Some clever barrel-jumping: Mills and Lockwood, the Hicksville Rubes; Hugh Herbert and Company, in an amusing comedy offering, entitled "Mind Your Own Business," and Davis and Greenlee, clever song and dance entertainers.

Tom Mix, whose dare-devil, fascinating acting in character roles of life in the Far West has won him a warm place in the hearts of local movie fans, is the star of an excellent William Fox production, "Fighting For Gold," which is on the bill for to-day only at the Victoria Theater.

High above No. Man's Land in France came the man who gave battle to the Hun single-handed. He fought until wounded, then he was obliged to land on the enemy's soil and during the hours which passed he held his life in his hands and matched his true born American grit against German treachery—until he came upon the most beautiful girl he had ever seen, an American, a guest in the German home of the Countess of Moravia.

Soft-Coal Men Deny Charges Made by Hines

Washington, April 5.—The charge of the National Coal Association that the railroad administration was attempting to "beat the price of coal below the cost of production," referred to yesterday by Director General Hines as an "interesting fiction," has been renewed by J. D. A. Morrow, general secretary of the association.

The various sessions of the conference held throughout the week have dealt with elementary work, teen age work, adult work, training leaders, story telling, graded social service, recruiting, junior societies, senior societies and how to organize and teach a teacher training class.
