

Miss Katharine Fox Nissley
Bride of Samuel Arnold

Hummelstown, April 5.—One of the most brilliant events of town took place last evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Katharine Fox Nissley, of Philadelphia, and Samuel Arnold, 3d, of Pittsburgh, were married at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Mary Fox. The Rev. Arthur B. King, pastor of the Reformed Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her uncle, Dr. L. Webster Fox, of Philadelphia. The bride wore a gown of white crepe meteor and carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Henry F. Lee, of Philadelphia, was matron of honor, in a gown of beaded georgette of pale pink with a corsage of roses. John G. Arnold, a brother of the groom, served as best man.

The house was attractively decorated with palms and spring flowers. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Paul Nissley, formerly of Hummelstown, and a graduate of Smith College, Massachusetts. Mr. Arnold is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College and is an electrical engineer, connected with the American Bridge Company. The newly-married couple left on a wedding tour for Grand Canyon, Los Angeles and San Francisco, Cal. They will make their home at Pittsburgh.

Expert Poultryman Sells Broilers at $1 Per Pound
One of the most prominent and successful poultrymen of Pennsylvania is Mr. Lewis B. Sprecher, Rohrerstown, Pa. He is a Director of the Pennsylvania State Poultry Association and is generally recognized as an authority on practical poultry matters.

Last fall Mr. Sprecher hatched about 1,600 chicks for use as broilers and sold the latter to a select trade at $1 per pound. The secret of his success is given in his own words:

"Regarding the success in rearing the 1,600 broiler chicks that we hatched in November last, will say results were beyond expectation. These were really ready for the most exacting trade at from eight to ten weeks, and for fall hatched I consider this very unusual. Of course, I used, exclusively for the first five weeks, the chick feed that I personally consider, after years of actual use, the best obtainable, namely, Pratts. This particular baby chick feed has always given results both in and out of war times."

Any feed which will grow fine chicks during the winter months will surely raise them in the spring. The Pratt dealer near you will supply you with Pratts Baby Chick Food under a money-back guarantee of satisfaction.

Many of the mines are threatened with "drowning" because even emergency work has ceased.

The men declare that they will stay out until their demands have been conceded. From Frankfurt comes word that the situation has quieted down and investigation of the damages done at the various plants were burned and the archives destroyed. RICHARD STERLING IN "A TAILOR-MADE MAN," AT THE ORPHEUM TUESDAY

"A Tailor-Made Man," Harry James Smith's celebrated comedy which kept New York in a hubbub of excitement and merriment for one year, and by thousands of out-of-town visitors, and by hundreds of out-of-town newspapers whose New York correspondents have recommended it without reserve, will be presented by John and Harris at the Orpheum on Tuesday evening. This extraordinary comedy is typically American in theme and atmosphere, and it is not only one of the funniest plays written in years, but it also teaches a lesson to humanity that one does not soon forget. It will be presented here with an excellent cast, headed by Richard Sterling.

DOUBLE CHARGE NOT PERMITTED

Water Rate Question on Two-Family Dwelling Case Decided

A water company is not justified in charging two minimum rates for service, when there is but one meter on the property, according to a decision handed down today by Public Service Commissioner James Alcorn in the complaint of Kennedy vs. Trout Run Water Company. The case, which involves water service in Duncannon, was brought some time ago. The company had charged a flat rate for the building, but when it was learned that part of it had been rented to a family and part used as a store, an additional charge was made, the corporation contending that it had a right to so charge on the ground that the building was a tenement.

The company is ordered to make but one minimum charge where there is but one meter and to post new rates. The effect of the decision is that if it is planned to charge according to rooms in a building, there must be separate meters for each charge account. The Spring Hill Water Company, operating in Point Marion, Fayette county, was ordered to-day in a Public Service Commission decision by Commissioner James Alcorn to install at its own expense, meters for all domestic consumers, the cost of plumbing and connections to be borne by consumers and to discontinue flat rates for metered consumers.

Swift & Co. Employees at Y. M. C. A. Safety Meet

At a "Safety First" and co-operation meeting last night in Falmestock Hall of the Central Y. M. C. A., 400 employees of the Swift & Company establishment in this city, Swift plants were shown and the method of handling livestock until it is ready for the consumer was illustrated. The meeting was arranged by C. A. Hibber, local manager of Swift's packing house in this city. The second part of the program showed first aid treatment. More than 400 employees of the local plant witnessed the pictures and were in attendance at the meeting. The aim was to show better methods in handling meats and also to stop negligence on the part of employees. The first film portrayed the ideal of the Swift Company and showed various scenes in the many plants. The second depicted the thousands of cattle in the huge stockyards awaiting slaughter. Scenes in the preparation of beef for the ultimate consumer were also given.

In the second part of the program first aid work at the Swift plant was thrown upon the screen. These pictures showed how accidents may occur in the various plants, gave first aid directions, showed how the doctors treat the injured and depicted correct ways of working to avoid such injury.

Employees of the firm viewed another show of the same character in Falmestock Hall at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon.

"CIDER" HAD A POWERFUL KICK

Over Five Per Cent. Alcohol Discovered in Sample

Six samples of "cider," classed as apple, sweet and grape, taken by agents of Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust during March, were found to be so charged with alcohol as to be rated as "intoxicating." One alleged "sweet cider" contained 5.75 per cent of alcohol by volume and another 1.77 per cent. This latter also contained salicylic acid. These samples were taken in western counties and arrests were made.

The food agents also prosecuted four sealers for selling "pops" of various flavors which contained artificial colors and flavors. In all seventy-eight arrests were made in March for violations of the food laws, foods unfit for use, sausage and hamburger steaks containing too much water, thirteen cases of butter overloaded with water and milk and cream too low in butter fat or otherwise failing to meet State law requirements furnishing the bases of suits. There were forty-one milk and cream cases.

The dairy and food division turned in $4,183.51 revenue during March, of which $2,353.51 came from licenses for the sale of oleomargarine. The total receipts of the division since January 1 were $489,751.23. In that period no less than 4,723 licenses for the sale of "oleo" were issued, all but 180 of them being for retail establishments.
