PENBROOK CLUB TO HEAR LECTURE

George Wirt, of State Forestry Department, Will Give Illustrated Talk on Trees

The Penbrook Community Civic Club will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, April 15, at 7:30 o'clock in Kichman's hall, Main street, Penbrook, when George Wirt, of the State Forestry Department, will give an illustrated lecture on "Trees." The meeting is for members only.

The week of April 14 will be "Cleanup Week" in the borough of Penbrook, through the co-operation of the municipal department of the Civic Club with the Board of Health and the borough council. The residents of the borough are requested to dispose of everything themselves, that they possibly can, but such things that cannot be disposed of, as ashes, tin cans, bottles, etc., will be gathered up and hauled away if placed in an accessible place.

Only clean ashes will be taken away—they must be absolutely free of glass, bottles, etc. The Boy Scouts of Penbrook have made arrangements to assist in the cleanup, and everyone is urged to co-operate in this splendid movement.

St. Stephen's Choir Sings Maunder's Lenten Cantata Sunday evening, April 13, the choir of St. Stephen's Episcopal church will sing Maunder's Lenten cantata, "Penitence, Pardon and Peace." The soloists will be Master Merrill Shepherd, soprano, and Clarence H. Sigler, bass.

SONG RECITAL IN STIEFF HALL

Mrs. Sanders Presents Pupils in First Recital Since Her Residence in City

The people fortunate enough to hear the song recital under the direction of Mrs. James G. Sanders, given in the Steiff hall last night, voiced but one regret, and that was that the rules of concert etiquette prevented Mrs. Sanders taking part in the program. The numbers were warmly appreciated and the entire program was pleasing, showing that Harrisburg has real singers who bid fair to hold a prominent place in the musical world.

Mrs. William Witherow's singing was especially enjoyed, her work showing artistic finish and sympathy of tone quality. Her simple numbers were given with much ease and the aria with fine dramatic effect.

Mrs. Sanders' capable direction was largely responsible for the success of last evening's recital. The touch of the genuine musician who sacrifices much for the sake of the student was apparent in the entire program.

The numbers presented were: "In This Hour of Softened Splendor," Piusini; the Cecelia quartet, Mrs. Howard Gensler; "The Wanderer's Night Song," Rubenstein; Miss Landis; "Song of the Persian Captive," Daniels; "Wind Song," Rodgers; "One Day," Johnstone; "The Rosy Morn," Ronald; Mrs. William Witherow; "The Angel," Rubenstein; Miss Landis; "Song of the Persian Captive," Daniels; "The Fairies Pipes," Brewer; "Maytime," Coerne; Mrs. Howard Gensler; "Folk Song, MacDowell; "When It is Nighttime," Brana-combe; recitative and aria, (Samson et Dalila), Saint-Saens; Mrs. William Witherow; "The Merry Miller," De-Koven; the Cecelia quartet; Dr. Henry Lentz, accompanist.

Little Comedy Has a Military Atmosphere

The B. T. S. Literary Club, of Penbrook, is preparing to stage the light comedy entitled "The Adventures of Miss Brown," on May 7 and 8, in Wolf's hall, at 8:15 o'clock. This play, by Robert Buchanan and Charles Marlowe, was first presented in London, where it met with great success. It is a laugh-provoking production and will afford much merriment for all who attend.

Great consideration was given to the assignment of parts. Miss Ruth S. Hocker and William H. Snyder will appear in leading roles. The play is one of the best and carries with it a military atmosphere. The principal scene represents a room in a United States army barracks and the costumes of the male characters are principally of army khaki.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. John Unger and the proceeds will be devoted to the fund for providing equipment for the Penbrook High school. Tickets for either performance can be secured from any member of the club or at Hocker's grocery store, Twenty-eighth and Main streets, Penbrook.

FOR MRS. SMILEY'S CLASS Mrs. Frank Smiley's class of the Fifth Street Methodist Sunday School held its monthly meeting at the home of Miss Lilla Cummings, 525 Macleod street. The following members were present: Mrs. R. Reese, Miss Bertha Armour, Mrs. Baltzer, Miss Kratzer, Miss Lilla Fouk, Miss Florence Gingsrich, Mrs. J. Albright, Mrs. Foutz, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Cless, Mrs. Shull, Mrs. Rowan, Miss Emma Stoner, Mrs. Shultz, Mrs. Lightner, Mrs. Helm.

FRATERNITY HOUSE DANCE A house dance will be held at Carlisle on Friday evening by the Dickinson Chapter of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. A. Todd Conway, of Wilkes-Barre, and S. Shower Miss Baturin With Household Gifts Miss Mary Baturin, 226 Harris street, whose engagement to Harry Cohen, of this city, was recently announced, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by her friends at the home of Miss Goldie Kutzman, 1615 Green street.

The bride-to-be was showered with many beautiful and useful gifts, including linen, chinaware, cut glass, silverware and aluminum kitchen utensils.

A portion of the evening was devoted to playing five hundred and the three prizes awarded were a string of beads, silver sugar tongs and a guest towel.

Dr. Gossard to Speak on "Re-Americanization" Dr. George D. Gossard, president of Lebanon Valley College, will be in the city to-morrow to speak before Keystone Chapter United States Daughters of 1812, on "Re-Americanization." Dr. Gossard is known throughout the country as an educator and clever lecturer. The Lebanon Valley quartet will sing and Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones will present current events.

Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, the regent, will preside and after the program tea will be served to the members and their guests.

Mrs. Rineer Is Hostess to Bella Vista Class The Bella Vista class of the Fifth Street Methodist Sunday school was pleasantly entertained last evening by Mrs. Joseph Rineer at her home, 1624 North Sixth street. The Easter offering was discussed by the teacher, Mrs. Harry C. Devor, the members heartily co-operating in the plans.

In attendance were: Mrs. Della Fox, Mrs. Willoughby Stouffer, Mrs. George Mulligan, Mrs. Harry Houghton, Mrs. Fanny Gantt, Mrs. Amy Saylor, Emerson Saylor. Each guest was given a little Easter basket with candy eggs.

FRED WEBSTER IS ILL Mrs. Robert Webster, 223 South Fourteenth street, was called to Baltimore to-day to be with her son, Fred Webster, a student at St. Paul's school, who was to undergo a nasal operation. Mr. Webster, who was in Philadelphia, joined his wife and son in Baltimore this afternoon.

Veteran Realty Man Celebrating Birthday

John F. Rohrer

John F. Rohrer is happily celebrating his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary to-day at the home of his son, Jay F. Rohrer, 1035 Rollison street, Cloverly Heights, where he is residing since he disposed of his property at 1400 North Second street. His daughter, Mrs. Harry Huber, has joined her husband to make their home in the future at Homewood, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Rohrer, a veteran realty man, still takes keen interest in business, and says: "I'm all hitched up in working the Central high, and it is thrifty to stay on the job."

Women's Advisory Board Hears of Work Abroad

The women's advisory board of the Harrisburg Y. M. C. A. met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Kunkel, 601 North Front street, with about thirty members present. Mrs. Paul A. Kunkel, the president, presided and the speakers of the afternoon were William W. Lockwood, metropolitan secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Shanghai, China, and Mr. Seneman, a native of Harrisburg, who has been in the army and is now in the navy, and who has had an opportunity to see the work in that eastern city, and Owen E. Pence, student secretary at Robert College, Constantinople, who told of conditions in Turkey during the war and of the new developments since the signing of the armistice.

Old Merchant of City Receiving Good Wishes

Alfred J. Seneman, one of the best-known men of the city, is receiving congratulations and good wishes to-day in celebration of his sixty-seventh birthday anniversary.

Mr. Seneman, a native of Mechanicville, came here in 1875. He has been in the mercantile business for many years, so that in consistency, he is probably the oldest merchant of the city. His popular up-town store keeps the same trade name, Seneman and the market folk particularly, would not know what to do were the Seneman name to go out of business.

EASTER BANQUET FOR THE ALUMNI

Lieut. Governor Beidleman Will Address Central High Association on April 23

Among the acceptances received by the committee in charge of the big Easter banquet for alumni, faculty members, students and friends of Central High School, to be held Wednesday evening, April 23, was that of the scholastic yearning of the alumni who expects to have returned from a western trip, by that time, and will address the "old boys."

The Central Society is in charge of the event which promises a good time for all who attend. A nominal fee is being assessed to cover expenses, and the committee requests that all interested persons consider this as a personal invitation.

Good music will be in style as well as good speaking, and a rumor is prevalent among alumni of the school that a permanent alumni association may be organized.

Acceptances and remittances should be sent to the chairman of the committee, W. Lewis Kay, of the Dickinson School of Law, Carlisle, before the end of this week. The other members of the committee are: Richard W. Mount, Thomas Caldwell and Russell J. Zimmerman.

CENTRAL HIGH NOTES

Assembly For Argo A special assembly was held yesterday for the purpose of boosting subscriptions to the commencement number of the Argus. Professor Severance gave Business Manager Lewis K. Rimer the platform shortly after the school had assembled. One thousand subscriptions by May 15 is the goal that the school editors are working on.

Professor Severance had several important matters to bring before the assembly. He discussed with his business when the Argus representative had finished. His first item was a matter of reform, and applied to the Argus staff. The principal members of the staff would be selected from all classes of the school, instead of only the upper classes, as has been the custom for many years. He believes that this change will arouse more interest in the school publication, and will bring the staff closer to the school.

His suggestion was not made because he was dissatisfied with the work done under the present system, but was made because he thought that a better paper could be published.

The principal's next item was with regard to the purchase of War Savings Stamps by the students. He reminded the student body that the government had a new issue for sale at 10 cents on the dollar, and urged them to purchase the stamps in the same quantities, and with the same will that they had done when the country was at war. The War Savings stamps will be on sale at the office as soon as arrangements can be made for their purchase, and bulletins will be posted showing just how many stamps from time to time. No campaign will be waged, but it is up to the Central students to keep up the patriotic spirit of the school by purchasing these stamps.

The final election of officers of the senior class took place yesterday at the close of the afternoon session. For the first time in the history of the class of '19 was the election of officers held in a class meeting. The voting yesterday was done in the assembly room of the school at a regularly conducted class meeting. The votes, however, were counted in one of the parlors of the building. The names that appeared on the ballot for the graduating president and secretary were as follows: For president, George N. Pulas, 28; for secretary, Robert W. Crist; for secretary, Miss Grace Peake and Miss Kathryn Eyer. Miss Merle Smith, who had previously been a nominee for secretary, was forced to resign on account of ill health. The results of the election with the votes balloted for each candidate, as announced by the retiring president, Lewis K. Rimer, were given out at a late hour, and were as follows: For president, George N. Pulas, 28; Robert W. Crist, 76; for secretary, Miss Kathryn Eyer, 50; Miss Grace Peake, 52. The counting of the ballots was done by ex-President Rimer and ex-Secretary Elizabeth Lloyd, and was supervised by Class Adviser J. Rolla Miller.

The new secretary, Miss Grace Peake, is a member of the C. A. O. society and one of the hardest workers in the Y. W. C. A. Club of Central High school. Robert W. Crist, the graduating president, is a member of the H. A. Society and the Philonian Debating Society.

Committees Appointed The last committee appointed by ex-president Lewis K. Rimer before his retirement from office were the commencement dance committee and the executive committee. With assistance of Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, the retiring secretary of the class, Rimer chose the following committees: Executive committee, Miss Charlotte Grove, Miss Katherine Eyer, Miss Mary Lewis, Miss Lois Coon, Stuart Wagner, Ross S. Hoffman, Carl B. Stoner and Harold Connor; dance committee, Miss Dorothy DeVout, Miss Elinor Baxter, Miss Virginia Foster, Miss Elizabeth Brown, William K. McBride, Clyde Hocker, Ross S. Hoffman, Gilchrist Bringer.

Class Honors Mrs. Clayton Smucker at Banquet Last Evening in Church

More than sixty members of the Mrs. Clayton Albert Smucker Sunday school class of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, attended an interesting event last evening in the parlors and social hall of the church in honor of their teacher. The following women furnished the banquet and gave the entertainment of the evening gathering: Mrs. Carrie Miller, Mrs. J. Harry Snow, Mrs. Lizzie Slemmons, Mrs. Anna C. Storey, Mrs. J. C. Seidel, Mrs. William Shoop, Mrs. Edward A. Snyder, Mrs. Mary Steever, Mrs. C. M. Shaver, Mrs. E. L. Venn and Mrs. J. M. Valles.

An elaborate menu was served. The table decorations were white carnations and sweetpeas, and the favors were entwined hearts with bluebirds. The Harrisburg Ukulele club furnished the music, the Misses Katherine Lytle, Catherine Goodyear, Anna Bergstresser and Mary Edwards participating in the numbers. Mrs. E. J. Hockenberry gave interesting readings, and at the close of the evening Mrs. Smucker was presented with a beautiful week-end traveling bag and flowers.

The teacher addressed the members of the big Bible class, thanking them for the pretty gifts. The women enjoyed a good social chat until quite a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Maloney Entertain For Nephew

One of the pleasant little events of last evening was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Maloney at their home, 1619 Green street, in honor of their nephew, V. J. O'Connor, of Philadelphia, treasurer of the American League of Basketball Clubs. In attendance were the president of the league, William Allen; Dr. George Dietrich, M. M. Gallagher, Lieutenant Cashman, Thomas Coffey and Professor Brown, of Camden, N. J.
