BUDAPEST'S RED GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN REMOVED

Bela Kun, Foreign Minister, Is Reported Assassinated; Officials Stirred

MUNICH STILL REGULAR

Berlin Doubts Genuineness of Proclamation Setting Up Soviet Rule in Bavaria

LEVIN OPPOSES THE MOVE

Rumor That Diet Might Move to Bamberg Officially Is Denied

By Associated Press. Vienna, April 7.—The Hungarian communist government in Budapest has been overthrown, according to rumors current in official circles, the newspapers say.

Bela Kun, the foreign minister, is reported to have been assassinated. The reports do not say whether the attempted revolution in Budapest was organized by the Socialists or the bourgeoisie parties.

Berlin Doubts Proclamation

Berlin, April 7.—Although reports concerning the situation in Munich are meager, such news as has reached Berlin indicates that a Soviet government has not yet been proclaimed in any way that can be regarded as official or binding.

The proponents of the plan met with strong opposition in two quarters. The Bavarian Diet, it is true, can scarcely meet on Tuesday, as had been the program, because it is not assured of the support of the troops in Munich. (Who were reported in Munich dispatches Saturday to have expressed sympathy with the Soviet cause but to have declared their intention to maintain neutrality, although they would not protect the Diet building, which is armed with machine guns.)

The proponents of the Soviet idea, however, have met with great opposition from the bourgeoisie on the one hand and the peasants on the other. The peasants hold the trump card in their control of the supply of foodstuffs, which they have declared they would refuse to deliver if a Soviet government were proclaimed.

Opposition Has Its Effect

The unexpected opposition to the establishment at present of the Soviet form of government manifested by Bavaria's most radical independent Dr. Levin, has had its effect, as he yields great influence in certain radical circles. The peasants' league likewise is opposing the plan with increasing vigor, and it is both politically and economically a strong factor in Bavarian life.

The rumors that the government and the Diet might move to Bamberg, in Northern Bavaria, has been officially denied.

THREAT OF CIVIL WAR CAUSED KAISER TO ABDICATE THRONE

Hindenburg Refused to Sanction Move to Have Royal Troops March Against the Leaders of Revolution When He Saw Military Collapse

Berlin, April 7.—While admitting there was a difference of opinion among German generals as to the practicability of fighting to maintain the imperial regime in November, Count Schulenberg, commander of a guards regiment, maintains in an article on the abdication of Emperor William, published in the Freiheit, that there were enough loyal troops to have marched on Aix-la-Chapelle and Cologne and put down the revolution. The count says that Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Groener, Prussian war minister, would not assume the responsibility for such a move, however, arguing that things had gone too far and that only the abdication of former Emperor William could save the situation.

VON HINDENBURG GIVES HIS SIDE

Copenhagen, April 8.—A statement by Field Marshal von Hindenburg on the article written by Count Schulenberg, circulated by the semi-official Wolff Bureau of Berlin, says that the article has "one-sided tendencies and is not objectively correct." "It contains material errors and inaccuracies regarding the views and utterances of the persons concerned," the statement adds, "and proves that Schulenberg was not adequately informed on the real situation."

CUSSING IN LANCASTER COUNTY DUTCH IS NEW TO DOWN EAST YANKEES

Captain Barnhart, of Lebanon, Tells How One of His Men Was Put Into the Hoosgow When He Talked to His Mules in a Language That Every Central Pennsylvania Skinner Knows Is Truly Essential

How his ability to swear in Pennsylvania Dutch accounted for a loyal Lancaster county soldier being listed for court-martial before his own officers intervened is told by Captain Harry R. Barnhart, of Lebanon, formerly of the Three Hundred and Ninth Machine Gun Battalion, who is convalescing at Camp Dix, N. J. Captain Barnhart, recovering from severe mustard gas burns, is commenting on the bravery and loyalty of the Keystone men of German descent who are among the casualties from the Pennsylvania regiment now arriving at Camp Dix, in commenting on the bravery and loyalty of the Keystone men of German descent who are among the casualties from the Pennsylvania regiment now arriving at Camp Dix.

Wilhelm Sought to Retain Prussian Kingdom but Was Forced to Flee the Country When Imperial Chancellor Announced Abdication

In the meantime, there came rumors from Berlin of the imminence of civil war and street fighting actually was begun there. Finally the imperial chancellor telegraphed that civil war might break out at any moment unless the abdication was announced at once. Hurried conferences were held by the emperor, the crown prince, and the leading generals, the article says. Internal conditions becoming worse, William at length agreed to abdicate as emperor, but not as king of Prussia. Field Marshal von Hindenburg endorsed this course but, in the opinion of General Groener, it was too late, although it might have saved the situation two weeks earlier.

WILSON STEADILY GETS BETTER AND PEACE IS NEARER

Signs in Paris That Conference Soon Will Finish Its Work

Paris, April 7.—President Wilson's condition was improved this morning, but by the direction of Rear Admiral Grayson, his physician, the President will remain in his room today, attending no meetings. Apparently the President's cold is in the last stages of the wearing-off process. He hopes to be able to resume work Tuesday. Orders which it is believed for the United States transport George Washington to proceed from America to a French port are not taken to mean that President Wilson is contemplating a premature departure from France.

THOUSANDS LOST ON CITY'S PUBLIC DUMPS

Money Saved by Careful Sorting of Waste Material Would Buy Many Shoes For Orphans and Feed Armenians

The Armenia fund would be enriched by many dollars or hundreds of pairs of shoes might be purchased for orphan children of the city, with the money that the old paper, bottles and other junk would bring from junk men, city health officials say. Hundreds of dollars worth of this material is annually being sent to the city dump, city health officials, preparing for the annual spring cleanup which opens on May 5, said today, in a plea that city people be more saving of this old material. During the first two months of the year, 13,497 cubic yards of waste material was sent to the city dumps from Harrisburg residences and included in this was much paper and other material that could be further utilized in manufacture and for which city junkmen are ready to pay good prices. Just now many tons of old material, accumulated during the winter, is being removed from households to city dumps and every effort is being made by city health officials, in line with the plea of the Department of Commerce, to have householders remove the valuable material from among the waste. The volume of such material to be removed by the city is expected to greatly increase within the next several weeks and especially during the cleanup week. The amount of valuable waste material placed on the city dumps annually totals approximately 2,600,000 pounds, it is estimated from Department of Commerce figures.

TO FIND BETTER SITE FOR LANDING OF BIG BALLOON

Park Commissioner E. Z. Gross arranged for a conference to be held late this afternoon with J. Herbert Thomas, president, the Rev. Dr. Ellis N. Kremer, vice-president of the Harrisburg Park Golf Association, and the chairman of the committee, arranging to have a big dirigible balloon land here. The golf officials protested against the proposed plan to have the big balloon land in Reservoir Park, deploring the thousands of persons who would go there to see it and ruin the turf and cause hundreds of dollars worth of damage. Because of these complaints Commissioner Gross said he will make an effort to have the landing place changed as no permanent arrangements for the use of Reservoir Park had been made. He said that it might be possible that the damage to the golf course would be serious and that it would be advisable, if at all possible, to provide another site for the dirigible to come to ground. It is understood other locations are being considered now and are to be discussed at the conference of the officials this afternoon. During the last few years much money has been spent to keep the green at Reservoir in condition with the result that it is one of the finest courses available for golfers, many of whom have evidenced much anxiety about the damage which may result if the dirigible is landed in the park.
