REFELS BOLSHEVIK ATTACK ON ALLIES

Russian Reds Speedily Retire in Face of Grilling Reply to Drive Along Railway Near Odzorskaia; Cut Wires to Allied Outposts Near Bolshoia Ozera

Archangel, April 2.—Bolshevik forces again attacked the Allied positions along the railway near Odzorskaia and also made an assault on the village of Bolshoia Ozera on Monday, but at both places were repulsed. Along the railway front the enemy struck from the right flank, but was met by such a withering fire from machine guns and artillery that he speedily retired with heavy losses.

In the attack near Bolshoia Ozera the Bolsheviks succeeded for a short time in cutting telephonic communication to the Allied outposts along the front at a point about two miles east of that village, and twelve miles west of Odzorskaia, but were later driven off.

The enemy is apparently striving to take Odzorskaia before the thaw sets in, the Pennsylvania railroad which is rapidly approaching makes the roads impassable and compels him to withdraw from Bolshoia Ozera, which is a village from the Bolshevik base, with which it is connected only by a winter road which is virtually useless in the spring.

Along the Ovina and Vega fronts the situation is reported unchanged. Bolshevik troops, after a heavy bombardment during the night, were positioned on the railway front and south of Odzorskaia, attacked, at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The attack was repulsed and the Bolsheviks were met by their own machine gun fire, while the allied artillery bombarded various groups of the enemy.

An allied airplane discovered six trains three miles south of the front line and attacked them with bombs. A locomotive and a stretch of the track were destroyed.

RAILROAD POLICE GET 8-HOUR DAY

Slightly Less Than One Hundred Affected on Local Divisions

Members of the police department of the Philadelphia and Middle Divisions have been granted an eight-hour working day. Slightly less than one hundred men on the two divisions will be affected. Some of them have already started working on the new schedule, while arrangements are being made for the others to start within a short time.

Railroad policemen are among the last employees of the company to be placed on the eight-hour basis. They will receive the same salaries which were paid for twelve hours work, it is stated. The men in the department have been on duty seventy-two hours or more weekly ever since the organization was effected.

Men identified with the Pennsylvania police organization got reduced working time several days ago, when the eight-hour system was inaugurated in their department. It is asserted that the new order will apply to police departments all over the Pennsylvania system.

The Sixth Ward Young Men's Republican Club gave a smoker at 1415 Marion street. The following officers were present: J. H. Plans for the War Garden parade to be held next Tuesday afternoon are rapidly progressing. Veterans of foreign wars, the Boy Scouts, city officials, members of the Red Cross Motor Service Corps and school children will participate.

Women Vote Wet Dry 268,529 124,731 391,260 The pronounced wet vote was said by 'personal liberty' leaders to mark the actual beginning of a campaign to repudiate national prohibition.

Not Surprised at Result On the other hand, E. J. Davis, Chicago superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, said: 'I am not surprised at the result. We made no fight and asked no one to vote for a dry Chicago. To have done so would have been to disregard the will of the people. The efforts of Chicago wets to use Chicago results in an effort to terrorize Congress and the Supreme Court is little short of seditious.'

Dauphin County to Set Pace in Coal Assessments Commissioners from Lebanon county are to attend the special meeting to be held to-morrow by the Dauphin County Commissioners to hear appeals from the coal companies against assessments of lands as fixed on the valuations given by T. Ellsworth Davies, of Scranton.

Assessors in the coal land districts have not yet notified the present session to-morrow when representatives of the coal companies will be heard.

Overseas Cavalry Popular That there will be a great rush to fill the few vacancies in the overseas cavalry is the belief of Major W. E. Shipp, of the army recruiting station, himself a cavalry officer.

There are only four cavalry regiments overseas—the Second, Third, Sixth and Fifteenth—and there will probably be less than 4,000 vacancies to be filled. Cavalrymen have always felt that their branch of service was the most attractive, and the members of those cavalry units which were transferred to other branches the service during the war were bitterly disappointed.

In the Regular Army the cavalry has often been above peace strength and regulations limiting the number of men accepted have frequently been made. It will not be surprising if the few vacancies in the cavalry will be filled this spring, as there are many men who believe the old saying: 'Once a Cavalryman, always a Cavalryman,' and are eager to be mounted troopers again, especially those recently accepted for the cavalry at the local recruiting station are: Edgar J. Nicholas, William Haney, William A. Minter, Howard W. Ajohn, Albert J. Boyles, Malcolm R. MacConnell, Henry F. Maddorf, Robert M. Mummert, Joseph C. Rock, Arthur E. Huber, Stanley E. Lester, Francis W. Lawler, Marion Kelly, Charles R. Schell.

Kings, Presidents and Premiers Cease to Be Novelty at the Paris Peace Conference

Paris, Mar. 26.—Kings, presidents and premiers have ceased to be a novelty at the Peace Conference, but the 'bodyguard' of Premier Venizelos of Greece, never fails to attract great crowds. At the hotel where the American delegation is housed and at the foreign office, the Greek statesman is always heralded by the arrival of one of his Cretan soldiers arrayed more brilliantly than a comic opera bandit.

The Cretans who escort the Greek statesman are all more than six feet tall and apparently have been chosen from various organizations as a different man appears daily, and the same uniform is never seen twice. The swarthy Cretans all have small waxed mustaches twisted into upturned points and stand rigidly at attention for hours while awaiting M. Venizelos at the entrance to the hotel or of the foreign office. The jibes of small boys and the jokes of various allied soldiers who gather in wonderment never seem to disturb the imperturbable Cretans.

Perhaps the most startling uniform worn by one of the guards consisted of white tights bound by tasseled black silk cords at the knees, a red velvet blouse and sash, a red fez surmounted by a black silk tassel so long that it fell below the waist and black sandals with upturned toes topped by great black silk pom-poms. This costume was completed by an ivory handled knife two feet long thrust carelessly into the sash.

The knives and swords worn by the Cretans are the chief feature of the uniforms and make collectors of the antique weapons very envious. They are of all sizes and shapes and have sheaths of great splendor, jeweled and carved in a marvellous manner.

Some of the guards are bare-kneed and have costumes not unlike the Scotch in style but much gaudier in color. Others wear marvellously decorated leggings reaching far above the knees. Capses of oriental hues are frequently worn by the Cretans and add to the brilliancy of the Greek uniforms which make the faded uniforms of the French and English look sombre.

Private Moser Honored With Post in Paris Earl G. Moser, of 1545 Walnut street, has been selected as one of Peace Council Guards to guard the American Peace Council headquarters in Paris. He left this city in August with selective service men and after about seven weeks of training at Camp Lee, Va., he was sent to France. Private Moser was head of the shipping department of the Moorhead Company, of this city, prior to his entrance into the army.

President Meets With Premiers With respect to German Austria prohibition is maintained against trade in a few articles, chiefly of a military nature.

Washington, April 2.—Resumption of trade and communication with German Austria, effective to-day, will be subject to the terms of a treaty last night by the War Trade Board acting in accordance with an agreement reached by the associated nations during the six months ending January 31, we have earned more than the compensations awarded us by Postmaster General Burleson last year. If we had been allowed to keep our property, and operate it, we would have earned more than the compensations awarded us by Postmaster General Burleson last year.

Drastic Action Planned to Break Up Truancy Determined to stem truancy in the city, Attendance Officer Austin N. Miller has brought eight prosecutions during the last three days. Three truants against parents and children were taken into custody on Monday, another on Tuesday and one today, going to Lens, Arras and other cities in the coal and manufacturing centers which suffered from the war.

Members of the American delegation will go, but it is as yet unknown whether President Wilson will be one of the party.

Barcelona.—This city is quiet, theaters and moving picture houses are closed, and the food supply has returned to normal. The Spanish cruiser Espana and a torpedo boat are anchored in the port.

New York.—The naval supply ship Calgosa, carrying 104 casual troops, which was recently reported in distress southeast of this port, arrived here to-day from Brest after taking twenty-eight days in making the passage across.

Rome.—Bosina and Herzegovina, cut off from outside aid during the war, and the newest field in which the American Red Cross is extending its activities.

London.—Captain Andre M. Procter, U. S. N., was the only witness this morning in the court-martial of Captain Edmund G. Chamberlain, of San Antonio, Texas, in connection with his reported aid exploits on the British front last summer.

Weimar.—Members of the Christian League Workers' Association of Augsburg, are being forced, on pain of being deprived of work, to join the social democratic trade union, according to the Lokal Anzeiger, of Berlin.

Natchez, Miss.—Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, in an address here last night characterized Secretary Baker and Major General Crowder as exponents of a 'Prussianized militarism.'

Berlin.—Almost all the labor forces of Germany were either striking or threatening to strike as a result of agitation carried on by Independent Socialists and Spartacists, who are succeeding in their efforts to induce workers to make increasingly impossible demands.

CHICAGO VOTE AFFECTS MARKET

Strength of So-Called Spirit Stocks Attributed to 'Wet' Victory in the West

New York, April 2.—Steamship shares continued to feature the more extensive dealings, oils, metals and distilling division coming next in order named. The strength of so-called spirit stocks was attributed in part to the result of yesterday's election in Chicago. Equipments were chiefly represented by Harvester, General Electric, Franklin Loan, Motive and American Locomotive and the paper group was most prominent among inactive specialties. U. S. Steel increased its gain to a fraction over a point, independent steel also showing a stronger tone at mid-day. Bonds were firm, Virginia certificates advancing 1-1/2 points.

in the present case. 'It would hardly be continued,' says the court, 'if the possession of private property under what is called the war powers and used it for other than war purposes he was acting within his constitutional powers, it would seem that he had attempted to use the defendant's telephone system for a purpose which has no relation to the national security. It would seem that the defendant, because of his office, be subjected to injunction or to the process of the courts for so doing, still there are reasons why the court should not do so far as they are amenable to judicial process.'

Judge Junkel says he recognizes that there might be many cases in which a court of equity would refuse to interfere with the President's war powers. He says that the court might result but this does not appear to apply in this instance.

Way Was Open It may be suggested that the court says that it is the President's duty to control to attempt to avoid loss to the companies but he holds that in absence of facts and findings it must be presumed that the rates and schedules formally and legally approved by the Public Service Commission are fair and reasonable. 'If there were not a law which would no doubt that on applying to it the commission would have afforded ample relief.'

After going deeply into the reasons for raising the rates, the Federal control of the lines the court says that 'it is quite clear that the resolution did not contemplate an increase of the rates and tolls in force at the time it was passed. It follows, Judge Junkel holds, that the President and the Postmaster General were not acting within the scope of their authority, therefore not officially when they arbitrarily changed the rates. 'It will hardly be questioned,' he continues, 'that the rate-making authority of Pennsylvania has not been enforced its own statutes, and to prevent their violation; or that this local jurisdiction to enforce the Federal control of the lines the purpose of preventing the violation of the order of the Public Service Commission, and we think that the order should be dissolved. For the considerations which we have discussed in this opinion, we are induced to continue to uphold the order until final hearing, when the facts of the case may be fully shown and the questions which have been raised may be more thoroughly discussed and considered. Accordingly the motion to continue is sustained.'

No Need to Increase Rate on Telegraph Lines New York, April 2.—Clarence H. Mackay, President of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company being asked regarding the increase in the telegraph rates which went into effect to-day by order of the Postmaster General Burleson said that if Postmaster General Burleson would return his lines to the Postal Telegraph Cable Company at the rate of $100,000,000 per year, the company would restore the old telegraph rates, one of Mackey's interview was as follows: 'The total telegraph business of the country is approximately $80,000,000. This 20 per cent increase ordered by Postmaster General Burleson would cost $16,000,000 to the telegraph users. That it is absolutely unnecessary to increase telegraph rates is shown by the fact that the representatives of the Postmaster General now found we have been able to hold up our earnings and profits to expectations and those earnings and profits for the year commencing July 31, 1918, date when the Government claims to have taken control, were more than twice the compensation which Mr. Burleson has given the company during the six months ending January 31, we have earned more than the compensations awarded us by Postmaster General Burleson last year. If we had been allowed to keep our property, and operate it, we would have earned more than the compensations awarded us by Postmaster General Burleson last year.'

Red Cross Accomplishes Much Despite Handicap of Retirement of Workers Despite the fact that there have been few workers on duty during the last month, the Woman's Bureau of the Harrisburg chapter, American Red Cross, has accomplished much in the past few days. This total is announced in the monthly report made public this morning. The report shows that signatures of Miss Anne McCormick, director, Mrs. G. H. Orth, executive secretary and other workers, have been secured. Much of the work during the month has been on refugee garments for the women and children suffering from the war in the more than 100 war-stricken countries. The total of refugee garments produced during the month is 1,700. The more than 100 house gowns, night gowns, boys' shirts, chemise, petticoats, girls' drawers, pianoforte girls' dresses and morning blouses. Hospital garments and supplies to the number of 1643 were also made during the month. American Red Cross garments were shipped to the Philadelphia headquarters; 32,700 yards of gauze, 4,700 gray and khaki yards, 350 pounds white sack yarn.

Requiring owners to pay for registration rooms used by registrars in third class cities on registration days. Regulating method of penalties for killing deer or elk by mistake. Fixing ten years continuous service as an officer as the minimum for National Guard retirement. Authorizing the banking commission to inquire into the postal and promotion proposition for bank incorporation. Establishing penalties for defacement and removal of trade marks. Making it unlawful to bring or to receive stolen property brought into Pennsylvania.

COMPLAINT OF DOGS Complaints have been received by the county commissioners because of the number of dogs in the county which are at large in some of the county districts. It is likely that constables will be instructed to inquire into the number of dogs which have been paid, and a number of the animals were killed.

Daily Health Talks

What Doctor Pierce Has Done For Humanity! It has always seemed to me that Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., should be placed near the top when a list of America's great benefactors is written. He studied and conquered human diseases to a degree that few realize. Whenever he found a remedy that overcame disease, he at once announced it in the newspapers, but openly printed the name of each root and herb he used, and so to-day the names of Dr. Pierce and his medicines are widely known, and they stand for better health and better citizenship.

One of this great physician's most successful remedies is known as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are little, sugar-coated pills, composed of Mayapple, leaves of aloë, root of jalap—things that Nature grows in the ground. These Pellets are safe because they make the bowels gently, leaving no bad after-effects, as so many pills do. Very often they make a person who takes them feel like a new man or woman, for they cleanse the system of hard, decayed and poisonous matter that accumulates when one is constive. If you are constipated, by all means go to your druggist and get some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They may prove to be the very thing your system requires to make you well and happy.
