LLOYD GEORGE SAYS ENGLAND IS NOT AT ODDS WITH FRANCE; GERMANS APPEAL TO PRESIDENT TO SAVE THEM FROM ANARCHY

Nations Are of Single Mind at Paris

BRITAIN WILL STAND FIRMLY Discussion Found Necessary For Results

Paris, April 4.—In a statement to the Petit Parisien, Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain denies there are dissensions between France and England regarding guarantees for France against Germany. He declares that the understanding between the two governments is complete and that England is "ready to make fresh sacrifices, if necessary, to secure the peace and independence of France."

The interview was sought, says a Havas summary of it, because of the rumor recently in circulation to the effect that Great Britain would oppose in the Peace Conference the French demands for guarantees.

Discussions Necessary Although discussions were necessary to settle the knotty problems frequently brought to the attention of the conference, Lloyd George is quoted as saying the understanding between the two nations remained absolutely unimpaired.

"We wish France to know that it is the will of the British people that France should have complete security for the future," the British Premier declared.

"I have seen the scourge of war twice loosed on France by Germany," the Premier told the Petit Parisien. "We do not intend that there shall be a third time, and should it be fifty years hence, France again will find England by her side with all her wealth and power; for mark well my words, the wild beast must be mastered."

It is rumored at present, but if one day it raises its head ready to spring, it will find itself again faced by France and England, united in brotherhood."

Ready to Make Sacrifices Even if it were fifty years hence, the Premier added, England would be ready at that time again to make sacrifices for the French if Germany should let loose the scourge of war on France for the third time.

The aspirations of Denmark are regarded favorably by the Peace Conference, the Matin says. Indications are that Denmark will recover the part of Schleswig-Holstein which she desires.

House Takes Wilson's Place Colonel E. M. House took President Wilson's place at the meeting of the Council of Four to-day. The cold developed last night. The President retired early and rested comfortably through the night.

PRISON LABOR TO HELP CULTIVATE ALMSHOUSE FARM

Plan Helps to Keep Down the Costs and Provides Work For Short Termers.

A number of prisoners from the county jail will be sent to the almshouse to work on the farm during the spring and summer months. The board of prison inspectors decided at their meeting to-day. A request for the prison labor was made again this year by the board of poor directors and was granted by the jail officials.

Last year during the entire farming season prisoners were kept at work at the poor farm giving much help in the planting, care and harvesting of the crops.

Many acres are planted each year by the county almshouse officials, and large crops have been harvested, including both grains and vegetables in big quantities. With the employment of prisoner labor at the farm the cost of the farm work is lowered and the men who are given the jobs are given an opportunity for plenty of healthy exercise in the open air, instead of being confined in narrow cells.

County officials declared that the removal of the prison to a large tract in the country where a big farm and industrial organization could be formed so that all the prisoners would have an opportunity to work is becoming more urgent. Scores of men are confined in the jail month after month with little to do but to sit in their cells and pace the corridors behind bars.

Three Truck Companies of 60 Men Each to Spend the Night in Harrisburg

It is understood that necessary matters will be referred to the sick-room, or that the conferees will consult the President personally if occasion arises.

Justice, he said, will prove to be one of the greatest agencies in treating Bolshevism in this country. Dis-

Plans are rapidly being completed for a comprehensive survey of housing conditions in the city that some base may be supplied for some effective remedial efforts. Work is being done in Washington, has been sent here to direct the home registration bureau and to aid in the work generally.

Registration blanks are to be completed concerning the various boarding and rooming houses of the city as the first step in the campaign. Various statistics will be secured concerning each. Huns Prefer Bolshevik Rule to Yoke

INDICT CZECHS AND POLANDERS

Tells Wilson U. S. Is Fertile Soil For Soviets

Berlin, April 4.—Leading ethical, philosophical and religious societies of Germany have addressed an appeal to President Wilson, giving warning against a disregard of principles to which Mr. Wilson has pledged himself, which, they claim, induced Germany to lay down her arms.

The appeal declares that "if the Germans are driven to desperation, they would rather become Bolsheviki than slaves," and charges the Czechs and Poles with anticipating the conclusions of the peace conference and violating Wilsonian principles. It says the Allies are "not only conducting the acts of the Czechs and Poles, but are supporting those nations."

It is maintained the Allies provoked anarchistic conditions in Germany by refusing to relax the blockade.

Discussing the possibility of a revival of militarism, the appeal says: "Only one thing could again weld the Germans of every state into a warlike power—the continuation of the policy of hate and annihilation that has been pursued by the Allies."

Mr. Wilson is warned that the United States, "with its great private fortunes and billion dollar trusts," is a "fertile field for communism," and is suggested that wealthy Americans "had better support the League of Nations."

Schoolboy Snatches Title For Indoor Tennis From Philadelphia Champion

New York, April 4.—Vincent Richards, of Yonkers, N. Y., won the national indoor tennis championship to-day, defeating William T. Tilden, Jr., of Philadelphia, in a five set match by scores of 2-6, 6-2, 6-8, 6-1, 6-4.

The victory of Richards, a schoolboy still in his teens, was a sensational climax to the tournament. Tilden came up in the grass court tournament of last season with his greater physical advantages and tennis experience, was upset by Richards, with the youngster's speed and shifting court strategy.

Richards came to the net with a sprinter's dash and blocked off Tilden's returns into the corners or smashed the ball back with such terrific power that the tall Philadelphia was unable to control the ball when he got his racket on it.

When Tilden's racket came in contact with Richards', the latter made impossible appearing gets and turned them into passing shots which traveled close to the side lines, where even Tilden, with his long reach, was unable to get them.

TRANSFER NOT COMPLETE

Woman's Shop or Child's Restaurant May Open in the Market Street Property

Sale of the Hershey House, 327 Market street, one of the smaller but best known hotels in the city and a landmark of generations, to Samuel A. Greene, was rumored to-day. Mr. Greene is in Philadelphia to-day and the report has not been confirmed. No consideration has been given.

It is said that the building probably was purchased for a Philadelphia business firm, it being rumored that two enterprises in that city have been anxious to locate in this city in a Market street property for some time. One of these is interested in women's apparel and the other the Child's restaurant operators.

The hotel is one of the landmarks of the city and was started there many years ago. In 1881 it became the property of the Hersheys and has been conducted since then as the Hershey House. For years prior to that time it was known as the Peters Hotel and was one of the leading city hostels before the Child's War.

Washington, April 4.—Charges of gross carelessness and negligence in preventing and controlling the spread of typhoid and para-typhoid fevers in the army, are made against medical officers serving with the forces overseas in a circular published by the chief surgeon of the American expeditionary forces in the state public here to-day by the public health service in connection with a warning that vaccination does not give complete immunity from typhoid.

The secretary read a letter left by President Wilson when he went to Europe, expressing the hope that the mission would result in "bringing about the desirable ends set forth in the joint resolution of the legislature."
