

WOOLWORTH DIES SUDDENLY AT 67; BEGAN WITH $50

Owner of Great Chain of Stores Expires at Long Island Home

New York, April 8.—Frank W. Woolworth, who started a five and ten cent store at Utica, N. Y., forty years ago on a capital of $50, and eventually became the millionaire proprietor of a great chain of stores in the United States, Canada and England, died suddenly early today at his home at Glen Cove, L. I.

In addition to establishing a business with profits said to be nearly $8,000,000 yearly, Mr. Woolworth built the celebrated fifty-one-story Woolworth building in lower New York, said to be the tallest building in the world.

Born on Farm
He was born on a farm at Rodman, Jefferson county, New York, on April 13, 1852. Until he was twenty-one years old he worked on his father's farm, obtaining a meager education in the district school, and later at a business college. His first position was as a clerk in a dry goods store, and he gradually advanced until he became a clerk and salesman, during which time he married on a salary of $8.50 per week. He worked in the dry goods business in various stores before a successful bargain counter sale gave him the idea of the possibilities of making a fortune in a dry goods store.

Idea Termed Visionary
His idea, when broached to his employers, was termed visionary and he was advised to stick to the old-fashioned plan of conducting a store. Nevertheless, Woolworth was determined to test his plan and his first venture was at Utica in 1879. He had but $50 in cash and got a personal note for the goods. In a year he had paid off his debt and saved some money. Closing out his store, he located at Lancaster, Pa., and established not only a store but the foundation of his fortune.

Business Worth $65,000,000
His rapid rise from a small store to the palatial Woolworth building in this city—with more than 800 branch stores in the United States, over sixty in Canada and England—forms one of the most interesting business romances of the world.

Probing Responsibility
The first question taken up at the morning session of the Council, at which Colonel House represented President Wilson, was that of procedure. This was considered in an effort to accelerate the work of the Council. It was planned to devote the afternoon session to the subject of responsibility for the war, including the question of a tribunal to try the former German Emperor, the former Crown Prince and others, on which divided reports have been presented.

Situation Improved
American members of the Peace Conference said to-day that the general situation was improved somewhat to-day because of the agreement reached by the commission on reparations to the mark, leaving only a few unessential details for adjustment.

Generally, a more hopeful tone prevailed in conference circles as the day went on. Members of the American delegation declined to give an explanation of the many rumors in circulation that the conference would complete its work shortly. One member, when asked for definite information on the subject, said: "You know the George Washington has been ordered to Brest. That is a good subject for speculation."

KEISTER CALLS ON ALL TO HELP CLEAN UP CITY

Full Program Fixed For Each Day of Week Set Aside For Purpose

Clergymen of the city are requested to urge their congregations in their sermons of May 4 to give full support to the annual spring cleanup, in a proclamation issued to-day by Mayor Daniel L. Keister, in which he fixes the week of May 4 for the campaign. The manner in which Harrisburg generally can contribute to the success of the campaign, is outlined in the proclamation.

Keister Calls on All to Help Clean Up City
Monday is classified as fire-prevention day, and a number of suggestions are made for activities along that line. On Tuesday and Wednesday the mayor thinks the yards ought to be cleaned up, and Thursday and Friday should be the time for improving the alley and the home surroundings. Saturday is to be Boy Scout day.
