Government Claims That War Officially Still Exists

New York, April 9.—Dismissal of the suit brought by the Jacob Hoffmann Brewing Company against government authorities to enjoin them from enforcing the provisions of the war time prohibition act was asked yesterday in papers filed in the federal district court by Earl B. Barnes, assistant United States district attorney.

To the complainant's allegations that the war was virtually ended with the signing of the armistice and its introduction of copies of the armistice, President Wilson's address to Congress announcing the fact and Secretary Baker's proclamation suspending intensive military operations as exhibits in support of that claim, the Government asks the court to take judicial notice of the fact that the peace treaty has not yet been ratified and a state of war still exists between the United States and Germany. The exhibits are classed as "insufficient and irrelevant" by the government which asks that they be stricken from the complaint.

"DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR

Stop dandruff and double beauty of your hair for few cents.

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of "Danderine" at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Your hair appears soft, glossy and twice as thick and abundant. Try it.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble, Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach troubles, such as fermenting food and acid indigestion, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphate of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloating right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. U. A. Gorgas.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Key West, Fla.—"For five years I suffered from irregularities, with terrible and an awful weakness in my back. The doctor gave me different medicines but they did me no good. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it to be the best medicine I ever tried because it made me well, and I can now do my housework. I am telling my friends about it."—Mrs. J. M. Camus, 726 Caroline St. Key West, Florida.

Many women at some period in their life suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex and which in most cases may be readily relieved by this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, just as Mrs. Camus found it helped her after suffering for years and trying everything else in vain. If you have any annoying symptoms you fail to understand, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The results of their forty years experience in advising women on this subject is at your service.

Lives Very Simple Life in Castle Grounds of Count Bentinck

Amerongen, Netherlands, April 9.—All who come into close connection with the former German Emperor these days are astonished at the change which has come over his behavior in relation to people with whom he is brought into contact. His haughty manner has disappeared. He no longer takes it for granted that he is the supreme lord to whom all must bow. Any service, given to him, even by the humblest of gardeners in the employ of Count Bentinck, is rewarded with apparently sincere thanks and sometimes even with a genuine handshake—a thing not looked for by the highest of his courtiers when he was still at the height of his power.

Suit Saws Wood

Virtually without exception, he passes three hours every morning between breakfast and lunch at his voluntary task of sawing logs in the grounds of the castle. The last ten minutes of each hour is given up to a spell of rest, during which the lumberman, once so imperious, smokes a light cigarette. In the course of this interval—heartily welcomed by his attendants who assist at the other end of the double-handled saw now used—William Hohenzollern starts smoking, for the attendants still retain enough of their subjectivity not to dare to take the lead. Then one of the attendants discreetly draws a cigarette case from his pocket, on seeing which the former Emperor often says, offering his burning cigarette: "Here you are. Take a light."

Soon all about him are smoking and continue doing so until the ten minute interval is over and work begins again. Oftentimes in these short rests the former Emperor who, during the work walks about in the castle grounds when the weather is favorable, comes up to the place where the wood sawing is done and a little general chat ensues, both Herr Hohenzollern and his wife putting questions on all sorts of subjects to those in attendance.

Very Often Talkative

As a rule, the former Emperor is extremely talkative. He dwells greatly on happenings in Germany both past and present. Often he is in a complaining mood, when he blames all and sundry for what has occurred. It does not seem to enter his mind that any of the fault lies with him. At these times he expresses sorrow for the asperity of his utterances. On other occasions—these are more rare—he closes up like a clam and not a word can be drawn from him.

He has everything he can possibly require in the way of creature comforts, but without actually being imprisoned he is confined to a very small area, for he has not dared since before Christmas to put a foot outside of the castle grounds, as he fears contact with the outside world.

Many Changes Made in Commands of 28th Division Still Serving in France

Recent advices from the headquarters of the 28th Division on the other side indicate important changes in a number of the regiments.

Colonel Joseph H. Thompson, formerly major of the first battalion of the 110th Regiment is now in command of the regiment and it is expected that he will lead the boys of the old "Fighting Tenth" to the home shores.

Major Thompson was a State Senator and for a time after the armistice, was director of athletics at the headquarters of the Second Army.

At last accounts from overseas Company M, which was formerly commanded by Captain Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., of Harrisburg was in command of Capt. Ralph Cummings, of Blairsville, who was formerly a lieutenant of Company I, and who for a time also commanded Company K of Waynesburg. Captain Aiken, formerly in command of the Washington company of the 110th is now Lieut. Colonel of the regiment.

The Lafayette Bulletin contains much interesting matter regarding the 28th Division and especially concerning the changes in the 110th Regiment with which the Lafrebe company is connected. Captain Schall, who served as chaplain of the 110th during the greater part of the war has recently returned home and in a number of speeches has given great credit to the Pennsylvania fighters.

Home Town of Founder of W. C. T. U. Planning Dry Celebration July 1

Hillsboro, Ohio, April 9.—This town, the home of "Mother" Thompson, credited with being the founder of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, is arranging for a big national celebration when America goes dry on July 1. Leaders of various temperance societies will attend the celebration.

Those planning the event claim that Hillsboro is the birthplace of the national prohibition movement. They say that on December 24, 1853, a number of women joined forces and set out to rid the district of its saloons.

The story of how these pioneers, headed by "Mother" Thompson, sallied forth day after day and kneeling before the saloons "prayed" and sang them out of existence, is a matter of history, the celebration managers say.

Some of the members of "Mother" Thompson's little band are still living and will participate in the celebration.

Marsh Run Jobs to Be Filled by Civil Service

Examinations for positions at the Marsh Run Army Reserve Depot will be held at Civil Service headquarters in Philadelphia April 15. The positions to be filled are as follows: Fireman portable boiler, salary $135 per month; crane operator (railroad), salary $150 per month; machinist, salary $90 per month; rigger, salary $125 per month.

EXPANDS TAXI SERVICE

Four new cars were received this week by C. H. Scandalls of the Penn-Harris Taxi Service. The total number of machines now in service is nine. Mr. Scandalls reports that, despite the fact that the taxi service has but recently been opened, he has been compelled to enlarge his facilities. Ground has been broken for a new garage under his management at Eleventh and State streets. The new garage is to be known as the "Penn-Harris Garage" and is to be owned by an incorporated company.
