

BEQUEST TO RELIEF WORK

White Plains, N. Y., April 4.—A fund of $300,000 is provided for the relief and benefit of Armenians in the will of Gullabi Gulbenkian, an Armenian rug dealer of New York, which, filed here yesterday, disposes of an estate valued at $1,000,000. Mr. Gulbenkian was murdered in his store last July.

General Motors To Invest $37,000,000 To Enlarge Plants

Detroit, Mich., April 4.—The General Motors Corporation has announced plans for the extension of its plants in various parts of the country, involving an expenditure of over $37,000,000, "as an answer to the feeling of uncertainty in industrial and financial circles over post war conditions," as W. C. Durant, president and general manager of the corporation, put it.

"Everybody has been waiting to see what the other fellow was going to do," said Mr. Durant, in making the announcement. "General Motors, by its decision to invest immediately $37,000,000, emphasized its belief in the underlying stability of the country and the soundness of the automobile industry."

Of the thirty-seven million dollar budget, twenty-six millions are to be expended in Michigan. Among amounts to be expended on construction work outside the state is $1,028,000 at Bristol, Conn.

Smuts Will Go to Hungary; Not Mangin

Paris, April 4.—The departure of General Jan Christian Smuts, member of the British League of Nations Commission for Budapest, instead of General Mangin, of the French army, who was first suggested as the allied representative to investigate certain problems in Hungary arising from the armistice, is regarded as an indication that talking, rather than fighting, will take place in Hungary, where the situation is believed by the allied officials to have improved greatly.

Will Finish Draft of League of Nations To-day

Paris, April 4.—The League of Nations drafting committee has completed fifteen articles of the League of Nations covenant, which now contains twenty-seven articles. It is not known what the additional article is.

To-day the committee probably will finish its draft, which will be in French and English in parallel columns.

A full meeting of the League commission will be held probably Saturday to consider the revised covenant, which doubtless will undergo further changes before it is submitted to the representatives of the five big nations.

AUTO THIEVES FOILED

As automobile thieves were attempting to steal a new automobile belonging to Richard Culhane from Sixth and Herr streets, last evening Culhane came up and foiled them in their attempts. A rope had been tied to another car in order to tow the first one away, but this was cut when Culhane suddenly appeared. Thieves made an attempt to steal the Park Commission Ford car.

WHAT HO! WHAT HO! COPPERS TAKE UNKINDLY TO THIS JOB

It May Be Mutiny and the Chief and Brave Mayor Are All, So to Speak, Het Up Over Latest Development on Force

While the old police station over in Market street looked just the same to-day, and smelled just the same, and the same faces were visible within, and the same stern eyes welcomed offenders, and the old police van was bringing them in, things weren't as usual—things weren't going on as usual.

Mutiny was brewing. Some of these here, now, Bolshevick sentiments were rampant among the officers of the law.

It seems that Police Chief Wetzel told the women in charge of the Rummage Sale to be held next week that he would give them six policemen the first day of the sale, to keep the crowd in line and prevent the bargain hunters from going right on through the walls into the alley. It isn't the first time the police have performed this noble act. They know all about it.

"Listen, Chief," said one of the biggest of them, buttonholing the head of the force in the hallway. "What did I ever do to you?"

"Nothing—why?" asked the Chief. "You want me to go to that Rummage Sale next week. Listen, Ed—excuse me for using your first name on you, Ed—I have only $3,000 insurance."

"What's that go to do with your going to the Rummage Sale?" demanded the Chief.

"I don't want to leave my unfortunate family with only $3,000 insurance," said the big policeman, brushing a tear from his eye. "It ain't humane. Let me off, will you, Chief?"

"Do you mean you're afraid?" sneered the Chief.

"Sneer if you wish, J. Edward Wetzel," said the patrolman, "but the closest you ever got to one of those Rummage Sales was across the street from it, so you don't know what they're like. I been in two of them, Chief. I just can't stand the idea of having all them bargain-hunting men and women climbing over me to get in them doors."

The Chief was silent for a moment. "I know your family, Andy," he said, "and I wouldn't want to do anything to bring trouble on it."

"Thank you, E. J. Thank you," beamed the policeman. "I knew your heart."

"Wait a minute," said the Chief. "I don't want to cause any trouble for your family, so I suggest that you take out $10,000 more insurance."

After that conversation four or five other patrolmen got the police chief in a corner, but he was adamant.

"That Rummage Sale is to get policemen to keep the crowds in line," said the Chief, "and every dad-blame man I have assigned to that job will be at the old Gilbert storeroom next Thursday morning at 8 o'clock."

That's the first day of the selling at the Rummage Sale. The first three days next week will be given over to collecting articles for sale. This will be directed by Mercer B. Tate.
